THIS FALL ELECTIONS.

National and State Officers to Be Chosen.

All the states in the union now forty five in number, will choose presidential electors and members of congress on November 6, except Oregon, whose two congressman were chosen on June 4. All the territories will elect delegates on the same day and the following state elections will be held in November:

Colorado, to choose a successor to the present democratic governor and democratic-populist state officials.

Connecticut, to choose a whole state ticket. The present governor is a republican.

Delaware, a governor for four years in place of the democratic incumbent. There is no lieutenant governor in Delaware.

Idaho, a state ticket for four years.

Illinois, a state ticket for four years. The present republican governor of Illinois is not a candidate for re-election.

Indiana, a state ticket for four years.

Iowa, a secretary of state.

Kansas, a governor and state ticket for two years.

Kentucky, through the legal complications arising from the shooting of Senator Goebel, a governor in place of Beckham, the present governor, and a lieutenant governor in place of Beckham, promoted by Goebel's death to the governorship.

Massachusetts, a complete state ticket for one year.

Michigan, a state ticket for two years. The present governor is a populist and his associates in the administrations are republicans.

Missouri, a governor and state officers, over the election of whom there will be a hard fight. The term of office in Missouri is four years.

Montana, a governor and other state officers, now divided between the Clark and Daly factions of democrats.

Nebraska, which has a populist governor and a populist-democratic state administration, will fill all these places, besides choosing legislators, who will have the selection of two United States senators.

New Hampshire, in which a governor and state officers will be chosen.

New York, in which the governor, lieutenant governor and state officers, as well as both branches of the legislature, will be voted for.

North Carolina, in which a governor and state officers will be elected for the period of four years and a constitutional amendment to be submitted to the voters.

North Dakota, in which a governor and state officers will be voted for.

Ohio, in which the secretary of state will be the highest official voted for.

Pennsylvania, in which two congressmen at large will be chosen.

South Carolina, in which a complete state ticket will be elected for two years.

South Dakota, in which a governor and state officers will be chosen for a like period.

Tennessee, in which a governor, treasurer and auditor will be voted for. There is no lieutenant in Tennessee.

Texas, in which a whole state ticket is chosen.

Utah, in which a governor and state officers will be chosen. Utah has not had a state election since 1895.

Washington, in which a governor and state officers will be elected for four years. The present administration is populist.

West Virginia, in which a governor and state officers will be elected for a like period. The present administration of West Virginia is republican.

Wisconsin, in which a governor and state officers will be elected.

The states in which there will be no general election for state officers this year are Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, New Jersey and Virginia. The states which have already held their state elections are Rhode Island, which chose a governor and state officers in April; Louisiana, which holds its state election in the same month, and Oregon which voted in June.

NOT A REVEREND.

On one occasion a good lady had James Whitcomb Riley for a guest at dinner, with several other literary characters. His white necktie and serious countenance caused his hostess to imagine that he was a very devout man. So when the guests were seated at the table she said:

"Mr Riley, will you say grace?"

Riley trembled, and looked around at the guests.

"Is there no c-c-clergyman present?" he asked

"None, I believe," replied the lady.

"L-l-let us thank God, then," was the meek response, as Riley bowed reverently over his plate.

HENRY W. CORBETT.

PORTLAND, July 14.—(To the Editor.)—Previous to the recent acts of my political enemies, I had hesitated to become again a candidate for the United States senate. I now offer my services to the state in that capacity, pledging myself to fight for the best interests of the state with the same energy I use in fighting all blackmailing, all forms of repudiation, for the development of the Oriental trade, and for what ever will make Oregon and the Northwest great and prosperous.

H. W. CORBETT.

Albany Democrat: On account of the approach of the time when the result of the census will be known most of the cities of the state are claiming that considerable of their population is in the suburbs outside of the city limits and the city will not get the benefit. Salem and Eugene are particularly noticeable in the line. Albany might just as well make such a claim There is nothing like preparing for the small figures that will greet some of the towns that have been boasting so much.

Teachers' Institute.

The teachers' annual county institute will commence Monday, July 30, 1900, and continue five days, viz: July 30, 31, August 1, 2 and 3. All teachers holding either state or county certificates are required by law to attend the institute. There will be three instructors in attendance and every possible effort will be made to make the institute profitable and interesting.

W M MILLER,
County Superintendent.

Notice to Tax Payers.

1899 tax rolls will be closed August 15, 1900.

W. W. WITHERS.
Sheriff and Tax Collector
Lane County, Oregon.

ROBERTS CONFIRMED.—At a special meeting of the council last evening Elmer Roberts was unanimously confirmed as nightwatchman. Some were in favor of letting Nightwatchman Croner do the business alone during the summer, but the majority thought otherwise.

Abram S Hewitt, a prominent New York democrat, will not support Bryan. Of course not! Of course not!! He is a member of the big iron and steel trust.

Oregonian: Mrs M S Barker and daughters, the Misses Ensel and Mary, of Eugene, are visiting relatives in the city......Mr and Mrs E H Lauer have removed to their new residence, 968 Everett street, and will be at home first and third Tuesdays after August 1.

For the Seashore.

Newport and Yaquina Bay continues to offer for the summer vacation, greater variety of attractions than can be found at any other North Pacific resort. Excellent beaches and safe bathing, enticing rides and rambles good boating and fishing, clams, crabs and oysters for the gathering, and unequaled profusion of pebbles, shells and agates. Add to this cheerful and obliging hosts, who are providing at very reasonable rates homelike quarters, and most liberal fare. They won't let one get hungry at Newport.

It Has Never Failed

Mr. C. S. Peaslee, the well-known druggist of Morgan City, La., is highly thought of in his neighborhood because of his skill and care in filling prescriptions. The best physicians in the place send their patients to his store whenever they can. Anything which Mr. Peaslee may say can be depended upon absolutely. In a letter to W. H. Hooker & Co., New York City, proprietors of Acker's English Remedy, he says: "In all my many years' experience as a druggist, I have never handled a medicine of any nature that gave such complete satisfaction as Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. I have sold hundreds of bottles, and have yet to learn of a single case where it failed to cure. In croup, it acts with a certainty that is really marvelous. My wife does not take much stock in medicine, but she has absolute faith in Acker's English Remedy, always having it at her elbow in case the children are attacked by croup at night. It is a positively harmless remedy, as I can personally testify. I know of a little girl who accidentally drank a whole bottle. She was, of course, sick at her stomach for a short time, but the sickness passed away, and then the child was in better health than ever before. I can understand why Acker's English Remedy is so efficacious, because I am a druggist. It is not a mere expectorant but a strengthening, invigorating tonic as well. While it heals the irritation of the mucous membrane, it also builds up the constitution and purifies the blood. I endorse it absolutely."

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
