PREMIUM LIST OF STATE FAIR

Bigger and Better Than Ever Before.

$15,000 AVAILABLE PREMIUMS

New Features at Fair Will Be Apparent to Visitors.

A copy of the Oregon State Fair Premium list for 1908 has come to this office. It is worthy of note that the list of premiums is larger than ever before offered.

With the appropriation of $10,000 from the state and the earnings of the fair of $5000 attractions may be offered superior to any former year, and it may be expected that the fair this year will surpass any former effect. Many new exhibitors are securing space and the numerous herds which have been purchased and shipped into Oregon during the past year will be added attractions. New buildings and improvements are being added to the grounds.

Entries in the racing department will be much larger and will consist of a better class of horses than ever before shown or raced in the Northwest.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience, C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at all druggists 50c.

Pratt-Pomeroy Nuptials.

Married at the home of the bride's parents in this city Tuesday, June 30th, at high noon, Miss Nellie Pomeroy to Mr. Charles Pratt, of Seattle, Washington, the Rev. D. Julian Becker, of Dallas, officiating. Only immediate relatives and friends were present. A sumptuous banquet was spread immediately after the ceremony and the bride and groom departed soon after on their way to their home at Seattle. The bride was one of the efficient teachers of the Seattle schools and the groom is a business man of the same city.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctor's fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—Samuel Boyer, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by P. M. Kirkland. Samples free.

Phillippi-Metzler Nuptials.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Metzler at Rickreall, Oregon, Sunday, June 28, 1908, at 9 o'clock p. m. when Miss Amanda A. Metzler and Walter Phillippi plighted their troth in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

The room where the ceremony took place was simply and effectively decorated with white roses and ivy. The arch under which the bride and groom stood was decorated with asparagus fern and seafoam.

The bride was prettily gowned in white satin trimmed in silk all-over lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and ferns, and was unattended. The groom was attired in the conventional black. The impressive marriage ceremony was read by Rev. Louis Hoover, pastor of the Evangelical church of Monmouth.

The wedding lunch that followed the ceremony was held in the dining room, the exquisite table decorations being of delicate pink roses and Oregon grape.

Those present were: Rev. Louis Hoover, Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Metzler, Rickreall; J. I. Phillippi, Monmouth; Walter Metzler, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phillippi, Albany; Mrs. Perry Long, Eugene; Mrs. S. J. Lee, Rickreall; Mrs. Wm. Brubst, Wilsonville; Mrs. A. D. Clutter, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. C. Lorence, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fream, Misses May and Luena Webster, Independence; Misses Christie and Minnie Clow, Rickreall; Messrs. Merle Morris, Eugene; Frank Webster and Roy De Armond, Independence; Robert and John Lee, Rickreall.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillippi left Tuesday for Eugene where they will reside. They carry with them the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous future. They were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents consisting mainly of cut glass and silverware.

Boy's Life Saved.

My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured him and believe that saved his life.—William H. Stroling, Carbon Hill, Ala. There is no doubt but this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with castor oil according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

MR. MESSNER HAS RETIRED

An important change has taken place this week in the firm of Messner, Conkey & Walker. Mr. Messner having retired from the management of the firm. The firm will be known hereafter as Conkey, Walker & Lehman, and the membership bespeaks success. Mr. Messner, who has been connected with the mercantile world of Independence during the past five years, will retire from that field and devote himself to banking. The business of the First State Bank, of which he is president, has grown to such an extent that it is necessary to add a larger force and he will therefore devote his energies to the success of that institution. Independence has lost nothing in these business changes. The mercantile firm may feel that they have lost in the deal, however, the addition of Mr. Lehman forms a trio of industrious workers for whom it would be impossible to conceive failure.

Twenty-Five Cents is the Price of Peace.

The terrible itching and smarting, incident to certain skin diseases, is almost instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price, 25 cents. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

Call Meeting.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Independence Cannery Company, held on Monday, June 29, 1908, the secretary was instructed to issue a call for a meeting of all the stockholders to meet at the cannery building on Saturday, July 11, at 2 p. m. The cannery will be in operation at that time and it is requested that all be present.

War Against Consumption.

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. Dove & Williams.

INNOVATION IN BOOKLETS

Intense Competition Between Valley Towns.

BOOKLETS ARE BEING ISSUED

Oregon Dairy Association Will Circulate Report of Last Year's Work.

