In the case of O. D. Byers, accused of "bootlegging," whose case came up for trial before Justice Wilson the first of the week, there is every reason to believe from the relation of the young man's story that there never was the slightest grounds for suspicion. It would be the last crime one would suspect him of committing. A boy as carefully raised as it appears young Byers was, whose habits bespeak years and years of care and watchfulness of the part of his parents, would suggest an example which might well be emulated by most young men of the present day. Few of them possess the qualities which raise young Byers above suspicion of the act for which he was brought to account. If you glory in clean young men possessed of high and elevated moral attributes, be one to tear away the scarlet letter from his breast.

PASSING OF EARLY PIONEER.
Mrs. Cyrus Buell passed away at her home near Sheridan last Sunday, September 20th, after a lingering illness of many years and much suffering, her ailment being cancerous afflictions. Ellen Carney-Buell came to Oregon in 1847, and was united in marriage to Cyrus Buell in 1859. Their entire life has been spent in that vicinity, respected and valued residents. She is survived by her husband and four children: Charles W., of Vancouver, Washington; M. H., of Falls City; Frank L., of Tillamook, and Mrs. A. J. Cooper, of Sheridan. The remains were laid to rest in the Pleasant Hill cemetery last Monday, and followed to the grave by many life long friends, who respected and loved her for her many virtues and estimable qualities.

Fined For Selling Liquor.
Diligent work on the part of Sheriff Grant and Deputy Horatio Morrison caused the arrest and conviction of a couple of parties at Independence Saturday for dispensing an intoxicating beverage illegally. Their names were R. E. Gibbons and Ed Kebbort, and in trial before Justice B. Wilson Monday they were fined $50 each.—Itemizer.

$25 REWARD.
I will pay $25 reward for the recovery of one Moline wagon, 3 1/2 in. axle, which was taken from my place about three weeks ago. Compliance with this notice will save trouble to the party who now has the wagon. The law will be invoked if reduced to the extremity.

HAPPENINGS ABOUT DALLAS

(From the Observer.)
County Clerk E. M. Smith issued license to Roy W. Comegys and Katherine Simonton and Roy Newbill and Loisel Blair, Tuesday, and to Arthur H. Meyers and Mary J. Stengel, Wednesday.

Miss Grace D. Black was married to Mr. Arthur M. Jones, of Salem, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Black, of Rickreall, Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Dr. C. A. Mock, of Dallas. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will make their home in Salem.

J. C. Hayter, former editor of the Observer, writes us that his new address is 421 South Third street Albuquerque, New Mexico. He arrived in that city last Saturday, and will probably remain there until after the holidays. He writes that he is enjoying the best of health and that he anticipates a pleasant winter's visit in the New Mexican metropolis.

Notice of Dissolution.

BYERS CLEARED FROM CHARGE

Editor Enterprise—I beg to be indulged space in your paper to place myself in better light before the people of Polk county on account of the unfortunate circumstance which led up to my arrest last week, and which was trumped up against me through a spirit of malice rather than civic righteousness on the part of officials who participated in the arrest and trial. I have hesitated to go into print, believing in the sincerity of my friends who know so much better of me and whom I am weak enough to believe will exert themselves to see that my character does not suffer in what they have not hesitated to pronounce "case of persecution." I will simply map out in a few words as possible a skeleton of the truth of the affair:
My arrest last Thursday was made on the complaint of the sheriff of Polk county, who failed to appear in court at the time of the hearing, which came before Justice B. Wilson, who, before the trial, advised me to plead guilty and pay a fine. In the absence of prosecuting witnesses the case was dismissed on motion of the prosecuting attorney. In his zeal for civic righteousness this diminutive muckraker, the justice in the case, went out upon the street in search of witnesses to follow up the prosecution.
I am engaged at this time conducting a grocery store at Horst Brothers' hop yards. I come to town every day for goods and supplies. One day last week I was asked by Earl Gibbons, one of the hop pickers at the yards, to bring him a bottle of ginger ale. This I did as a matter of accommodation, and for which I received no compensation. If the bottle contained anything but what the label purported it to contain, it is not for me to say. This is the truth and the whole truth, and positively all that was possessed by the prosecution upon which to make a case.
In extenuation I wish to say, and the truth of which will be borne out by my parents and brothers, and my friends of Polk county, I have never in my life tasted of liquor of any kind to my knowledge, and neither do I chew or smoke tobacco. This I can say of my brothers and my father, with the exception that he sometimes indulges in a cigar.
O. D. BYERS.

GRANGE FAIR AND FESTIVAL

Plans are maturing rapidly for the Live Stock Exhibit to be held at Grange Fair, Gresham, October 6-10, 1908.
The sheds are well along now for the stock exhibit. Stalls have been constructed to care for 60 head of stock already, and the material will be ready for the erection of other stalls if the entries demand it. It is fully expected that there will be need of over a hundred. The pens for sheep and hogs will be put up this week. The next issue of the Beaver State Herald will contain a large part of the premium list, a copy of which may be obtained by writing and the complete premium lists will be ready to go out by the last of the week.

Notice of Final Settlement.

FALLS CITY HAPPENINGS

(From Falls City News.)
Circuit Judge Burnett overruled the motion for a new trial in the A. J. Hembree case and pronounced the death sentence Monday.

The county road roller steamed into town Monday to finish the approaches to the bridge. The first thing it did was to venture so near the edge of the fill that it came near being ditched. When the dirt began to slip the engine was shut down and horses and blocks had to be used to pull it away from the edge of the grade.

While drying hops at the F. A. Link hop house on the Luckiamute Tuesday evening George McDowell sustained injuries that are very serious. After dark he was out on the approach to the house and in some way fell to the ground and injured his spine and was unconscious for a long time, and it was thought that he could not recover, but at present he is improving, and is expected to get well.

Notice of Final Settlement.
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, as administrator with the will annexed of the estate of John Loy, deceased, has filed his final account in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Polk County, and that Saturday, the 27th day of October, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon of the said day, at the court room of the said County Court in the City of Dallas, Oregon, has been appointed by said Court as the time and place for the hearing of objection to the said final account and the settlement thereof.
JOHN R. LOY
Administrator with will annexed of the estate of John Loy, deceased.
Oscar Hayter, Attorney.
