For council and mayor, every man named is interested in the town, believes in progress and can be depended upon to handle the town's affairs in a business-like manner. The candidate for recorder has been tried and found efficient, and for marshal, Mr. Walker has the endorsement of all who know him best. Let everybody get out and vote next Monday.

Substance of the telegraphic correspondence between United States Assistant District Attorney Heney and Senator Mitchell.

Hon. J. H. Mitchell U. S. Senate Washington D. C. Without your testimony the Government's case may fail and these guilty rascals go unwhipped of justice, and I therefore urge you to treat this telegram as a subpoena and to return immediately to Portland as a witness for the United States. The case will not be concluded before end of next week. Please wire when you will start and oblige.

FRANCIS J. HENEY
Special Assistant to Attorney-General.

Washington D. C. Nov. 25, 1904—Hon. Francis J. Heney, Special Assistant to the Attorney-General, Care Hon. John Hall, U. S. District Attorney, Portland Oregon: Your telegram of yesterday reached me 3 o'clock today. It is the first intimation I have had from any source that my testimony was desired in any of the prosecutions for land fraud in Oregon. Prior to November 15, with the exception of four or five days I was continuously in the city of Portland, Oregon, for four months preceding. It was known by the United States District Attorney Hall, and many others for more than a week before I left Portland that I intended to leave on the evening of November 15, at which time I did leave direct for Washington and in all this time no suggestion was made to me by any officer of the Government or by any one else that my testimony was desired. I did pass through St. Paul Sunday morning last, arriving there on the Northern Pacific train at 7:30 o'clock and leaving on the Burlington at 8:30 o'clock for Chicago. Surely every opportunity was open to have had me subpoenaed or even notified of the wish upon the part of the Government that I should be present at the trial. Had this been done I should have deferred leaving until the trial was over as I am very willing and anxious to give any testimony in my knowledge that will have any proper tendency to fasten fraud on any of those charged with fraud. But it is simply impossible for me to leave here now. I have important engagements in the departments and with committees and also in getting ready for the meeting of the Senate which convenes on December 5. I will here state and possibly the attorneys for the defense may be willing to concede that I would so testify if on the stand, that the affidavits of Emma L. Watson and S. A. D. Puter which were forwarded by me to Commissioner Hermann in my letter of March 3, 1902, were handed me here in Washington by S. A. D. Puter on or about the date of their transmission to the Commissioner; that Mr. Puter whom I had never seen before to my knowledge, came to me and asked my assistance in getting the 12 cases of homestead entries referred to made special. At that time he brought a letter of introduction to me from a prominent and reliable attorney of Oregon vouching for his reliability. This is my whole information in regard to the matter. I took it for granted of course that the affidavits were true and taking them to be true very strong reasons were presented why early action should be had in the land Department and hence my letter transmitting the affidavits to the Commissioner.

JOHN MITCHELL

Portland, Nov. 26, 1904.—Hon. John H. Mitchell, U. S. Senate Washington, D. C.: Defendants attorneys refuse to admit truth of statements contained in your telegram to me of yesterday. Your testimony is still vitally important to Government. United States Attorney Hall did not consider your testimony important when you were here but he now agrees with me as to its materiality and great importance. What was the name of the attorney who gave Puter the letter of introduction to you? Will you come and when?

FRANCIS J. HENEY
Special Assistant to Attorney-General.

Washington, D. C. Nov. 26, 1904 Hon. Francis J. Heney, Special Assistant Attorney-General Portland, Oregon: Telegram received As I wired you yesterday for reasons stated in telegram it is simply absolutely impossible for me to go to Oregon at this time.

JOHN H. MITCHELL

Portland, Nov. 28, 1904—Hon. John H. Mitchell, U. S. Senate Washington, D. C. You neglected to give me the name of attorney here who gave Puter the letter of introduction to you. Please wire it immediately so that I can use him as a witness for the Government and oblige.

The County Court of Benton held an apple show in Corvallis. The purpose was to get specimens of apples and pears to place on exhibition at the Lewis and Clark Fair. The show was a success and brought together some fine Oregon fruit. There was a prize of 50 cents for each plate awarded first place and all first prize fruits will be preserved for the Big Fair next year. This enterprise on the part of Benton's court is commended to the members of the Blue Ribbon county's court.

A Voice From The Vanquished

Missouri's gone Republican. There ain't much more to say. I'm watin now to see the world turn 'round the other way. Considering what has happened, 'twon't surprise me in the least. To see the sun rise in the West instead of in the East. I half expect to see the sky come down and rain ascend— There really ain't no tellin' where the thing is goin' to end. I can't find proper language for expressin' my dismay; Missouri's gone Republican. There ain't much more to say. It isn't any wonder that my courage kind o' fails; 'Twas hard when West Virginia went a-waverin' in the scales. 'Twas even worse to realize the music of the band Took on a special meanin' when it played "My Maryland." But when you start a-tumblin' why, there ain't no way to tell Just when you finally have reached the bottom of the well. Give 'em Tennessee an' Texas to increase the strange array, Missouri's gone Republican. There ain't much more to say. —Washington Star.

MRS. DEWY'S EXPERIENCE

She was Cured with Electricity After All Other Methods Had Failed. Dr. Darrin Remains At Hotel Gail, Dallas, Until December 23rd.

Unseen forces are more powerful than seen ones. Electricity performs cures silently but surely. To this many thousands that have been cured can testify. Many who know nothing of it oppose it; but truth always meets with fierce opposition which in the end only hastens the victory. We do not profess to understand this unseen power, but joyfully except the great boon of health feeling that Dr. Darrin is ahead of the age, and is showing to the world this new method of cure. As an example, we append Mrs. Dewey's card:

To the public: I was a patient under doctor Darrin's care eight years ago and wish to relate my experience that others may benefit by it. For many long years I had been afflicted with diseases peculiar to my sex accompanied with pain in my chest, heart and stomach. I had lost flesh until my weight was 105 pounds. After a few months electrical and medical treatment by Dr. Darrin, I recovered my health and gained 40 pounds and am now enjoying good health.

Adolph Wunder German Citizen
Relates His Experience.

To the Hotel Gail, Dallas. After reading and hearing of so many cures by Dr. Darrin I concluded to try him for deafness in one ear, although I had little faith in his mode of treatment by electricity. On my way to his office I could not hear the noise of the street car or wagon rolling over the stone pavement. After treatment I am able to hear without difficulty the church service, the ticking of a watch or a pin drop, and all sounds of life. I wish you to publish this as it may give others courage to have the new treatment. I consider the cure little short of a miracle. My address is 205 Morris street, Upper Albina, Ore.

Adolph Wunder.

We regret to announce that Dr. Darrin's stay is limited to December 23, only, and parties wishing to consult this famous physician should do so at once. He has made many wonderful cures in this vicinity, as the testimonials heretofore have shown.

Dr. Darrin can be consulted free at his office from 10 to 5 daily; evenings 7 to 8; Sundays 10 to 3. Charges reasonable. He makes a specialty of all diseases of the ear, nose, eye, and throat, catarrh and deafness, bronchitis, lagrippe, consumption, dyspepsia, heart liver and kidney diseases. All nervous chronic and private diseases of men, and all peculiar female troubles are confidentially and successfully treated. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the doctor's office. All business relations with Dr. Darrin strictly confidential.
