

School Meeting at Buena

Long Speeches Were Made, Excellent Program Rendered and Much Interest Taken

The teachers' institute for this session convened here Saturday at 11 A. M. In the absence of the vice president, J. M. Prather, Supt. Starr presided. Mr. Starr stated clearly the purpose of local institutes, then followed a short address "Co-operation of Parents and Teachers," by Prof. Newbill, after which the meeting adjourned until 1:30. After noon program was as follows: Music by all; Co-operation of Board and Teachers," by J. R. Loy; "Things parents should do to interest pupils in school work," V. B. Goin; recitation, "Patience," Mae Smith; vocal solo, Robert Mears; address on "Some factors in education," by Prof. Newbill; remarks by Rev. Gates and Rev. Mears; vocal solo, Mrs. Mears; recitation, Lena Baldwin; recitation, Oscar Arrel; recitation, Robert Mears; address, Supt. Starr; closed by singing, "Home Sweet Home," by the audience. The ladies furnished the lunch which was heartily enjoyed by all. These meetings are very interesting and instructive.

Miss Knighton continues to improve. Several new subscribers to the Enterprise are reported this week. It's a good paper and should be in every Folk county home.

Rev. Gates was over from Dallas Sunday and occupied the Evangelical pulpit. He's a hummer for a boy.

Guy McReynolds reported a horse trade recently. People here differ as to Guy's judgment of horse-flesh it is however agreed that Guy got "skinned" and has besides a wise look which he did not possess before, two balky horses. The horse laugh is often heard around headquarters these days.

At this hour, to-wit--Monday noon, there has been no new scandal reported in Buena. We expect to hear of some few deaths to account for this lack of news.

There is considerable agitation rife here relative to discontinuing the Post office. It is argued that it is of small convenience to the patrons and could be as well handled by the rural carrier. The Postmaster and others think differently.

Prof. Starr and Newbill were here Saturday. They are good material for schools. Prof. Newbill taught some practical ideas in branding cattle. He told how a brand if inflicted on a young "cow-brute" would grow until it covered almost the whole animal. We hereby petition the county court to call a convention to investigate this question. Honest ranchers differ with "Prof." and want to know who is right. Let your "farm, orchard and cow" editor answer; he might know.

Mrs. Harnish of Albany is the guest of Mrs. V. B. Goin this week.

William Steele and family were Salem visitors Monday.

R. Peterson sold fifty head of sheep to Mr. Dudley of Wells Station last week for $3.15 a head.

C. P. Wells is moving to his hop yard 3 miles north of town.

On Polk County Farm

Reports from Sheridan say that oil indications on the surface of water and on ground surrounding some springs have been discovered on the farm of Jodie Guttry, and a contract has been made with Dallas men to drill in an effort to ascertain the extent of the formation. Oil will yet be found among the foundation stones of Yamhill county. Keep your eye on us.—McMinnville paper.

The farm alluded to does not belong to Jodie Guttry but is owned by Engineer Jack Wilson of the I. & M. Railroad Company, and is located in Polk county. Mr. Wilson says no contract has been made with Dallas men nor any other parties.

Failed

All efforts have failed to find a better remedy for coughs and lung trouble than Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. J. N. Patterson Nashua, Iowa writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world. Sold by A. S. Locke.

Poisons in Food.

Perhaps you don't realize that many pain poisons originate in your food, but some day you may feel a twinge of dyspepsia that will convince you. Dr. King's New Life Pills are guaranteed to cure all sickness due to poisons of undigested food or money back. 25c at A. S. Locke's drug store. Try them.

La Grippe and Pneumonia.

Pneumonia often follows La Grippe but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures la grippe and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Mr. G. Vacher of 157 Ogwood St., Chicago writes: "My wife had a severe case of la grippe three years ago. She left her with a terrible cough. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50c bottle cured her cough entirely." Refuse substitutes. Sold by A. S. Locke.

Agonizing Burns

are instantly relieved and perfectly healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. C. Rivensbank, Jr., of Norfolk Va., writes: "I burnt my knee dreadfully that it bled and it hurt all over. Bucklen's Arnica Salve stopped the pain and healed it without a scar." Also heals all wounds and sores. 25c at A. S. Locke druggist.

R. M. Fowle is having flues put in his house this week. Frank Kings and his mother will occupy the house as soon as the hops are ready to work.

Last Monday night will be one long to be remembered by Mrs. W. L. Bristow. While twilight was gathering, about twenty of the neighbors walked in and took possession of the premises, taking Mrs. Bristow by complete surprise, as it was one of those old mile stones we meet once a year in the form of a birthday. A few hours were very pleasantly spent in music, games and nutcracking. All wished their hostess many happy returns of the day when they said "good night." The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lindeman, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis, John and Ira Williams, Clyde McKinney, Mr. Long, Misses Blanch McKinney, Ethel McLeod and Leota Lewis, Master Arthur and Kenneth Williams, and Laird Lindeman.

It may be a mistake to marry young, but it is a mistake that is seldom repeated.

Lord "Bobs" and the Common People.

England is not yet done whimpering over the way the Boer burgher licked Tommy Atkins the first year of the South African war. Lord Roberts now joins Kipling and other humiliated jingoes in the scheme to turn England into a training camp for teaching the common people to "shoot straight and carry out simple orders."

It might be cheaper and certainly would be more encouraging to the kind of spirit that makes fighting men to knock down the barriers and let the people have a chance to shoot at real game in the vast forests now reserved to the English nobility. Lord "Bobs" must surely remember that his Canadians and Australians could shoot as straight as the Boers. There is never any trouble in getting men to fight when there is something worth fighting for, but just why Great Britain's "Hodges" and "Pats" and "Sandys" should be expected to risk their lives for the glory of the union jack is a puzzle to outsiders.

Lord Roberts also wants an immense reserve of trained officers. It might be well to try the plan of abolishing commission by purchase and give the common people a chance to wear shoulder straps. Soldiers who can win battles by shooting straight and obeying orders must have some men among them capable of taking the lead. Besides, England's noncommissioned officers are said to have no superiors of like rank in the world, so there can be no lack of material for promotion.

Afraid of Strong Medicines

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rheumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. Rev. Amos Parker, of Magnolia, North Carolina, suffered for eight years with a lame hip, due to severe rheumatic pains. He has been permanently cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, for sale by P. M. Kirkland the druggist.

The center of the shoe manufacturing industry moves westward with the center of population. Twenty-five years ago the first shoe manufactory was started in St. Louis, and now more shoes are manufactured in that city than in any other city in the world. An output of $9,000,000 in 1904 is reported by one St. Louis concern.

The decision by a Philadelphia judge that the theft of a kiss is larceny recalls the old ditty, "They hang you for an apple up in New Jersey." One peculiar phase of the Philadelphia larceny, if the ruling stands, will be that the culprit cannot square the offense by returning the goods.
