Toll Gate Is Torn Down

Forest Grove, Or., July 31.—The Wilson River toll gate, located seven miles this side of Tillamook, was torn down Saturday by James Reesher and five other persons. It is thought that the gate has been destroyed through the advice of some attorney in order to try and get a speedy decision in the case, which has been in the Supreme Court ever since last fall. Mr. Reesher claims Mr. John McNamar, who has been running a stage over this road two or three times a week, and has been keeping the road in repair, has no right to collect toll over this route until the Supreme Court renders its decision, and McNamar claims he has the right to collect toll until the Supreme Court decides the case.

It is thought arrests will be made by McNamar, of the parties preventing him collecting this toll, which amounts some days to from $40 to $50.

Heat Kills Prospectors

Los Angeles, Cal., July 31.—According to reports which have reached this city, terrible heat is prevailing in the Inyo County gold fields and adjacent deserts, and prospectors are dying daily from the effects. W. H. Adams, a mining engineer, who left Los Angeles July 6, for the Panamint Range, and who has just returned to the city, states that eight prospectors were brought in dead from the heat while he was in the region. During his stay at Panamint, six bodies were brought there, all victims of sunstroke.

The heat, he says, is terrible and unabated day or night. At Ballarat, he relates, the thermometer registered 135 at noon and at midnight following had dropped to but 116 degrees, which was the average for three days. In the desert section, lying south of Redlands, he says the mercury went up to 160 and could record no higher.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by D. G. Dove, Druggist.
