

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Dr. Allin, Dentist, Cooper Bldg. Kodak supplies at McCaleb's photo studio.

The rain drove many pickers into town this week.

Mr. Ralston of Dakota was here looking over the country this week.

Mrs. J. E. Kirkland went to Salem Wednesday to take in the fair.

Mrs. Clarence Clodfelter of Jefferson is here visiting with relatives.

Miss Louise Waller left this week for Nehalem where she goes to teach this fall.

Pearl Cooper arrived in town this week. He has been in Prairie City, Grant county.

A carload of Rogue River melons at Butler Produce Co. to be sold to merchants and peddlers.

If you have hop land to sell or hop yards to sell or rent, list with Lyon & Dickinson, now.

If you are in need of dentistry see Dr. Nehrbas over Independence National Bank.

Mr. Henshaw, traveling freight agent of the Southern Pacific, was here the first of the week.

Mrs. Morgan and daughter, Miss Ada, of Portland are visiting with Mrs. Lettie Huntley north of town.

The up-to-date styles in fall millinery can be seen at Miss Squire's store, Cooper block, Friday and Saturday.

Miss Eunice Canfield returned to Dallas this week, to the regret of many friends made during her short stay here.

Jas. Kyle, one of Jonathan Bourne's confidential men, has been here this week selling a car load of water melons.

Miss Inez Warner, who formerly lived here, but now of St. Johns, will teach a school near Corvallis the coming term.

Frank Masterson went to McMinnville yesterday to arrange to attend school in that place when the session opens next month.

Dancing at the Rose hop yard Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings of each week during hop picking. Good floor and excellent music.

If hop pickers will watch the columns of the West Side Enterprise they will find there are merchants prepared to serve their every want.

If you have a small hop yard or other acreage to exchange for residence property in Corvallis, the site of the State Agricultural College, and bringing in an income, see Lyon & Dickinson.

Mrs. Will Ormsby, who has been spending the week with her parents, will return to her home in Portland tomorrow. She will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Barbara Belt, who will remain in Portland for the winter to attend school.

C. E. Lorence who lives near Monmouth has purchased and now has in operation a clover huller, the first machine of the kind ever operated in this section of the country.

Mrs. M. W. Wallace has now on display a complete line of street, trimmed and pattern hats, and invites your inspection. Prices the cheapest of anyone's, quality considered.

Verd Hill was not put out much by the rain, as his pickers were at work Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Hill says his early estimate of his crop was too low, and finds now that he will make 2000 boxes instead of 1500.

Sheep and goats are being killed by bears in the Alsea and Summit neighborhoods and the farmers are unable to put an end to the destruction of their flocks. Better send for Prof. Newbill, principal of the Woodlawn school, Portland, and Prof. Mahoney of the Oregon State Normal at Monmouth.

W. W. Percival was over Wednesday from Salem. Mr. Percival has two running horses over at the Lone Oak track, having shipped Chita and Hop-Yard Queen from Roseburg. Chita won second money in each race she ran at Roseburg. Harvey Copeland and Roscoe Staats are riders for the two runners.

R. P. Dickinson has Riley Cooper's colt, Hops, at the Lone Oak track this week. Hops was driven over Sunday afternoon and went in the two-year old race Monday winning third place. Hops is conceded by horsemen at the Fair Grounds to be one of the most likely colts at the Fair this year.

Thomas C. Nye, an old-time resident of Oregon, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. C. Miller, in Dallas, Wednesday, aged 79 years. He was born in North Carolina and came to Oregon 41 years ago. He settled in Umatilla county and resided there continuously until about a year before his death. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity. The remains were shipped to Vancouver, Wash., for burial.

About 90 per cent of pickers in the Lake Hill Hop Ranch, owned by J. F. Groves, are Indians, and among them are some extremely aged men and women. Mr. Groves says he has two pickers who are past the century mark, one being 105 years old and the other 112. The latter is a Grand Rende and was born in the Oregon country and has spent his entire life on this coast, with the exception of the time he was with the United States army during the Mexican war.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Acts on Nature's Plan

The most successful are those that aid nature. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. Take it when you have a cold and it will allay the cough, relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and aid nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. Price, 25 cents. Large size, 50 cents. For sale by P. M. Kirkland, the druggist.

SUMMONS

In the Justice Court for the Justice of the Peace and Constable District No. 5, Polk County, State of Oregon.

Ross H. Nelson, Plaintiff, vs. A. O. Griswold, Defendant.

To A. O. Griswold, Defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the Complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled action on file in the office of the Justice of the Peace in the above-entitled Court, on or before the 25th day of September, 1906, the day named or prescribed in the Order for Publication of this Summons, made by the Justice of the Peace in the Justice Court for the Justice of the Peace and Constable District No. 5, Polk County, State of Oregon, being the County and Precinct where the above-entitled action is pending, and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief demanded in said complaint, namely, for a judgment against you for the sum of $30.00, and costs and disbursements therein.

This Summons is published in the West Side Enterprise for six consecutive and successive weeks, beginning with the issue of August 14th, 1906, and ending with the issue of September 25th, 1906, under and in pursuance of the directions contained in an order made by B. Wilson, Justice of the Peace in the Justice Court for the Justice of the Peace and Constable District No. 5, Polk County, State of Oregon.

Dated this 10th day of August, 1906.
Date of first publication, August 14th, 1906.

DOVE'S DRUG STORE

Value Received in Prescriptions

A prescription may be poor in two ways. It may be put up all right, but the drugs and chemicals used may be stale, or "off standard." Or the ingredients may be exactly right, and yet the full effects be nullified because it is poorly compounded, or put up carelessly. In such case, no matter how low the charge, you don't get value received, which is the essential part of the transaction. When sickness comes, consider well the reputation of the druggist to whom you take your prescription. One thing we perhaps need not add, if you bring it to us you are sure to get value received every time.

AT LOCKE'S OLD STAND INDEPENDENCE

M. C. WILLIAMS, MGR.

Dr. Finn's Testimony Interesting

Dr. Thomas Finn, of Boonsboro, Mo., who has practiced medicine for 32 years says he has used every prescription known to the profession for treatment of kidney and bladder diseases, and says he has never found anything so effective in both chronic and acute kidney and bladder trouble as Foley's Kidney Cure. It stops irregularities and builds up the whole system. Sold by D. G. Dove, druggist.

General Robert E. Lee

was the greatest General the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Pointer, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for Rheumatic pains. I am never without it." Sold by D. G. Dove, druggist.

Daciness Cannot be Cured

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, Lucas County.
