Christian Messenger.

MONMOUTH: SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1871. G. W. CANNON, General Newsdealer and Advertising Agent, is our only authorized agent at Portland, Oregon.

STRAWBERRY FEAST.—Miss Flora Shirley called on us last Wednesday, and deposited upon our table the most delicious combination of strawberries, cream and pie-crust it was ever our good fortune to test.

RHODE ISLAND SCHOOLMASTER.—We have received and placed on our exchange list, the above named monthly, published at Providence, R. I., by T. W. Bicknell and T. B. Stockwell.

CAMP MEETING.—The Methodist denomination are holding a camp meeting at their "Camp Ground" in Dixie, they commenced last Thursday and will hold over two Sabbath days.

SUPPORT your local paper. Give it an advertisement of your business. You must be advertised, sooner or later.

CONTENTMENT.—In all the vocations and stations of life, it has been conceded, by the greatest philosophers which the world has ever produced, that contentment is the foundation and corner stone of true happiness.

DALLAS MEETING.—Though the weather has been untravable, and the roads sloppy, the audiences at Dallas have been good, especially on Lord's day and each evening since.

NOTICE.—The brethren are requested to meet on Friday and Saturday (June 9th and 10th) for the purpose of cleaning up and arranging the grounds for the occasion of the Annual Meeting.

BRICK MAKING.—The indications of settled weather are sufficiently favorable to encourage Mr. Elliott to resume work on the brick yard.

AMERICAN BROILER.—We have from the enterprising firm of S. L. Fenner & Co., Independence, a broiler of the Bower patent, which we have tried in preparing a steak, and find it the very thing needful.

STATE NEWS.

COMPILED FROM OUR STATE EXCHANGES. [From the Salem Statesman.] Mr. E. K. Chandler, of McMinville, was one of the class graduating at the Baptist Theological Seminary of Chicago, on the 17th inst.

We see by the Advocate, that a meeting called by the President Elder, of the Salem District, has resolved to have a Ministers Association at the M. E. Church in this city to continue May 30th and 31st, Tuesday and Wednesday of the present week.

Yesterday Mr. M. L. Culver shipped by railroad to Jefferson, the machinery bought by the "Beaver Hosiery Manufacturing Company" from the Woolen Mills. The Hose Company expects to be fully in operation by the middle of August.

LAND OFFICE.—Col. Cann during the past week has in reality done a "land office business" in the way of answering inquiries, giving information, etc. Quite a number of Lane county men were down, settling up old land matters that have long been in abeyance and are returning home satisfied with the manner in which their claims were adjusted.

Quaker Friend, William Hobson, will speak this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the Court House, if the Spirit moves him thereto.

Mr. Abbott to whom the contract for Fourth Street Bridge, was awarded at a sum of $4,500, has filed bonds and will proceed with the work immediately.

The steamship Constancia will sail for San Francisco on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, at reduced rates.

The Lane County Teachers Institute, organized here some time ago, met at the Court House last Saturday and effected a permanent organization. It is not decided when they will meet again.

We are pleased to state that Ben. Underwood has so far recovered from his recent severe illness as to be around again.

The parties who were in town last week purchasing horses, succeeded in getting nearly fifty, at from $75 to $100 apiece.

The supervisors are now engaged in repairing the roads about town.

Wool is selling at 31 cents per pound in this market.

The rain still continues, with small patches of sunshine, now and then.

The Washington Treaty has been ratified with only 12 dissenting votes.

Mr. H. H. Gale, of the Roseburg Express, called on us the first of the week. Henry is looking well and has got his mustache colored. He was on his way to Portland.

on their steam boats from Salem to Portland for $1.50.

The O. S. N. Company intends soon taking the steamer Nes Perce Chief over the Cascades. We understand that the boat is almost ready for the perilous voyage.

From all sections of Eastern Oregon we learn that the crops are doing well, and the promise is good for a fair average yield at our next harvest.

The Columbia has been on a stand for several days. It will have to raise some ten or twelve feet yet to bring it up to the high water mark of last year.

General Tilton and his surveying party returned from Walla Walla, having completed the survey of the railroad from that place to the Columbia river.

Immigrants from the Western portion of our State, continue to arrive by boat with their cattle and horses and household fixtures. Every day adds population and wealth to this portion of Oregon.

[From the Salem Mercury.] Gov. Grover last week appointed J. H. Albert, notary for Salem H. C. Paige, for Umatilla, C. P. Ferry and H. J. Twomey for Portland.

G. W. Gray is making preparations to build another block of fire-proof brick stores on State street.

Mr. J. Keeling, blacksmith, has just fitted up in a workmanlike manner as his wont, a Traveling Thresher. This machine will dispense with a great amount of labor if it proves a success.

The trial of C. H. Douglass, Idaho City, for the killing of E. D. Holbrook, has commenced.

There are about eighty men at work upon the works for the canal and locks at Oregon City.

W. H. Teal, of Dallas, had the entire thumb of his left hand cut off last week, by coming in contact with one of the knives of a planing machine.

Governor Grover has appointed Sylvester C. Simpson, Esq., of this city, State Librarian, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Ryan.

The Oregon Sentinel learns from many sources that Douglas county grain prospects are most flattering. The same promise may be seen by riding over Rogue river valley. The grain fields everywhere are green and luxuriant.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The following telegram, received by Secretary Fish to-day, says: "The Archbishop and sixty-nine priests were shot on Tuesday night. The insurrection has been suppressed. The insurgent losses were enormous, and those of the Government comparatively small." (Signed) WASHINGTON.

PARIS, May 28.—General L'Admirant yesterday captured Les Buttes de Chaumont and Ménilmontant, and General Vinoy carried the Cemetery Pere Lachaise.

The body of Delascusse has been found in the street and identified.

VERSAILLES, May 28.—Noon.—The insurgents yesterday shot the Archbishop of Aaris, Abbe Duguerre, and sixty-two other hostages remaining in their possession. The troops had previously captured La Roguette, and saved sixteen other hostages detained there.

Outside Paris—Sunday night.—All quiet within the city. Not a single shot has been fired since ten o'clock this morning.

OBITUARY.

BOUNDS.—Departed this life, at her residence in Benton county, Oregon, at half past 9 o'clock, A. M., May 21st, inst., Sister Nancy J., wife of Brother John A. Bounds; aged 27 years, 9 months and 21 days.

Sister Bounds died in the triumph of faith, encouraging and exhorting her weeping friends to so live as to meet her in the "Better Land."

She leaves a bereaved husband and four little orphans, with a large circle of loving brethren and friends to mourn her loss. Kind friends ministered with gentle hands and loving hearts to her comfort in her last sickness. Her favorite hymn told of her abiding faith:—

Life is a span—a fleeting hour, How soon the vapor flies; Man is a tender, transient flower, That e'en in blooming—dies.

The once loved form, now cold and dead, Each mournful thought employs; And Nature weeps, her comforts fled, And withered all her joys.

Hope looks beyond the bounds of time, When what we now deplore, Shall rise in full, immortal prime, And bloom to fade no more.

Cease, then, fond Nature; cease thy tears; Religion points on high. There, everlasting Spring appears, And joys that cannot die.

DIED.

At the residence of Frank Nichols Dallas, at 7 o'clock P. M. May 31st, George Alfred, infant son, and only child of J. G. and Minnie A. Holbert, aged one month, 27 days.

Suffer little Children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.