There is an intense competition between the different communities of Oregon in issuing attractive and convincing literature. Many of the publications circulated to draw attention to this state today are superior to the most ambitious product of the metropolitan printers ten years ago. Up to the present time the most artistic booklet printed in the state is one gotten out by the Yamhill County Development League. Its reproductions of raspberries, cherries, prunes and grapes are done in natural colors, and like the picture in the old fable, would almost deceive the birds.

Secretary W. L. Crissey of the Oregon State Dairy Association has ready for circulation the report of that body for the past year. It is very much the most comprehensive report which has appeared concerning any dairy meeting on the Pacific coast, and Mr. Crissey will furnish copy to anyone interested, upon request. Oregon has grown wonderfully in fruit, agriculture and general industries, but dairying holds the record for greatest increase, dairy products having risen from a value of $5,000,000 annually five years ago to $17,000,000 in 1907.

The Dallas business men have invited the business men of Portland to attend their "Cherry Carnival" Wednesday, July 1st, and many people will make the trip from this city, either by boat or rail.

An intensely interesting meeting vital to the future of Portland, Oregon and the Northwest, is called for tomorrow at the convention hall of the Portland Commercial Club. Transportation questions of deepest moment to this section will be discussed.

Portland's excursion to Eugene was one of the most successful and delightful events that ever took place in this state. The Portlanders had a choir along, which sang:

"A Lane County drink
We are willing to buy.
What do they drink
In a county that's dry?"

Innumerable equally effective verses enlivened the journey. When the "National Association of Retail Grocers of the United States" meets in Portland next year, special trains from various parts of the country will be a feature. One is already planned by the merchants of Cincinnati, another from Chicago, while Boston has organized a "Portland Club" and they will charter their own car.

Best the World Affords.

"It gives me unbounded pleasure to recommend Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says J. W. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "I am convinced it's the best salve the world affords. It cured a felon on my thumb, and it never fails to heal every sore, burn or wound to which it is applied. 25 cents at all druggists."

Death of Miss Tupper.

The Enterprise desires to apologize to the relatives of Miss Tupper who died at St. John on June 16th. The piece of news should have appeared in the last issue of this paper but through some error it failed to appear.

Miss Tupper was the daughter of A. J. Tupper who formerly resided in this city. They removed from Independence to St. John about two years ago. Mr. Tupper will be remembered as marshal of this city which position he held for many years.

Miss Tupper's death is thought to have been the result of a fall which occurred a few days before her death. Her head came in contact with a rail on the track at St. John. She did not suffer from the injury until Tuesday, four days after the fall. She complained of her head hurting her and a doctor was called. He administered to her and promised to call in the evening, but when he came again she had died. It is believed that a clot of blood formed on the brain causing her death, which is deeply regretted. She was 15 years of age at the time of her death, birthday occurring April, 8th. The funeral took place in this city Thursday, June 18th at 10:30 o'clock, interment being made in the I.O.O.F. cemetery, the Rev. Sanford Snyder officiating.

The Remedy That Does.

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. R. Person, of Auburn Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

ENCAMPMENT BIG SUCCESS

The annual encampment of the Grand Army veterans took place at Newport June 24, 25, and 26th. There were in attendance at the convention about 700 veterans. It was an enthusiastic meeting and those in attendance from Independence report it one of the most successful encampments. J. A. Apperson of Oregon City was elected commander. Those who attended from this place were E. P. Fisher, J. G. Barber, A. W. Stansbury, C. W. Burright, Levi Koser, J. Dornisfe, M. Scraftord, A. C. Dick and T. J. Fryer.

The next encampment will be held at Corvallis. The date for the encampment will be announced later.

A Revelation.

It is a revelation to people, the severe cases of lung trouble that have been cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. It not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs. L. M. Ruggles, Reasnor, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages, and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bullet." Dove & Williams.

McKee Nuptials.

Married at the home of the groom, south of Independence, Wednesday, June 24th, Miss Ethel McKee, of Lakeview, Oregon, to Mr. Harry Hiff, the Rev. L. C. Hoover, of Monmouth, officiating. Only a few invited friends and close relatives were present on the happy occasion.

Miss McKee is one of the graduates of the Monmouth Normal School this year. Mr. Hiff is one of the prominent young men of the Independence country. They will make their home on the farm of the groom which is situated out south of this city.

Rev. I. W. Williams Testifies.

Rev. I. W. Williams, Huntington, W. Va., testifies as follows: "This is to certify that I used Foley's Kidney Remedy for nervous exhaustion and kidney trouble, and am free to say that Foley's Kidney Remedy will do all that you claim for it." Dove & Williams.
