SEYMOUR'S BACK TRACK

Did Not Get to Pekin---Rescued by Russians---Safe at Tien Tsin.

AMERICAN CHURCH MISSION DESTROYED.

Special to the Guard

LONDON, June 28.—Admiral Seymours mixed command that started to rescue the diplomate and foreigners shut up in Pekin, failed to accomplish their mission.

On their retreat the Chinese pressed them hard until a Russian command came to their aid. Two hundred wounded soldiers were brought back to Tien Tsin.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Special to the Guard.

TIEN TSIN, June 28.—Of the German part of the Pekin relief column a lieutenant and ten soldiers were killed, and twenty wounded.

Admiral Seymour has reached here. All well.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Weyhen has been destroyed. The foreign residents escaped without loss of life.

The Presbyterian mission at that place was destroyed entirely, a loss of $40,000.

ON A SINGLE ISSUE.

Prohibition Platform Covers Only Liquor Traffic.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The prohibition party will make its national campaign this year upon a platform of a single issue, all other issues being subordinated to this question. Upon this platform it is probable that either Rev S C Swallow, the "fighting parson," of Harrisburg, Pa, or John G Woolley, of Chicago, editor of the New Voice, the prohibition national organ, will be nominated for president. The convention convened today.

In the platform President McKinley is severely arraigned on the anti-canteen law.

Christian Church Campmeeting

The annual state campmeeting of the Christian church is being held at Turner, Marion county. A considerable number of Lane county people are in attendance. From the report of Monday's exercises published in the Salem Journal we take these items;

"A couple of Mormon preachers created considerable disturbance at the camp ground, and were forcibly removed by Marshal Crewse, assisted by Father Read, of Junction."

"The Christian church in 1820 had only eight congregations in all America. At present there are 10,000 congregations, the most phenomenal of all the history of the church."

"The state evangelist reports having preached 250 sermons; baptized 37 persons; received 23 otherwise; raised for his own support, $810.72; secured 2 life members; raised $98 for Eugene Divinity School.

"There is a membership of about 7000 in this state of this denomination. They are making wonderful progress."

Paris Fair.

The American exhibit at the Paris Exposition will be an open volume, whose lessons of skillfully directed endeavor and unfaltering energy may be read by all. Our Government's Building is completed, and no effort has been spared to make it worthy to represent our nation. It was by the same American perseverance that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the famous dyspeptic cure, was first produced. From that time—fifty years ago—it has never failed to cure constipation, indigestion, biliousness, liver and kidney troubles, and it will purify and enrich the blood. It is an excellent tonic, and is a remedy for the bowels that cannot be equalled. All druggists sell it. Do not be talked into taking something "just as good." There is nothing equal to it.

HERBERT JOHNSON MARRIED

An Elegant Wedding—The Bride a Wealthy Young Woman of Dalton, Mass.

The Pittsfield Evening Journal devotes four columns to an elaborate account of the marriage of Rev Herbert S Johnson, whose boyhood days and those of early manhood were spent in Eugene. We give extracts:

DECORATIONS AND PRESENTS.

"In a woodland bower into which the nod of Midas had transformed the interior of the Dalton Congregational church, there took place Thursday evening the wedding of Miss Mary Crane, a daughter of Mrs James Brewer Crane, and Rev Herbert Spencer Johnson, pastor of the Warren avenue Baptist church of Boston. In the splendor of appointments, the lavish floral display, and the munificence of the gifts this wedding was one of the most notable which Dalton and vicinity has ever seen.

More than 600 invitations had been issued. Personal and political friends of Governor Crane [Governor of Massachusetts—ED GUARD] came in large numbers to attend the wedding of his cousin. The bride was one of the wealthiest young women of Berkshire county. The superb presents received were almost a fortune in themselves. But with all the wealth and display there was something of a democratic simplicity.

"Amid the costly gifts in a room of the residence from which the bride had gone to her wedding were presents from many men and women who worked in the mills of the Cranes in Dalton and some from youngsters who had enjoyed the delights of a vacation on the bride's fresh air farm on the hills above the village.

* * * *

THE STREET THRONG.

"Around the handsome gray stone church in Dalton there pressed and crowded a throng such as forms the following of all great weddings—curious, open eyed and filled with a desire not to miss a single detail.

