lem has eaten enough tax in his time to digest a few hundred pancakes.

The Indians are holding an institute at Newport this week.
Among those they are endeavoring to convert to the wearing of feathers on the head and "111" on the chin are President Gatch and Prof. Horner of the Agricultural College, Miss Estella Reel, of Washington, D. C. and Ex-Governor Gear of the Salem Statesman.

There are men now living here who helped harvest oats where the State House now stands, that yielded sixty bushels to the acre.—Salem Statesman. And there are still men living on the exact spot where the State House now stands that are harvesting oats that yield much more than sixty bushels to the acre.

A dress maker has been appointed at the State Agricultural college. That makes the faculty complete. Next picnic at Independence she will be asked to deliver an address along with Dr. Withycombe.
There are a few things about dress making we would like to know and the prospects of instruction from a state professor is hailed with joy.

Polk County Fine Sheep.

Of the two car loads of fine sheep bought up by Mr. Donaldson for Wyoming, 200 were shipped from Independence. They were purchased from J. B. Stump, A. Staats, Joe Cravens, C. W. Leonard, Fred Stump and M. F. Percival. Mr.
Donaldson also bought from the Wyatts, Porters and Brown near Corvallis. The prices paid ranged from $6 to $25. There were some beautiful broad backed Cotswolds in the shipment that will advertise Polk county wherever they may be seen. Mr. Donaldson made a wide difference in prices in favor of the well fed as against the poorer sheep "You must be a good feeder as well as a good breeder" remarked a stock man, "in order to get the top price. You can't produce broad backs on mesquite grass." Mr.
Donaldson will probably be back to Polk county in October.

Mr. Donaldson has charge of the Forbes Pros. stock farm at Beck-ton, Wyo. He was acquainted with Mr. Stump before making the trip to Oregon, and knew of his sheep.
Of the shipment from Polk county Mr. Stump furnished 130 and Asa Staats 40. This shipment of sheep will go to the Caspor Fair this year and will be pitted against Canadian sheep in competition for prizes. It put on the Wyoming market afterwards they will bring from $25 to $40 a head.

Oregon Game Laws.

It is a good time to refresh the memory with the game laws now in force. Following is a synopsis Open season for Chinese pheasants begins October 1.

Male deer, antelope and mountain sheep, open season July 15 to November 1. Female deer, August 15 to November 1. Killing of spotted fawns, elk or beaver prohibited at all times of year No one is allowed to take more than five deer in a season. Night hunting or with dogs, the purchase or sale of hides without tags, or of venison, prohibited.

Open season for silver grey squirrels, October 1 to January 1.
Quail, grouse native pheasants, prairie chickens, open season October 1 to December 1; limit 10 birds per day. Douglas county.
Sept. 1 to Dec. 1.

Ducks, geese, swan, open season from September 15 to January 1; limit of ducks, 100 per week or 50 in one day.

Eggs of game and song birds protected the year around.

Trout, open season April 1 to November 1. To be taken with hook and line only. Sale prohibited at all times.

The laws of the State require non-resident market hunters to have a license, costing $10 per season.

It is unlawful to hunt within inclosures without owner's permission.

Married in Albany

The marriage of J. O. Russell to Miss Veda Torbet took place at the home of the bride's parents in Albany Saturday, August 13, at high noon, the Rev. Thompson of Lebanon officiating. Miss Claire Russell, sister of the groom acted as bridesmaid and Robert Torbet, brother of the bride, as best man.
The wedded couple have the best wishes of a host of friends. The bride is popular in Albany, her home town, especially in music circles. The groom is a son of James Russell near Monmouth.
He is a graduate of the State Normal, class of '98 and the State University, class of '04. He has a position in the public schools at Hailey Idaho, where Mr. and Mrs.
Russell will reside the coming year.

Would Lead But Not Follow

W. A. Messner means to meet the wants of the people. He has enlarged his store room space to almost double its former size and added a complete line of groceries and also increased his line of goods furnishing and dry goods stock.
He has swung his banner to the breeze in front of his store on canyas large as sails of a 4-masted ship. Large signs are being posted along the highways directing attention to his place of business.
In a half page space in the West Side Enterprise, the leading advertising medium of Polk county, he tells the people what he has and invites inspection of his goods and prices.

Miss Pearl Squire came up from Portland last night.

Evangelist A. A. Beery will occupy the pulpit at the Christian church again next Sunday. The following themes will be discussed: At 11 a. m. "The Trusts" and at 8 p. m. "The Brotherhood of Man." Men especially invited to attend both of these services.

Dancing School.

I will open a dancing school at the Independence Opera House about August 20, and will receive pupils of all ages.

Notice of Final Settlement.

Notice is hereby given; that the final account of the administrator of the estate of Bertha Ohms, deceased, has been rendered and filed, in the County Court of the state of Oregon, for Polk County, and that Saturday, the seventeenth day of September, 1904, at one o'clock P.
M. has been duly appointed by said court for the settlement thereof. At which time any person interested in said estate may appear and file his exceptions, in writing, t said account.

Emma A. Ohms,
Administrator of said estat.

Notice of Final Settlement

Notice is hereby given that H. H.
Jasperson, administrator of the estate of Sarah Jasperson, deceased, has filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Polk County, his final account as administrator, and that Saturday, the 24th day of September, 1904,

Road Builder Here

Hon. John S. Wilson, member of congress from Arizona and president of the new Willamette Valley Electric Railway Company is in the valley looking over the prospects for building electric roads in accordance with the plans outlined in the articles of incorporation recently filed in the office of secretary of state at Salem. He was in Eugene this week, and interrogated concerning his purpose said: "We have plenty of capital, and are ready to go right ahead with the work. Our company is not a branch of the Southern Pacific Company nor of the Santa Fe System, either, and we have our own capital. The Willamette Valley is entirely independent."

Mr. Wilson is going over the routes laid out by his company.
He has beef over the route from Eugene to Corvallis returning by way of Albany. After making a trip into the Blue river mines he will go to Suislaw, then to Cottage Grove and Coos Bay. If the line is built to Corvallis there is a good opening for further extension down the west side. Mr. Wilson says he will retire from politics when his term expires in 1905 and will devote his attention to his electric railroads.

A Matter of Health
There is a quality in Royal Baking Powder which makes
