

Let Them Go Down.

Boasting the devil to support the Gospel is a modern device. The Primitive Church knew nothing of it. When Paul was collecting funds to aid poor saints at Jerusalem, he used no fairs, festival, "mum sociables," kissing games, or other sanctified snares, to accomplish his object. The Christians paid their own bills, and did not expect Satan to pay for the weapons which they used in warfare against him. When the devil does so it is in his own interest. He carries on his operations with a full knowledge of the fact, "that a kingdom divided against itself cannot stand." For every dollar paid out of his coffers to the church, he receives full value. Church partnership with the Evil One never benefits the former, but always the latter. Hands off! Untold harm comes to the Church by the use of even questionable measures to raise money for the support of God's work. It creates an impression in the minds of the worldly, that the Church is a kind of parasite, dependent for its existence on the community, that it is a sort of genteel beggar, which it is proper and fashionable to support, that it is an object of charity, or even pity and contempt, which is grateful for the tolerance of the people that let it live. The ungodly regard such Churches as engaged in seeking money rather than souls and valuing wealthy member, more'n poor saints. To stand before the world in this light is humiliating and degrading beyond expression. Such churches ought to be cleansed or closed, cured or killed.

Churches that are doing the Lord's work, and worth supporting can be supported without the use of questionable means. Others deserve no support. Let them go down.—Ez.

Evils of Gossip.

We have known a country society which withered away to nothing under the dry rot of gossip only. Friendships once as firm as granite, dissolved into jelly, and then ran away to water only, because of this; love that promised a future as enduring and as stable as truth, evaporated into a morning mist that turned to day's long fears, only because of this; a father and a son were set foot to foot with the fiery breath of anger that would never cool again between them; and a husband and young wife, each straining at the hated lash which in the beginning had been the promise of a God-blessed love, sat mournfully by the side of the grave where all their love and all their joy lay buried, and all because of this. We have seen faith transformed to mean doubt, joy give place to grim despair, and charity take on itself the features of black malevolence, all because of the fell words of scandal, and the magic mutterings of gossip. Great crimes work great wrongs, and the deeper tragedies of human life spring from the larger passion; but woe and most mournful are the uncatalogued tragedies that issue from gossip and detraction; most mournful the shipwreck often made of noble natures and lovely lives by the bitter winds and dead salt waters of slander. So easy to say, yet so hard to prove—throwing on the innocent all the burden and stain of demonstrating their innocence, and punishing them as guilty if unable to pluck out the stings they never see, and to silence words they never hear—gossip and slander are the deadliest and cruellest weapons man has ever forged for his brother's heart. Alas the Year Round.

—Our chief want in life is somebody who shall make us do what we can.

—A disgusted chief in the Ute country says: "When he was in Washington the tongues of the white men were as long as his arm, but now they are no longer than the first joint of his little finger." He perceives the difference between promise and performance.

LITERARY REVOLUTION AND UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE.

An Encyclopedia of 20 Vols., over 16,000 Pages; 10 per cent more matter than any Encyclopedia ever before published in this country, and sold, handsomely and well bound, in cloth for $10, in half morocco for $15, and printed on fine heavy paper, wide margins, bound in half Russia, gilt top, for $20—an enterprise so extraordinary that its success, beyond all precedent in book publishing, may be fairly claimed to inaugurate a Literary Revolution.

THE LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE is a reprint entire of the last (1879) Edinburgh edition of "Chambers's Encyclopedia," with about 40 per cent. of new matter added, upon topics of special interest to American readers, thus making it equal in character to any similar work, better than any other suited to the wants of the great majority of those who consult works of reference, and altogether the latest Encyclopedia in the field.

Specimen Volumes in either style will be sent for examination with privilege of return on receipt of proportionate price per volume.

Special Discounts to all early subscribers, and extra discounts to clubs. Full particulars with descriptive catalogue of many other standard works equally low in price, sent free.

Leading principles of the American Book Exchange:

- I. Publish only books of real value.
- II. Work upon the basis of present cost of making books, about one-half what it was a few years ago.
- III. Sell to buyers direct, and save them the 50 to 60 per cent. commission commonly allowed to dealers.
- IV. The cost of books when made 10,000 at a time is but a fraction of the cost when made 500 at a time—adopt the low price and sell the large quantity.
- V. Use good type, paper, etc., do careful printing, and strong, neat binding, but avoid all "padding," fat and heavily-leaded type, spongy paper and gaudy binding, which are so commonly resorted to to make books appear large and fine, and which greatly add to their cost, but do not add to their value.
- VI. To make $1 and a friend is better than to make $5 and an enemy.
