The Oregonian has a cartoon on its front page most of the time these days that indicates how sincere it has been in following out the principles enunciated by it for the past three years, or in fact every since the Journal has been backed by Ladd et al. As long as it was fighting them it was anything to down the "first families" and the "interests." It was supposed that it was sincere and that it really had experienced a change of heart. Such however proves to have been a mistake and like every other change made by that paper, it has been done for boodle. Talk about the Oregonian standing for the rights of the people, bah! Harvey would give all his right, title and interest, if he ever had any, in and to a seat in the front row in Heaven, for a seat in the United States Senate. All the attacks made by him through the Oregonian on the initiative, referendum and direct primary laws are just that many attacks made on the people of this state and should be resented in the proper way. But what's the use? The old man has soured on everything since he can't get a seat in the Senate and his brains have evidently become dislocated or loosened in some way and have lodged in his abdominal cavity, causing corpulency and its consequent ill effects. Evidently the old fellow hates himself and it will be a blessing to him and his friends when nature removes him from this wicked world.

Oregon has taken the lead in the interests of the people in a political way. Is she to retire to the realms of darkness at the behest of a few political shysters who would tie the peoples hands while they loot the treasury? We hope not and that after the June election the returns will give the answer in no uncertain terms. Let the direct primary alone and leave statement No. 1 alone, it is a good thing. The so-called republicans that are so solicitous about these matters saying that no republican should be asked to vote for a democrat, etc., should get to work and see that there is no need to do so, for with such a big majority as there is in this state there should be no question about electing a republican senator, unless all the candidates are from the class that is trying to down the people, in which event it would be a good thing to elect a democrat. The people should rule, notwithstanding a few grafters are trying to get back to primitive conditions where they can control by corrupt methods.

We are sorry to say that there are a few papers in the state that are in favor of the repeal of Statement No. 1. Those papers should remember that this statement is backed by the fringe and a great many of their subscribers are grangers. We hope that the members of the order will register a protest with these papers and if not corrected, they will withdraw their patronage. They are either ignorant of the intent of the statement, or are helping to get a return to conditions where the criminal element will control the elections in this state.

Concerning the proposition of the establishment of a cannery in this city we quote an item in the Brownsville Times supposed to have been made by an officer of that institution which will serve to convince the subscribers of the profits which may be expected from such an institution: "The Brownsville cannery in one year's run paid all operating expenses and the costs of the plant out of the revenues for that year." The fact that the capacity of the plant is being doubled for the coming season is a good indication of the truth of the statement," comments the Times.

Prof. Howell, of Havana, Cuba, Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold, the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now, three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

Miss Evelyn Edmund and Miss Mable McLaughlin are negotiating with John B. Stump, we were informed, for some thoroughbred goats and intend to go into the business quite extensively. This is a new industry in this country, and there is no reason why the Mohair that can be grown in this country could not be just as fine in quality as that raised in the Willamette Valley.—Vale Oriason.

Unequaled as a Cure for Croup.

"Besides being an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequaled as a cure for croup," says Harry Wilson of Waynesboro, Ind. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

The Oklahoma legislature is considering a bill for the suppression of the ubiquitous buggy peddler. The range and stove peddler is also to be attended to. If the bill is a good one it should have the support of the merchants. Such a law, properly prepared, constitutional and enforced, would look well in the Pacific Northwest states, statute books.

Lame Shoulder.

Whether resulting from a sprain or from rheumatic pain, there is nothing so good for a lame shoulder as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Apply it freely and rub the parts vigorously at each application and a quick cure is certain. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

"Uncle Billy" Burns and wife came down from the Lewisville district Saturday for a short visit with relatives. Mrs. Burns has gone to Portland for a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ada Alexander.

Wilson's Store BELIEVES IN QUALITY

When a customer has once been convinced that it pays to buy quality, he will seldom seek a store that caters merely to those who wish to buy the greatest quantity for the money. There are communities where quality arguments would have no weight, but there are many more that can be convinced that quality pays if the right arguments are used. Quality arguments are sometimes slow trade builders, but they build exceeding strong. Bargain Goods are only a bargain to those who have not the money with which to buy the best; but there is generally a hole in the bargain. If you simply want bargain goods, pay the cheap price and get them. If you want absolutely the best, the kinds that bring you back, pay more and get more. Quality has been behind every business that has built up a solid reputation. I believe in Quality and guarantee the quality of all my goods to those who wish the best.
