

MONMOUTH.

New hat racks in the College hall. Bro. Rodabaugh gave us a call last week.

Mr. Monroe Kirkland was in town last Sunday.

James Murphy's children are convalescing.

Turner Shirley has a music class at Independence.

Solomon Stump, wife and baby were in town several days this week.

Several large new blackboards in the west room of the College and in the primary department.

The janitor of our college has procured a new fashioned hat; the only difficulty is, the brim is not wide enough.

Our school progress smoothly, and we anticipate the students giving a good account of themselves on commencement day, satisfactory to Professors and patrons.

Our accommodating butchers killed a number of fine hogs this week, and as others in the village had mochyn's to shave, they made a regular shaving machine of it. Who comes next?

The Board of Trustees were called together on Thursday, the 19th inst. at 6 o'clock p. m., by order of the President, to attend to business in connection with the endowment fund, &c.

Prof. Campbell lectures every morning to the students in the east room of the College. Essays by the students at 4 o'clock every evening in the same room. All who wish to hear either lecture or essays are cordially invited to attend.

We learn from the Statesman that the Hon. A. F. Campbell, of Roseburg, is about to lead to the hymenial altar the beautiful and accomplished Miss L. Grubb. May your shadows never grow less. Remember the printers, Frank.

The Hesperians have built a new flue to their society hall to remedy the bad effects of a smoky chimney that has annoyed them ever since the new college was built. They have refitted their room, and made some other improvements that were badly needed.

INTERESTING TO FARMERS.—Sherrill's improved turning plow, cultivator and seeder combined; manufactured at Harrisburg, Oregon, is on exhibition at the ware-room of A. S. Powell, in Monmouth. Farmers are invited to examine. County rights for sale, apply to J. Sherrill, Harrisburg, Linn county, Or.

Bro. F. Y. Mulkey has returned to his home from the bunch grass country, where he has been for months in order to improve his health. We are sorry to learn that the climate has had no recuperative influence upon him, but trust the comforts of home, our mild winter, and other associations may have the desired effect.

On Tuesday last we were startled at the announcement that Sister Shelton died suddenly at the residence of her son-in-law, T. J. Graves, near Bethel. "In the midst of life we are in death." We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family. May the God of all grace pour the balm of consolation into their wounded hearts.

A pair of over-fed horses, hitched to a wagon from the Luckianute, was standing in front of Bro. Rust's house last Sunday, when they got frightened at some loose horses and ran off, tearing down four panels of old Bro. Haley's fence, breaking three wagon spokes, brought up by one of the horses falling in a ditch without further mishap. Moral: Always tie your horses, unless you have hold of the lines.

The good washerwomen of our usual peaceful village, are greatly annoyed by the neutralizing properties of chalk, which is so abundantly found in the handkerchiefs of our students, from the frequent application of them to the blackboards as erasers. Would it not be well for our worthy faculty to supply proper erasers, thereby adding to the peace and harmony of this commonwealth "upon a washing day."

Thomas Wolverton, a nephew of Bro. Wolverton, with his wife, two children, and Mr. Irvine, his brother-in-law, arrived from Ohio by last steamer, and are making their home for the present at Bro. Wolverton's.—Mrs. La Boyteaux, Bro. Wolverton's sister, with her son, are also here; from California, making relatives a visit. We hope their stay in our village may be a pleasant one; and that they will like Oregon well enough to make it their permanent home.
