MISREPRESENTED.

Game Warden Quimby Says Complaint Is Caused by Jealousy.

Daily Telegram.

Game Warden Quimby says that the facts are misrepresented in a dispatch from Eugene stating that there is a wholesale slaughter of upland birds in progress. The deputy game warden at Eugene, Charles M. Kiesinger, has proved himself to be one of the most efficient and energetic men in the state of Oregon, and he would surely have stopped the slaughter of birds in Lane county. Last year Mr. Kiesinger secured the conviction of several parties for the unlawful killing of birds. He also took a long trip of 40 or 50 miles into the mountains and drove out a band of Warm Spring Indians who had been promiscuously shooting game birds out of season. Deputy Game

Warden Kiesinger arrested eight of them and brought them to Eugene. He was unable to secure a conviction however, as it was not known which of the Indians committed the act and sufficient evidence could not be secured.

It stopped the Indians from any further unlawful shooting, however.

Mr. Quimby also thinks the complaint is caused by a certain jealousy which has been several times before evident at Eugene. Instead of complaining in the papers the parties should have informed Deputy Kiesinger, of the degradations now going on, he thinks.

LI HUNG CHANG HELD.

Japanese Marines Are Fortifying Amoy--Pekin Not Retaken.

GOVERNMENT WAR REPORTS TAMPERED WITH.

Special to the GUARD.

SHANGHAI, August 28.—Kwang Hsu, emperor, Tsz Hsi An, dowager empress, and Prince Tuan, who recently escaped from Peking on the approach of the allied army, have safely reached Tai Yuan, and will remain there for a time.

LI HUNG CHANG HELD.

Special to the Guard.

PARIS, August 28.—The admiral in charge of the French fleet in Oriental waters, wires the government that he has detained Li Hung Chang on shipboard. His detention may be the means of more rapidly settling diplomatic matters.

JAPANESE AT AMOY.

Special to the Guard.

HONG KONG, August 28.—Advices received from Amoy, where the Japanese landed a large number of marines, contrary to the agreement with the powers, states that the Japanese are fortifying the city.

The move is ominous, as it portends an outbreak with the allied forces, and it remains to be seen what action the commanders of the various nations' troops will take in the premises.

RUSSIAN RUMOR DENIED.

Special to the Guard.

WASHINGTON, August 28.—The report sent out by Russian emissaries to the effect that the Chinese had succeeded in recapturing Peking, is stated by the war department to have no semblance of truth according to all reports received here. It is not believed.

TAMPERING WITH CABLES.

Special to the Guard.

WASHINGTON, August 28.—A meeting held today disclosed the fact that some of the cablegrams sent to this country, principally the war department, from China have been tampered with.

The cabinet and president are ordering a close investigation made of the matter, and it is not unlikely that some startling disclosures may soon be made.

One government official said that no duplicity would be forgiven in so serious a matter, and that severest penalties would be imposed, whether it fell at home or to other countries.

MATRON FOR SOLDIERS' HOME.

Special to the Guard.

SALEM, August 28.—Governor Geer has appointed Miss Emma Everatt, of Portland hospital, as matron of the soldiers' home at Roseburg, vice Miss Myra Murphy, who has tendered her resignation.

CAMPAIGN FUNDS.

A Story That Tammany Intends Carrying New York.

New York World, August 28.

Senator Hanna, Senator Platt and former Mayor Strong had a conference yesterday afternoon at National Committee headquarters. It lasted more than an hour. One of the questions discussed was how to carry New York state. Another was party finances.

Reports from up state had not been cheering. They told of apathy. Besides, Senator Hanna had been told that Mr. Crocker would try to wipe out the usual up state republican majority by giving Bryan 100,000 majority in New York City.

So authentic did this information appear that the chairman sent for Platt and Strong, who are on the advisory committee representing New York. The advice given to Senator Hanna seemed to afford him some satisfaction.

The slowness of business men in responding for calls for financial aid bothered the chairman and he talked about his "bear collection," both visitors believed that within the next few weeks, after summer heat had disappeared and when the state ticket was in the field, business men would begin to respond.

90 MILES AROUND.—Albany Democrat: "There is a possibility of a train running right from the terminus of the new Mohawk railroad in Eugene county to Albany over the Oregonian and Lebanon branch, bringing Albany into close business relationship to that big lumber section. Trains will be running to Wendling in two or three weeks. The town that is not connected by rail with Albany, the great railroad center, is not in it."

BORN.—Friday, August 24, 1900 to the wife of Mr. George Robinson, a son,

LUMBER CAPITALISTS HERE.

California Members of Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. Are on an Inspecting Trip.

Messrs G. X. Wendling, of San Francisco, and F. H. Buck, of Vacaville, California, arrived here this morning and will spend a week inspecting the properties of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, of which they are stockholders.

Since their last visit the company has greatly expanded its producing properties, and the output of its mills is more than trebled. The Coburg mill has been taken possession of and the big mill at Wendling has been erected, since that time. This shows the business acumen of the Messrs Booth and Kelly, resident managers of the company, and the success evidenced by their business ability is highly pleasing to the non-resident members.