"Detachments of the host of sightseers arrived an hour before the ceremony. Both sides of the street were lined with the eagerly curious.

"No finer night could have been chosen for the wedding. It was a typical June twilight when the wedding guests came out of the church, the first shadows of the night were beginning to fall. Despite the torrid day the night breeze ... the church was cool and comfortable and scarcely a fan was seen in the assemblage that filled the entire seating capacity of the noble stone edifice.

"The assemblage was noteworthy in its composition. There were present men and women who have worked in the Crane mills a life time, two score of fresh air children that the bride is entertaining at her Holiday farm just above the village, men and women of high rank in society, and men of business in the home town of the bride. There was no exclusiveness as to the assemblage.

COSTUME OF BRIDE.

"Perhaps a bride in this vicinity has never worn a more costly outfit. Her gown was exquisitely built of lustrous white satin with court train and appliqued with rare rose lace. The veil was caught to the forehead with a coronet of orange blossoms, without a single jewel. Her boquet was of fringed lilies of the valley and maiden hair ferns tied with white satin ribbon.

* * * *

CEREMONY PERFORMED.

"The groom met the bride at the place of the ceremony before the pulpit. He was accompanied by his best man, Rev Charles Edward Knowels, pastor of the First Baptist church of Flushing, Long Island. Rev Mr Johnson wore a long, black frock coat buttoned high, with round standing collar and white puffed scarf. The ushers were in evening dress.

"The formation of the wedding party took their positions before the pulpit was that of two halfcircles, the bride and groom completing the crescent formation. Rev George Wakeman Andrews, the pastor of the church, read the Episcopal wedding service, both bride and groom repeated the ceremony in voices distinctly audible in every part of the church. When the officiating clergyman said "Who gives this woman to this man?" the handsome mother of he bride stepped foward and placed the hand of her daughter in that of the groom. There was no music during the service. After the benediction there burst from the organ the ever familiar wedding march from Mendelssohn's setting to "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The bride bent foward to her maid of honor who released and parted her veil. Then she turned radiantly to her husband who kissed her heartily and the recessional procession was formed.

* * * *

"On leaving the church the bride and groom entered an open carriage and were driven down through the main street of the town. There was considerable applause as Rev and Mrs Johnson passed along the streets which were lined with sight seers. The act was a gracious one as many who were not bidden to the church wished to see the bride.

MR. AND MRS. JOHNSON.

About two years ago Mrs Johnson purchased the so-called James Smith farm on the road to Wahconah Falls and fitted it up as a home for the fresh air waifs who come from New York to Berkshire for a vacation. She calls the place "Holiday" cottage, and at her own expense shelters three or four parties of these indigent children during the summer. She visits them every day when possible, takes them out to drive on sunny afternoons and in every possible way gives them a good time.

Rev Herbert S Johnson is a native of McMinnville, Oregon. His father was president of the University of Oregon for 17 years. The son, Herbert Spencer, graduated from Harvard university in the class of 1891 and from Rochester Theological seminary in 1893. He was ordained in the fall of that year and immediately accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Pittsfield, remaining until last fall, when he received and accepted a call to the Warren avenue Baptist church of Boston.

* * * *

COLLATIONS AND PRESENTS.

"The collation was under the direction of a well-known New York caterer, who with a corps of waiters attended to this important part.

"Mrs Crane's boudoir had been set apart for the view of the wedding gifts and the display was made without cards. The collection was a fortune. Silver cabinets filled with table cutlery and spoons, two solid silver tea services, china of the rarest kind, cut glass, fine paintings, art works and all the gifts of such a happy occasion filled the entire room. The beauty and the costliness of the gifts was evident.

"What Mrs Crane and the family appreciated most in all the glittering array of gifts was the 10 $20 gold pieces that came from the congregation of the Warren avenue Baptist church of Boston, all the money being of the mintage of 1900. Coming as it did from the people where the groom is laboring its value was enhanced a hundred fold. It was the most touching and significant gift of all the collection.

"The bride's gift to the maid of honor and each of the bridesmaids was a pearl pin with a gold crown and crescent. The groom gave his best man and ushers each a gold stickpin with a single pearl.

