If you only knew it, this is ideal fall weather.

The man who goes hunting for trouble should not feel disappointed when he finds it.

How will Astoria hold a successful regatta with its citizens all red hot at each other over a third rate custom house appointment.

The Oregonian makes this unkind prediction: "Look out for rain September 10. State Fair and hop-picking will then be in full swing."

Portland's latest directory, now on the press, claims 178,705 population for that city. Now listen to Tacoma's howl and hear Seattle's screech.

The city council will do a good turn when an ordinance is passed abolishing the board signs that swing out menacingly over the sidewalks.

Within the next thirty days there will be a quarter of a million dollars distributed for hop picking in the Independence district. See that you get your share.

A car shortage bill and an anti-pass bill are two measures that are likely to be introduced at the next session of the legislature by the Polk county delegation.

Nearly all the hop yards in the Independence district are owned by white men. They are men who have had experience in hop culture and treat their pickers with all due consideration.

Under the heading of "Car Shortage and Bankruptcy," the Oregonian warns the railroad people of the danger of the initiative being invoked by the people. Representative Elect Jones of Independence has already served notice that he will be on hand again at the next session of the legislature with his car shortage bill. Though he and Judge Harris were turned down at the short session of 1903 Jones is not in the least discouraged and with the sentiment, much stronger now than it was in 1903 to back him, it is quite likely a car shortage bill will be put through at the next session. And while not radical, it may be depended upon that Jones will get up a bill that will meet the demands of the time.

Valparaiso.

Earthquake experiences are not new ones in the city of Valparaiso, which next to Santiago, is the largest city in the South American republic whose domain extends along the shore of the Pacific for many hundreds of miles. In 1822 the city was nearly destroyed by an earthquake and its progress since has been repeatedly checked by the same cause. Valparaiso, in the latest census figures obtainable, was accorded a population of nearly 200,000. It is located on a narrow strip of land at the head of the bay of Valparaiso and is only 50 miles north of Santiago, the capital of Chile. It is one of the old cities of the new world and has a growing shipping which thrives the bay. The latter is sheltered from all quarters except the north, which renders the harbor less safe in winter than at other seasons of the year. The city contains theatres, colleges, hospitals and a number of scientific and literary institutions. The streets, though narrow, are well paved, and the houses, generally two stories high, are gayly painted and provided with balconies. The exports from the place, valued at about $9,000,000 per annum, are chiefly copper, copper ore, gold and silver, wheat, flour, tallow, hides and wool, and the trade of the port is with the European countries and the United States. Valparaiso was bombarded by the Spanish fleet in 1866. Few lives were lost but a large part of the city was laid in ruins, the damage being estimated at more than $10,000,000. It will be remembered that it was in the port of Valparaiso in 1891, following a revolution against President Balmaceda, that an attack was made by Chileans on a number of sailors of the U. S. man-of-war "Baltimore," which disturbed the relations between this government and Chile, and war was only averted by Chile making an ample apology to the United States.

Life is A Puzzle

Life is a puzzle,
All sazes avow,
But never so vexing
A problem as now,
Since the muck rake's been busy
And stirred such a stew,
Nobody can hardly
Know just what to do,
To eat you must decide on—
You will or you won't;
You'll die if you do,
And you'll starve if you don't.

If you're sick disease threatens:
In drugs dangers lie;
If you take then you're poisoned;
If you don't you will die.
The air's full of microbes;
To breathe it is death,
And yet, to be living,
You must draw your breath.
All money is tainted,
As bad as it's painted,
But to live you must have it,
Whether painted or tainted.

In water is typhoid,
In wine ruin's brink;
So when you are thirsty
There's nothing to drink.
Our grandpas and grandmas,
Who were not so wise,
Just ate, drank, and physicked
And lived good, long lives.
But we, with our knowledge,
Fear from darkness so dawn,
Doomed if we stand still,
Wrecked if we move on.

No step can we take, but
We fear we will rue;
Alarmed if we don't,
Scared green if we do.
Yes, life is a puzzle,
And bitter our cup;
We can't guess it right,
And we won't give it up!

—Baltimore American.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by D. G. Dove, Druggist.

Unnecessary Expense

Acute attacks of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery come on without warning and prompt relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's service in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before a doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no family should be without it. For sale by P. M. Kirkland, the Druggist.
