

BALLSTON

Henry Clark met with an accident this week. While after turkeys up in an apple tree he fell 30 feet striking on his head and right shoulder. He remained unconscious from 8 P. M. until 4 o'clock next morning. A doctor was called from Sheridan but found no bones broken. He will be bed fast for several days.

Mrs. M. Myer of Rickreall is visiting Mrs. V. Breves.

The Sunday school will have a Xmas tree. Quite a program is being prepared for the occasion. Tom Bowman of eastern Oregon is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. J. J. Burch and daughter, Grace visited Mrs. Forest Craven over Sunday.

Tona Nance, Wm. Maxfield and ladies attended a basket social at Williamina Saturday night.

Highland.

Mrs. Sam Goff visited relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dickinson were in Dallas Sunday.

E. Evans recently brought down seventeen head of fat hogs from his Pelee ranch.

Mrs. J. O. Davidson and Mrs. Fanny Lacey attended the stock holders meeting of the Pilot Knob Mining Company last Saturday.

E. Davidson has finished putting up 180 rods of fencing along the railroad right-of-way, the railroad company furnishing the material.

Died In Corvallis.

Seymour Chipman, grand master of the grand council of Royal and Select Masons of Oregon, and a Knight Templar and Mystic Shriner, died at his home in Corvallis Thursday afternoon, aged 67 years. He was a native of Vermont, and had resided in Oregon for 17 years.

Dr. E. J. Thompson of this city preached the funeral sermon Sunday. The attendance was large and the ceremony was impressive. A delegation of Masons came by special train from Albany. O. A. Deering, deputy grand master, succeeds to the place of grand master.

Dallas Eastern Star

The Eastern Star, Naomi Chapter No. 22 of Dallas, has held its election with the following result: Mrs. W. Fuller, W. M.; Mrs. A. B. Muir, W. P.; Mrs. Koser, A. M.; Mrs. Mark Hayter, conductress; Mrs. Edna Simonton, assistant conductress; Mrs. Libbie Muir, secretary; Mrs. Fuller, treasurer.

John S. Moore of Independence is in the city. He is a breeder of Buff Langshan and Buff Cochon poultry and could not resist the temptation to come to the Salem show. John is a former wielder of the lather brush and razor in this city, having conducted the tonorial shop now owned by H. G. Meyer. He is a few years older than he was when numbered among the Salem business men, but he is just as swift and expert as ever at honing his razor on the stovepipe.—Salem Statesman.

The Independent telephone company are rushing work on their lines right along. Two rural lines were connected with central this week and orders for phones are coming in faster than they can be filled.—Corvallis Gazette.

Investigating Alien

Investigation of Rev. Arthur Allen was taken up here today by the Baptist ministry. Among the ministers here are Rev. F. C. Stanard of Newberg; Rev. A. J. Hunsaker of McMinnville; also Rev. J. L. Whorrey, Rev. Douglas and Rev. F. H. Adams. Among lay members from a distance are E. W. Howe and Reuben Snyder. Messrs Overholser, Lee Masters and others from Monmouth are here as witnesses.

A matter now on the boards attracting most attention at Monmouth is the appointment of a post master. The office has been made a presidential one and there are two applicants, Frank Lucas, the present incumbent, and Otis Wolverton. Both are getting their petitions and endorsements ready to submit to the powers that be.

In return for the hospitalities extended them by their girl friends, a number of the younger gentlemen of Monmouth entertained with an oyster supper at the Hampton hotel in Monmouth Saturday evening. Cards and other games and an oyster supper, were features of the evening. Those present were: Misses Elta Portwood, Ruel Wolverton, Ethel Newman, Geneva Wilcox, Zera Mulkey, Myrtle McReynolds; Edgar Sacre, Allen Clarke, Bert Markart, Albert Sacre.
