The Independence orchestra has decided to give a Thanksgiving ball at the big auditorium in Independence Thursday evening, Nov. 24 and it will be a "swell" affair. There will be nine pieces in the orchestra making music to fill the hall to its uttermost parts and the musicians are those who can play too.

Upon return from pulling a train of heavy stone to Dallas to be used on the Southern Pacific bridge at that place Friday, the axle to the front drive wheel of the big engine recently acquired by the I. & M. road, broke down. The break was close up to the wheel. It was a complete break not a thread being left unbroken of the massive piece of steel. Fortunately, the engine was off the main track, moving at a slow pace on a switch, and traffic was not seriously interfered with. The engine was taken to Portland on the remaining wheels, for repair Saturday.

A very successful three days teacher's institute for Polk county closed at Dallas Saturday. There were over 100 in attendance and some practical lectures were delivered and interesting discussions on methods indulged in.

Among visitors who took part were Prof. J. H. Ackerman, President E. D. Ressler and Prof. C. A. Rice of the Monmouth State Normal and Prof. W. G. Hartman of Washington. At this meeting a discussion was sprung on the advisability of making the county treasurer custodian of the district school funds relieving the district clerk of that duty, and also the necessity of giving bonds. Superintendent Ackerman and the teachers generally favored the plan.

It takes drilling to get oil.

No boats on the upper river yet.

One of Clatsop's exhibits at the Lewis and Clark Fair will be an immense fir log. The tree now stands plump without a blemish. Ten feet from the ground it measures 13 1/2 feet in diameter and 200 feet above the first limb it is 8 feet in diameter.

The Board of Trustees of the State Insane Asylum last week accepted bids for supplying 4400 cords of wood to the institution next year. The prices ranged from $3.25 to $3.50 per cord for old fir, $2.50 for second growth and $3.75 for oak. For the penitentiary, 400 cords first growth fir were purchased at $3.20 and 100 cords of grub oak at $3.85. Bids for supplying wood to the Blind and Deaf Mute schools and the Capitol building were rejected as being too high.
