No Doubt About It No doubt but Salem as a point for economical buying in all lines of merchandise surpasses all her sister cities.

No doubt there is more truth than poetry in our statements.

NOWHERE are quantity and quality more universal and prices so uniformly low. Few people realize that almost a dozen stocks of furniture are exhibited here. Salem is known throughout the west as the town where furniture is sold cheap.

It is an undisputed fact that Salem's furniture interests represent more capital than that of any similar city.
