The annual goat show will be held at Dallas Thursday and Friday of next week under the auspices of the Polk County Mohair Association. The Polk County Goat Show is in a class by itself. It is unique. It has no rivals in this country. Polk leads in the production of fine goats and it is the only county in the state that gives goat shows and the only county that gives any kind of livestock show in mid-winter. The raising of goats has grown to be an important Oregon industry. Oregon has secured the world's record high price for an Angora goat. Mr. Craig of Marion county sold one of his goats at Kansas City two years ago for $900 which is the highest price ever paid for a goat. The Riddell boys of Polk county received first prize for a kid doe and a number of second prizes against the competition of the world at St. Louis the past year. The Angora goat is the prettiest domestic animal that has been placed on earth and the Angora aristocracy of the world will be represented at Dallas next week. Not only goats, but finished mohair products from goat fleeces will be on exhibition. The attention of the Oregon legislature is called to the Polk County Goat Show and the Polk county delegation in the legislature is hereby requested to extend to the members of both houses an invitation to attend the Dallas show. Many members no doubt will be pleased with the opportunity. The legislature usually adjourns from Thursday till Monday anyway and as it's only fifteen miles from Salem to Dallas, it will give every member a chance to attend.

The legislature is now in working order. A good business man was chosen to preside over the house in the person of A. L. Mills, president of the First National Bank of Portland. For president of the senate, Dr. W. Kuykendall of Lane was chosen. This paper has said that the doctor was not the best selection possible. It still entertains that opinion but bows obeisance to Dr. Kuykendall as the candidate who received a majority of the votes of his fellow senators. This is a country of majority rule. In all matters in which he stands for the best interests of the state at large, President Kuykendall is entitled to commendation. This paper trusts he will rise above the accusation that he sought the power of presidency of the senate to use it for political purposes or for the benefit of Lane and Multnomah counties to the disregard of the interests of other counties of the state. May Dr. Kuykendall prove himself equal to the responsibilities he has assumed.

Let us understand exactly what has occurred at Salem. The Portland machine put up Mr. Mills as its candidate for Speaker and elected him. The Portland machine combined with the state machine to elect Mr. Kuykendall as President of the Senate. Violent opposition to this latter project arose, and it all but failed. Great effort has been made to have it appear that while the Portland "ring" was behind Kuykendall, the Mills candidacy stood on its own bottom. Not true. Mr. Mills was brought out by the machine, his campaign was conducted by the machine, and his success is distinctly a machine triumph. Mr. Kuykendall appears to have projected his own candidacy, but the machine fell in. These things are set down, not in malice or in the spirit of complaint, but solely in the interest of truth.—Oregonian.

Two new road districts were created by the county court at its last week's session. The Luckiamute district was made into two and a new district was made by cutting a piece of territory off of Jackson and a piece off of Douglas precincts. Boundaries of road districts do not have to coincide with the boundaries of voting precincts.

Will the Salem Statesman permit Polk county to extend to the Oregon legislature an invitation to attend the Annual Goat Show of the county?

It's rude of boys to be noisy at a show. On the other hand grey-bearded jokes shouldn't be sprung on an innocent audience.

The Corvallis Times says a spray of ripe raspberries displayed at the real estate office of Ambler & Watters, attracted attention yesterday. On the bush were blooms, green berries and berries fully matured and ripened. The showing for the ninth day of January, and from a bush grown on the outside, is an eloquent chapter on Oregon. The berries were grown on the farm of Ben Taylor, three miles southwest of Philomath.

News is received from the officials of the St. Louis Fair that Polk county Oregon won both gold and silver medals on the finest exhibit of mohair.

The Original

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for FOLEY'S Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. Sold by A. S. Locke.

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted in thousands of homes as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by A. S. Locke, druggist. Trial bottle free.

Cooper Hollow.

Leonard Rodgers has gone to his home near Bellefountain in Benton county, to visit relatives and friends.

Katie and Keith Barnes, the two little daughters of Forest Barnes, are spending a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Towns.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bennett have returned home after spending a few weeks with relatives near Creswell.

George Sheldon has moved to the Ireland place.

Mrs. Bosley is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Eggleson.

Mr. Heck of Independence, and Mr. Pitzer and two little daughters also Retta, Elda, Bessie and Milly Clarke spent Sunday with Mr. Wunder and wife.

It is said that the Krebs brothers, the largest hop growers in Oregon have offered a proposition to the growers of the state who are still holding their hops, to open a fruit account, local dealers believe that the Krebs' offers will fail, as all other projects to pool the hops remaining in the Oregon market unsold. Pooling is made difficult by the wide difference in opinion in grading hops grown on many different yards and which are processed by different men with anything like uniformity.

A keener market is much desired by Oregon dealers in hops, but is said to be no immediate prospects for it. There is little trading among themselves by local dealers, it is said, but the East is out of the market as yet. A movement last week, expected to dispose of at least 300 bales to Eastern brewers, resulted in the sale of only 30 bales.

It is not considered likely that the Krebs' project to pool for 37 cents will meet with favor, as growers and dealers who have had confidence to hold so far demand the right dispose of their goods whenever they see any chance to sell at much above the present prices.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of Kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by A. S. Locke.
