For artistic workmanship, quality of stock and reasonableness of price for job work, this office invites comparison with any print shop in the land. This is a good time to lay in your supply of letter heads envelopes and other stationery.

Regular service at the Methodist church Sunday. Morning subject, "Doubting Thomas." Evening subject, "Corrupt Politicians make bad office holders." These subjects will be presented in a plain practical manner and will be of unusual interest. There will be special music at both of the services. All are invited.

A gold mine was discovered in a duck's craw by Dr. Butler. Layton Smith presented the Dr. with a duck upon his return from a hunt on the preserves below Portland. In preparing the fowl for the table, a quantity of fine gold was discovered in its craw. The gold dust was taken to O. A. Kramer the jeweler who melted it up and made it into a pin which Mrs. Butler wears.

Mrs. J. H. Burton has erected a monument over the grave of Curtis Baker. Young Baker was killed while blasting stumps on the place of J. H. Burton last spring. Mr. Burton defrayed all the funeral expense and this winter Mrs. Burton had a gravestone erected to his memory. Young Baker had been blasting stumps for a number of people around town and he commanded the respect of those for whom he had worked. W. W. Percival one for whom he had worked considerable was permitted to contribute toward a monument at his own request.

The Gresham Gazette announces the death of Mrs. Anna E. Miller at that place January 7.

Mrs. Miller died leaving besides her husband a son, Ralph, aged 22 years, and a daughter Jean, aged 17. She was a member of the Gresham Rebekah lodge and of the Gresham grange and was noted for her many deeds of charity and the faithful performance of duty in those two great orders. She was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Powell, going forth the wife of John E. Miller, August 6th, 1880. At her death she was 41 years, 7 months and 15 days of age, having lived the period of her married life in her native state. For fifteen years the family resided in Dallas and Monmouth, Polk county, returning to Gresham about ten years ago to make her native town her future home.

Claire Irvine was in Portland this week.

Marian Mix was in Corvallis the first of the week.

Haven Smith of Dallas was assistant agent at the S. P. station during the absence of Mr. Wilcox.

The granite has been delivered for the extension of the granite walk at the S. P. depot.

Thos. Fennell has purchased more hop land across the river and is busily engaged in blasting and otherwise clearing the land.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wilcox returned home yesterday. Mrs. Wilcox has been with relatives at The Dalles the past two weeks.

W. T. Hoffman of the Pilot Knob mining Company is in Portland where he is taking a course in mineral assaying. Mr. Hoffman will complete the course in perhaps six weeks.

Men are now at work in earnest putting up the new Douty & Simpson mill. The boiler for the new engine was transferred from the station to the mill site Sunday. It required eight horses to move it. Fred Oberer's four trained horses and Arthur Fisher's span with two others were used. Wednesday the boiler from the little Douty & Simpson mill was moved to the site of the new mill. Six horses were required. The boiler and engine of the old mill will be used to run the planer and other machinery of the new mill while the new engine will run the saw.

Wedded in Portland

A very pretty and pleasant home going wedding occurred at the residence of the bride's parents in Portland on Monday evening Jan. 16th, Rev. Dr. Thompson of this city officiating. It was the marriage of Mr. P. M. Kirkland and Miss Rose Helen Dougherty. Mr. Kirkland is a prominent business man of Independence and Miss Dougherty is a lovely lady recently from the east, who made many friends during her short stay in our city several months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland are already settled in their pleasant home on C street and are welcomed by the people of Independence with hearty congratulations.

Funeral Services

The remains of W. G. Cressy were laid to rest in the Odd Fellows cemetery three miles south of Independence Tuesday afternoon. Funeral services were held in the auditorium which was filled with friends of deceased, who had gathered to pay the last tribute of respect. Song service was held and a touching sermon delivered by Rev. E. J. Thompson, an acquaintance for many years of deceased. The pall bearers were, H. Hirschberg, D. W. Sears, J. Dornisfe, Jack Wilson, Hugh Shelly and Clarence Fream.

In looking through Mr. Cressy's scrap book, since his death, many flattering testimonials are found. Among them is one from Governor Walter R. Camman of New Hampshire of date January 22, 1869. Governor Camman said: "Having known Warren G. Cressy from his youth, I take pride in commending him to the public as a man of ability, integrity and upright life. He has been a faithful employe on the Concord and Claremont railroad for ten or twelve years, and his correctness and efficiency make him a most valuable man. I bespeak for him the unlimited confidence of all."

Card of Thanks

We desire to publicly acknowledge through the columns of the West Side Enterprise our heartfelt thanks to the many friends, who have so kindly given their help and sympathy in our great bereavement. To one and all from the depths of our hearts we thank you. Mrs. Warren G. Cressy. Miss Mabel Cressy.

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted in thousands of homes as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by A. S. Locke, druggist. Trial bottle free.

Greatly In Demand

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them. At A. S. Locke's drug store, 25c., guaranteed.

Contracted Chronic Diarrhoea While in the Philippines.

"While with the U. S. Army in the Philippines, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. I suffered severely from this terrible disease for over three years and tried the prescriptions of numerous physicians, but found nothing that did me any good until I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, two small bottles of which entirely cured me and I have since had no return of the disease."—Herman Steis, 212 N. Union Ave., Pueblo, Colorado. For sale by P. M. Kirkland the druggist.
