SOME PLAIN FACTS.

The Register devotes about five columns to the GUARD this morning, a small portion of the same being attempts to cover up the large indebtedness

The GUARD at no time has criticised the court for erecting the court house, nor the expense incurred, about $74,000, but upon a couple of occasions taken the liberty to say what it thought of Delos D. Neer drawing $3,275 81 with other prisoners from the front door factory, and the power will for the plans of said building, even charging 5 per cent commission on the court house clock, sewer, hose stands in the yard, etc. We reiterate: It was outrageous and indefensible from any standpoint.

> A GUARD representative saw Mr. Midgley today regarding the matte and he stated that the work of arranging for the motive power for the water company would be started at once. A new water wheel will be placed in position under the Midgley sash and be transmitted to the pumping station across the race means of steel cables. The cables will run from the water wheel to the top of the factory building, and from there to a high tower across the railroad track and mill race, from which latter place it will be transferred to the pumps.

A new pump has been ordered by the water company, to replace one of 700,000 gallons per day. The engines will be kept in position but will not be used except in case of failure of the water power.

Mr. Midgley stated that himself and Mr. Chambers had entered into a 10year contract with the water company to furnish power for the pumps and would make every arrangement to give them first class service. The building of the tower and other improvements necessary to furnish this new power will be begun at once, the contracts having been let, and in all likelihood tomorrow will see the work start.

This is an important change of power, and illustrates the capacity of the water power under the present management. Messrs Midgley & Chambers have spent considerable money improving the millrace and protecting the same where it emerges from the river, and the race is in better condition now than ever before. There is room for more factories requiring power, and this property is constantly growing in value.