* * * *

LEAVING HOME

"Amid the heartiest congratulations of the assembled guests, Rev and Mrs Johnson left Dalton for an extended wedding trip. Their itinerary includes a European tour, upon which they will start from New York next week Saturday on the steamship Lucania, of the American line. They will spend some time visiting the art galleries of Southern Italy, the Paris exposition, Germany and Switzerland. After the 20th of September they will be at home in Boston.

* * * *

GUESTS PRESENT.

"Among the guests present were Governor and Mrs W Murray Crane, of Boston"

THE SAWMILL

The Boilers Were Set Yesterday Other Machinery

WORK BEING PUSHED.

Daily Guard, June 28.

Every citizen of Eugene and Lane county will be glad to learn that the Eugene Lumber Co is pushing the work of rebuilding their new sawmill in this city. Yesterday the large boilers were placed in position. They came out of the fire uninjured. The lower floor is completed and the foreman today sent down a couple of truck loads of machinery that will be placed in position at once. The work of reconstructing the engines is being pushed and will be rushed until they are ready to be put to work.

The company's logs are being driven down the river and they will arrive at the mill site in July. It is expected that the mill will start up about Aug. 1st.

Messrs Hopkins, Crawford and Fuller are to be congratulated upon the energy they are displaying in rebuilding and should be upheld and liberally patronized by every citizen of Eugene

S P MOHAWK BRANCH

McKenzie Bridge About Finished-Natron Terminal May Be Abandoned for Wendling.

The McKenzie bridge on the Southern Pacific Mohawk branch was swung from the false work Wednesday, and will be ready for trains in a few days. This bridge is a single span steel bridge, being the only one of its kind on the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon. The grading on the road is nearing completion, it being estimated that about 15 day's work will complete it. The track laying gang, consisting of about 100 men, will arrive and commence work in a few days. It is thought that trains will be in operation to Wendling by August 15th.

A report is current that the Natron terminal will be abandoned, not using track east of the Mohawk junction. Instead, the trains will make their terminal at Wendling. This arrangement will leave Natron without train service. Those who know say the road from Springfield to Natron never paid operating expenses.

There are no news concerning a railroad bridge across the river at Springfield, but general opinion is to the effect that it will be several years before this bridge will be built.

Some Corrections.

TO THE EDITOR: Dear Sir. Will you kindly correct a few errors which appeared in my article "Early History of Lost Valley." The first settlement was begun in the fall of the year 1852 and not 53 (as appears) by William, Jonathan and Patsy Morgan, three brothers; not Wm Jonathan and Patsy Morgan. McDowell bought Jonathan Morgan's claim; D S Hunsaker, Wm Morgan's claim; and Thos Barbre, Pasty Morgan's. The battle ground was on or very near the site where James Parvin's house now stands and not James Parker's.

Very Respectfully,
THOMAS H HUNSAKER.

PLAYED OUT.

Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of impure blood. No matter how it became so, it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure Scrofulous or Syphilitic poisons, or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy and we sell every bottle on positivea guarantee. For sale by W L DeLano.

A Letter From James.

EUGENE, June 13.

DEAR MOLLIE;—Well, I got here all right and have got my "Ku-Kluck" bicycle. The conductor told me I had better buy the bicycle the first thing, as there's thieves in Eugene. The bicycle is a peach, and you bet the James gang will feel mighty sorry when they see me riding my fine bicycle right by their house. I didn't have any excitement coming over except when I went to take off my clothes on the sleeping car. There was a lady on the other side and I was so confounded scared of her seeing me that I spilled my money all over the car, and am $2.65 shy yet. The porter said it must have fallen on the steam pipe and melted, but I think he is a foolin; be kind of cheerful, for he was singin, "I couldn't stand it to see my baby lose" all the way to Eugene.

I've got $28 left and the hotel clerk has got my ticket, and I'm going out to see the sights. The people here are all right; not stuck up a bit. My train don't leave until midnight. I met a man here who knows most everybody in our neighborhood, and he is going to show me the town. I will have a whole lot to tell you when I get home I expect.

The Barker Gun Works is a caution. It's where they make biscycles.

Youse,

JAMES.

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my house hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price. G. H. WILSON, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co, Pa. This remedy is for sale by W. L. DeLano.
