Pick hops and look cheerful.

Tell your troubles to the policeman, if you know who he is.

Two reviva sand two pugilists have been secured for the Krebs hop yard.

The Independence base ball team is invincible. Hasn't lost a gam this year.

At St. Johns, the preachers tell how they hate each other but love each others wives.

To be in Independence these days one would think he was less than "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway."

It's a cold day in August when St. Johns fails to get in the lime light of the public prints of Portland.

Eggs that are older than the "oldest inhabitant" are being rejuvenated in Chicago and placed on the market as fresh hen fruit.

This paper enters a vigorous protest against the "small change" man on the Portland Journal spelling Enterprise with a lower case "e".

Mayor Lane of Portland has just started a real "house cleaning" and city officials are trembling in their boots, waiting the advent of the Mayor's big ax.

If it is true that the beet industry of Nebraska depends on girls wearing pants, then let the dear things wear pants. Pants beat skirts in Oregon too hop training time.

The family cow attached to the wagon carrying the household and kitchen furniture, children with Jews harps dog and pet cat, bicycle and corn-popper, passed through this week. Hoppicking season is here proper.

A Boston paper which takes results for granted, has this to say: Oregon's new senator, Jonathan Bourne of Portland, represents a new order of things both in his state and in the nation. He is the first senator ever elected by a popular vote. Senator Bourne will be a business senator. He is a millionaire. He will be one more Harvard senator and one more Bay stater, for he was born in Boston a little more than fifty years ago. Thirty years ago he went to Oregon and has lived there ever since.

First stakes for the Seaside-Newport extension of the Hammond lines were driven the 28th. A party of surveyors, 14 strong, departed from Seaside the 28th, and will work on the coast. Another gang will take the field soon, to follow the Necanicum river and down the north fork of the Nehalem river to determine which offers the best route, while still a third party will be sent later to work in conjunction.—Telegram.

Mrs. E. Mumaw and daughter, Miss Goldie, left Tuesday on an extended trip to the east. Mrs. Mumaw goes to be with her mother in her declining years, being 49 years old. Mr. Mumaw and son, Paul, will remain on the farm near Monmouth.

If you have hop land to sell or hop yards to sell or rent, list with Lyon & Dickinson, now.

Dr. W. R. Allin left Wednesday on his annual bear hunting trip. He will be absent about three weeks and will put in his time on the McKenzie, stopping awhile at Bicknap springs where Pugilist Jeffries is now spending a few days for the benefit of his health.

If you are in need of dentistry see Dr. Nehrbas over Independence National Bank.

Dr. E. J. Thompson has returned from a short stay at Newport and Albany. Anyone feeling symptoms of that incurable ailment that results in matrimonial entanglements, can find the Doctor in Independence during hoppicking season.

You need abundance of So-boss-So this weather. The place to get it is at Huston & Simon's.

Miss Maude Laughead spent Wednesday afternoon in Independence on her way to Dallas. Miss Laughead is a teacher in the Baker City public schools and visited Miss Carpenter a teacher in the Dallas school. Miss Laughead will be missed as one of the clerks at the State Fair this year. For the past four years Miss Laughead has been one of the State Fair clerks and through her efficiency and pleasing manners ingratiated herself into good will of patrons of the Fair.

There are no better wagons made than the Milburn and Studebaker. You can get them at Huston & Simon's.

Mrs. Ida Collins was thrown from her buggy at the S. P. station Wednesday and sustained severe but not dangerous injury. She had driven up to the depot and was sitting in her buggy on the north side of the depot waiting for a package when a freight train backed up in front of her horse. The animal frightened and turning suddenly and square around threw Mrs. Collins out. She struck on her head receiving a gash to the bone on the forehead and also a bruise on the face and arm. Drs. Butler and Zieher were called to dress the wounds.

If hop pickers will watch the columns of the West Side Enterprise they will find there are merchants prepared to serve their every want.

Shall Girls Wear Pants?

Ames, Neb., Aug. 28.—The future of the beet sugar industry in northern Nebraska depends upon a question of personal ethics. "Shall girl beet-weeders at work in the fields wear overalls or skirts?" is the issue.

The girls themselves and the beet-raisers declare for overalls, which are now generally worn by women in the field work, but Rev. Charles Savage, an Omaha evangelist who a short time ago became famous by causing a minister and his wife to become "brother and sister" when he preached against divorce, has now condemned the practice as "immoral" and leading to the destruction of modesty.

The girls and women declare they cannot make a lying working in skirts, as they are paid by the row.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold

A. J. Nussbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by D. G. Dove, Druggist.

Unnecessary Expense

Acute attacks of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery come on without warning and prompt relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's service in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before a doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no family should be without it. For sale by P. M. Kirkland, the Druggist.
