Salem's BEST STORE For
All Kinds of Dry Goods, Etc.

J. L. STOCKTON
The White Corner, Salem

JUST like a scholar in school, ambitious to get to the head of the class, we have toiled and studied until now we are confident that this store surpasses all others as a value giving concern. The new goods for Fall have been purchased with a view of pleasing our customers; we have studied their tastes and profited by it. The man who tries is bound to succeed. And any one who has ever visited this store knows full well that the salespeople tried to please them, and even though they did not buy, the management got an idea from the visit, and has tried to profit by it.
