Tossess four years ago, be expected that the Polk county will be their utmost under Prof. administration. The recion of John T. Ford is evidence the satisfactory manner in which e has conducted the sheriff's office Commissioner Riggs is well known as a public servant, having already served two years. He is one of Polk's solid farmers, and brings to the court his experience of the past two years. With the old court Mr. Biggs, had but little say. as the other two members outvoted him and when they agreed upon a matter, it was of little consequence as to how commissioner Riggs stood. It is the disposition of the present court to allow each member's say, and yote to weigh on every question that comes up.
