Senator Mitchell has addressed the United States senate on his indictment; next will come his day in court. The Senator is charged by a jury of twelve men of being amenable to the law for conspiracy in the land fraud business. It is not within the legitimate province of any newspaper to anticipate either the guilt or innocence of the Senator. That is a matter for the courts to decide. Senator Mitchell has represented Oregon in the Upper House of congress for more than twenty years. He is a lawyer and able to take care of himself. He denies all the charges and denounces his accusers as liars and perjurers. To charge a United States senator with a criminal act is a serious thing. The presumption is that the jury knew of damaging evidence, or it would not have dared to further the indictment. Less is being given out of the evidence that goes before the jury at Portland than when the investigation started in and the public cannot safely conjecture what will be brought out at the trial nor who the witnesses against the Senator will be. Senator Mitchell's case following closely on the heels of the cases of Senator Burton of Kansas and Senator Deitrich of Nebraska, will be watched with interest from all over the United States.

Governor Chamberlain has very properly taken a stand against permitting an "emergency" clause to be tacked on to every bill passed by the legislature. With the emergency clause attached a bill becomes a law upon the Governor's signature, or if he fails to sign it, becomes a law anyway within ten days after it reaches the executive office. Without the emergency clause it does not become a law until ninety days after its signature by the Governor.

It has not been the practice heretofore to tack on the emergency clause except to bills having for their object the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety. Now that the referendum has been adopted giving the people the right to vote upon the rejection of any law passed by the legislature, the opportunity afforded by the new constitutional amendment is sought to be avoided by declaring every bill passed an emergency and having it become a law immediately. The legislature had better back-pedal. It's trying to avoid the constitution. It's trying to go counter to the wishes of an overwhelming majority of the voters as expressed last June. The legislature is in the wrong and it gave a democratic Governor the opportunity to tell them so.

Isaac Manning, it is said will become editor of the Salem Statesman. Anyone paying money for the Statesman with Ike as its editor, may as well kiss their dollars good-bye. Ike collected some good hard coin from Independence people for a New Years Statesman, but "nary" a copy will be give in return.

The Eugene papers have found it necessary to reduce their size to correspond with their patronage. It keeps the West Side Enterprise figuring to accommodate its patrons without enlarging.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature to establish a whipping post for wife beaters. What about the fellow who follows up, slanders and tries to ruin the character of a woman to whom he is not married?

Senator Fulton must begin to feel lonely back in Washington.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often had a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sold by A. S. Locke.

The Original

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for FOLEY'S Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. Sold by A. S. Locke.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by A. S. Locke.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in Pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Sold by A. S. Locke.

Sickening Shivering Fits

of Ague and Malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At A. S. Locke's drug store; price 50c, guaranteed."
