WHEN ONE'S PAST CARING.
Somewhere the sun is shining
Somewhere the skies are blue,
Somewhere there may be people
Whose cares are very few.
Somewhere there may be laughter
And somewhere ne'er a frown;
But you don't care much, do you,
When She has turned you down?
—Chicago Record-Herald.

HOW MUCH DO YOU OWE?
After six months the support which the West Side Enterprise has been given by the merchants of Independence may reasonably be presumed to have been well tested. The publisher does not make this statement with any feeling of harshness, but rather as a matter upon which all may ponder. There are a few merchants of the city who have kept their skirts clean of the Enterprise and some who have done less than a dollar's worth of advertising. There are fourteen business men and professions of Independence that have not given five cents in advertising to the West Side Enterprise. It is true, this paper is not going to complain, but it does take credit for misplaced confidence in the community.

Meier & Frank do a $1,500,000 business annually. They devote 2 per cent of this to advertising. $30,000 is spent with the newspapers alone. They invest in no wildcat schemes. This fortune of $30,000 is divided up with the Oregonian, Telegram and Journal.

How about your advertising? Have you figured how much you owe to newspaper advertising? You do $50,000 a year, you owe $83 a month; you do $5000 a year, you owe $8.35 a month. How many of you do less than $5000 a year. Read what the Oregonian says, in speaking of country newspapers.

There are always more good people than bad people in a community, and the newspaper, after all, merely reflects the sentiment of the people who support it. The newspaper cannot be much better or bigger than the people it serves. For any healthy, thriving city to fail to support a good newspaper, is nearly always much more of a reflection on the people than on the editor. The local newspaper has become so much a part of the industrial and social life of our country that the town or city too indifferent to support a paper is of not much consequence.

Very few of the country editors receive pay at all proportionate to the efforts that they put forth.—Editorial from Oregonian July 19, 1908.

The colonists rates from all points in the East to all points in Oregon commence September 1st and continue until October 31st. Every commercial organization and every citizen of Oregon should begin to make these rates the subject of every letter that goes out of the state. The fare is $30 from Missouri river points, St. Paul, Duluth and Winnipeg, $33 from St. Louis, and $38 from Chicago, with proportionate rates from every point in the United States.

The Washington State Press Association enjoyed one of their best annual conventions at Vancouver during three days of last week. A trip up the Columbia river, a trolley ride to Portland and a banquet with Vancouver, were among the features of entertainment.

War Against Consumption.
All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. Dove & Williams.

Who Said Rain.
"Who Said Rain" is the latest advertisement issued by Manager John H. Hartog, of the Eugene Commercial Club. A Eugene belle is photographed three times, standing in glasses, each of which contains the rain fall for one year, one in Eugene with .38 inches, and the girl's face has a happy expression; New York City with 45 inches, and that expression becomes doubtful, while New Orleans with 62 inches, makes her cry for help. The leaflet quotes from report of the United States Weather Bureau that during 1907 Eugene had 235 days without any rain and 40 days when it rained less than one-tenth of an inch.

Rev. I. W. Williams Testifies.
Rev. I. W. Williams, Huntington, W. Va., testifies as follows: "This is to certify that I used Foley's Kidney Remedy for nervous exhaustion and kidney trouble, and am free to say that Foley's Kidney Remedy will do all that you claim for it." Dove & Williams.

Notice.
The Board of Regents of Normal Schools will receive proposals for furnishing 100 cords of 4 ft. fir slab wood, to be delivered at the Oregon State Normal School, at Monmouth, Oregon, on or before Sept. 10, 1908. Proposals to be opened Aug. 6, 1908, by the Executive Committee of the Board of Regents, in the office of the Secretary of the Board, at Salem, Oregon. The Executive Committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

The Remedy That Does.
"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. R. Pierson, of Auburn Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Myrtle Harman, Deceased.
Myrtle Harman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harman of North Independence, aged eight months and ten days, died at the home of her parents on Tuesday, July 28th. The cause of death is not definitely known. The little girl was a native daughter of Polk county and a very lovable child. The funeral services were conducted from the residence Wednesday at 10 o'clock, the Rev. D. M. Metzger, officiating.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol for Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 pounds; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefitted. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by Dove & Williams.

Humbug Lake Party.
A pleasant lake party was given by Mrs. Lottie Hedges-Dorris Friday evening at her country home. The evening was spent fishing on Humbug lake where fish are more numerous than fiddlers in Missouri, where they bite at a snare and are caught in a knotted string. Yes, they are seen popping up out of the water over the lake like fire works on a fourth of July and you go along catching them in a basket as they come down. Joy! And water nymphs; they herd the fishes about like shepherds and show the slimy cats the trick of taking the bait. Nymphs with angelic faces, never to be forgotten. Glorious! After the excursion the party repaired to the domicile of the hostess where luscious fruit fresh from the orchard revived the enthusiasm of the evening.

Those present were: Mrs. Charles Lievsay of Winona, Washington, R. McMillan of Independence, Harry and Miss Francis Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Hicks and Mrs. Lottie Hedges-Dorris.

A Revelation.
It is a revelation to people, the severe cases of lung trouble that have been cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. It not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs. L. M. Ruggies, Reasnor, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages, and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bullet." Dove & Williams.
