Independence is to be congratulated on having one of the best orchestras in the state outside of Portland. It is doubtful if there is another town of its equal in population that can boast of any kind of musical organization worth mentioning, not only in the state, but on the coast.

Judging from the remarks one reads in the Barometer, there was a hot time in the old town after the Dallas-O. A. C. basket ball game last week. When the I. A. C. boys were defeated by Columbia they didn't throw any mud, but went out to a reception together and had a good time.

T. J. Fryer, one of the largest local livestock shippers of this section of the county, has just returned from a visit with his daughter at Castle Rock, Washington. He shipped a car of mutton sheep to Portland last week and accompanied them to their destination and from there went on to Castle Rock. Mr. Fryer reports mutton as being very scarce and California buyers scouring the upper valley for all that are for sale.

C. Purvine returned yesterday from a trip in Marion county and reports fine success. He contracted for the building of several structures north of Salem and has had calls from several other parts of the county. He believes in printers ink and says that since placing his ad in the Enterprise he has had more calls for work than he could attend to.

Williams' Jubilee Singers will appear at the Independence opera house in this city March 4th. They come here under the auspices of the ladies' aid society of the Baptist church of this city. These singers have appeared so often in all parts of the state that any lengthy eulogy is unnecessary. Everyone will attend the coming of the Williams' Jubilee Singers in Independence.

E. W. Cooper, of the real estate firm of Howard and Cooper, of Albany, was in the city the latter part of the week visiting relatives. This office acknowledges a pleasant call. Mr. Cooper is one of the pioneers of Independence. He reports things moving along nicely at Albany and a steady growth in the upbuilding of the city.

Among the new arrivals in Independence is G. W. McCamey, late of Brownsville. Mr. McCamey has purchased property in North Independence and has improved the same by erecting a new barn and other buildings. He likes the city very much and the Enterprise extends the glad hand of welcome to himself and his estimable family.

H. E. Conger, formerly of this place, but now of Medford, was looking after business matters here the fore part of this week. He reports business rushing in his part of the state and real estate transfers plentiful. This is the result of judicial publicity and Independence can profit by the example set by her neighbors.

There will be a game of basketball at the auditorium Monday night between the I. A. C. and the Muscatines, of Muscatine, Iowa. This promises to be a very interesting game as the Muscatines are the champions of the east and our boys have been defeated but once.

Hiram Wood, of North Independence, was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday. Mr. Wood believes that a cannery would be a good thing for this city.

The regular list of taxes for the county of Polk is now in the hands of the Independence National Bank where those who wish may call and pay the same.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Hon. Frank W. Benson, Secretary of State, Salem, Oregon, and to the members of the Republican party and to the electors of the Counties of Polk and Lincoln, in the State of Oregon, I Benjamin F. Jones, reside at Independence, Polk County, Oregon, I am a duly registered member of the Republican party, in South Independence Precinct, Polk County, Oregon. If I am nominated for the office of Joint Representative for Polk and Lincoln counties, at the Primary election to be held on the 17th day of April 1908. I will accept the nomination and will not withdraw, and if I am elected I will qualify as such officer.

The direct Primary law having passed by a vote of 56,850, against 16,354 and believing in the doctrine that the people know what they want, I further state to the people of Oregon, as well as to the people of any legislative district, that during my term of office I will always vote for the candidate for United States Senator in Congress who shall have received the highest number of the peoples votes for that position at the general election next preceding the election of a Senator in Congress without regard to my individual preference.

If nominated and elected I will during my term of office stand for the just regulation of all transportation, equitable assessment and taxation of all property, State or National ownership of the Locks at Oregon City, and the improvement of all navigable waters in Oregon. A most liberal policy for all Public Schools. The right of suffrage to women.
