SEYMOUR HAS "MADE GOOD"

H. C. Seymour, the Republican candidate for County School Superintendent, was born in Rock Island, Illinois, thirty years ago. He came to Oregon at the age of twelve years, and has resided in this state since that time.

Mr. Seymour received his education in the public schools of this county and the LaCreole Academy, now Dallas College.

He began teaching at the age of nineteen and has made it his life work, having taught in the public schools of Oak Grove, Upper Salt Creek, Rickreall, Falls City, and several schools of other counties.

Mr. Seymour has never taught a school in which he has not been re-elected to the position for the second and third times at an increase of salary, and has taught each and every school to the entire satisfaction of the patrons of the schools.

The county court of Polk county appointed Mr. Seymour as County School Superintendent in June, 1907, and he has conducted the duties of the office to the satisfaction of all with whom he has come in contact.

If he is elected to the position of County School Superintendent on the first day of June, he will devote his full time and ability to the advancement of the public schools of Polk county.

MAYOR FARLEY TALKS ON FISH

G. J. Farley, mayor of The Dalles, Oregon, was in Independence yesterday. Mr. Farley is covering the state in the interest of better protection for the salmon industry of Oregon. In speaking of this matter to the Enterprise Mr. Farley said: "We are trying to educate the people to the great necessity of voting upon this measure. It is one of great financial benefit to the state of Oregon. It is of great interest to those who appreciate food fishing. This measure, looking to the increase of the industry, is one that is not intended to increase the tax of the people. The passage of this bill will not entail additional expense to the taxpayers of the state. The expense of the industry is borne by the fish-packers, who pay a license to the state of Oregon and from the revenue thus derived the salaries of the fish warden and his deputies are paid. This revenue also provides funds for the maintenance and operation of hatcheries and for the distribution of fish to all streams throughout the state."

CONSERVING FISH SUPPLY

Department of Commerce and Labor Favors Bill.

Ten days of salmon fishing in the Columbia river show the salmon supply still on the wane. This is the season of the finest salmon of the river—the best in the world. Soon these fish will be an extinct breed. They are the fish that made the Columbia river famous. The few remaining specimens should be protected with closed season. The open season should be put off from April 15 to May 15. After that there should be the closed Sunday and rigid regulation of all kinds of gear—gillnets, traps, seines and wheels.

Master Fish Warden Van Dusen quits his office May 1, leaving the industry in a bad plight. It is too much to say that he is wholly to blame for this condition of affairs.
But the fish faction with which he has been allied is as much to blame as any other, and none is more grasping and none has defeated as much remedial legislation.—From the Oregonian, April 27th, 1908.

The U. S. Bureau of Fisheries has for a long time been endeavoring to secure just such remedial legislation as is being objected to by the lower river interests. A short time ago Secretary Strauss, of the U. S. Department of Commerce and Labor, set forth a list of things necessary to save the industry. Initiative bill—no. 318 X yes—was framed to carry out their ideas. We commend it to your favorable consideration.

INDEPENDENCE LOSES GAME.

The game of base ball, which was played in Independence last Sunday resulted in favor of Albany, the score being 14 to 6. The day was rainy and the attendance at the game was not as large as usual, but those who did brave the weather entered into the enthusiasm of the game. Though Independence played good ball it is the general opinion that they were slightly outclassed by the Albany team.
At the conclusion of the fourth inning the score stood 2 to 2 and it seemed apparent that Independence was equal to the emergency of the moment. The loss of the game is due more to the drizzling rain which kept up throughout the game. It was impossible to handle the ball with any certainty.

Following is the lineup:
Independence: Cooper, Blacketar, Kirkland, Burrows, Johnson, Davidson, Insbiger, Blanchard and Fluke.
Albany: Hockinias, Patheron, Shultz, Rowell, Stevens, Mason, Weatherford, Beeson and West.

Lehman-Ward Nuptials.

Miss Josie Ward was married to H.
C. Lehman Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Ehrhorn at 11 o'clock. The young people are both residents of Independence, Mr.
Lehman holding a position with Messner, Conkey & Walker, and are members of the Baptist church of this place. They were the recipients of many handsome gifts from friends.

The happy couple departed, amid a shower of rice and old shoes, on the afternoon train for Portland where they will spend their honeymoon with relatives and friends of that city.

Attention is called to the Republican ticket in another page of this issue. The name of H. C. Seymour, for County School Superintendent should appear in the ticket. Don't overlook his name on the ticket when you come to vote.

VOTERS, THINK CONSIDER WELL

Do you want drunkenness or sobriety?
A vote for the saloon is a vote for drunkenness and its consequent evils.
Your home and all the interests of your life will be safer without the saloon.

Business men read carefully the following remarkable statement from Assistant Attorney General Trickett, of Kansas:

"When I first moved upon the dens of vice two leading bankers, in company with three leading merchants, called upon me to protest against closing the saloons, saying it would ruin business.
Not long since these same men returned to my office to apologize for their former request, and stated that it had not only not injured business, but had helped every line. The bankers informed me that in three months, under closed saloons, deposits had increased $500,000.
The merchants said their business had increased, collections were better, and that women were trading with them, presenting their husband's pay checks, stating that they had never seen a pay check until the saloons were closed.
Ex-Mayor W. A. Coy, proprietor of the largest store in the sixth ward, which was the storm center of the fight, stated to me recently that to his personal knowledge a score of families now lived in comfort that lived in squalid poverty before the closing movement.
The same statement has been made to me by more than fifty merchants in that city. I consider it a safe proposition to invite any one who feels in doubt to write to any merchant in Kansas City as to the effects.

"Last May our city officials were figuring how they could spare the money to enlarge the city jails, but today we have no use for those we have.
The doors swinging idly upon their hinges, with no inmates, the guards at the rock pile have been discharged, the drunks and disorderlies have largely disappeared.

Geo. Jones and family moved out to their new home Tuesday. He recently bought the Scroggs place, a mile north of town, which will be their future home.