This afternoon Messrs Wendling and Buck, in company with R. A. Booth, general manager, left for Coburg to inspect the mill at that place. They will also visit the mill at Saguaw and the new one at Wendling, looking over these properties as well as the various flumes, dams and other adjuncts of their property.

While here these gentlemen will also take occasion to look over the Mohawk branch of the Southern Pacific, which is being built to haul the product of their Wendling mill to the market.

Having Gay Time in Paris.

The following article concerning

Fayne Moore, nee Pet Strahan, appeared in the San Francisco Examiner under date of August 25: Fayne Moore, who came over to Paris from London recently, is having the gayest time of her life. She is accompanied frequently by Florence Crosby, formerly of the Casino theatre of New York. Fayne is very popular in the fast set here. She is dressing lavishly and it is said she does not have to wear the same dress twice. She and Miss Crosby dined last night at the Arme-nian Villa, a fashionable restaurant in the Bois de Boulogne, where many Americans with much money go. At a table near by sat Marquis de Roche-thulon, who ogled Fayne more than she liked, so she threw a bottle of champagne at his head. Then she grew more gracious and the Marquis was presented. They wasted no more bottles in target practice. The Marquis is the sole survivor of the Brittany family which furnished the hero of "Les Cloches de Corneville."

WILL HANG.

Gillespie Convicted of Murdering Mrs. Edson in Curry County.

CAUGHT AT COTTAGE GROVE.

Roseburg Review, August 27.

Prosecuting Attorney Brown and Attorney I. B. Riddle returned home to Roseburg Saturday evening from Gold Beach, Curry county, where they attended circuit court. City Marshal Dillard came around by Marshfield and has not yet returned, but is expected today. Judge Hamilton and family will not be home for several days, as the judge has decided to give the natives instruction in the art of bagging big game in the wilds of Curry county. The term of court was very short, and although the little coast county has but one session a year, there was only a single jury case, that of Coleman Gillespie, charged with the murder of Mrs. Edson, at Gold Beach.

This trial was briefer than was expected, occupying two days in all, Attorney Chase, of Coquille City, defending the prisoner. At the conclusion of the court's charge, the jury retired and twenty minutes later came in with a verdict of guilty. Judge Hamilton then sentenced the defendant to be hung on Friday, October 5th. Gillespie really had no defense, his evidence being that he and Charlie Strahn robbed Mrs. Edson's house and they got the pension check and money. When they left the house the body had not been murdered that day, and he did not hear of it until he reached Myrtle Creek. It was proven, however, that Strahn could not be implicated in the crime as he was confined in the county jail at the time it was committed.

Mrs. Edson, of Gold Beach, better known to the pioneers of the coast as Mrs. Christine Geisel, lived alone at Gold Beach in a very pleasant home, highly respected by all who knew her, and her circle of acquaintance was very wide. On Tuesday, Sept. 19, 1899, the mail carrier who passed her home discovered that the building had been burned, and an investigation resulted in the finding of the charred skeleton of Mrs. Edson lying across the springs of her bed. Circumstances pointed to murder for robbery, and suspicion was pointed at once to Coleman Gillespie, who belonged to an excellent family, but was himself wild and reckless in his acts. Soon after the murder Gillespie came to Myrtle Creek and stopped a few days with Mr. Carey and family of Curry county. While there he sold Mrs. Edson's pension check for $75 to Mr. C. O. White, and this check when presented in Roseburg to the First National Bank, gave the officers who were trailing Gillespie their first positive evidence of his guilt. A reward of $450 for the arrest of the murderer had been offered and Sheriff Jesse Turner, of Curry county, succeeded in locating him at Cottage Grove, on September 30th, where he was arrested. In the Roseburg jail he was put through a severe examination by District Attorney Brown and officials, and they succeeded ed in getting a partial confession from him. For safe keeping and partially from fear of violence at the hands of the determined citizens of Curry county, Gillespie was lodged in jail at Coquille City. From there he was taken by night to Gold Beach by Sheriff Walker and his deputies at the beginning of the present term of court and strongly guarded. Throughout the entire period of his confinement and trial the convicted man kept the greatest composure and attempted to look upon the whole affair as being a laughing matter. He is but a young man, probably not more than 21, has lived in Curry county during the greater portion of his life, and his mother and sister reside there. The husband of the murdered woman, John Geisel, and her three sons were murdered by the Indians on February 22, 1856, at their home a few miles north of Rogue river.)

The Hop Movement and Market

At New York—Anticipating a considerable shortage in the present crop, brewers are active in buying the '90 crop as well as old hops and prices are somewhat higher. There have been inquiries from London, which is unusual at this season, but no orders have so far resulted. The rains throughout the state last week were much needed and have been helpful to the crop which is in prime condition. There are no reports of rust, mold or lice. Reports from California indicate considerable decrease in the crop under last year.

Quotations at New York are as follows: N. Y. state and Pacific coast crop of '99 choice, 150@160, prime, 115@135, medium, 80@110, crop of '98, 5@95, old, 2@85, German crop of '98, 35@40.

NUREMBERG, Germany, Aug. 4.—In general the hop plant is rather weaker than last year and the crop of '99 will not be reached in any country. Plantations are in healthy condition. The red spider may increase and reduce the crop. This is the situation in Germany and Austria Hungary, but it is much worse in France and Belgium, and some loss for on a half the crop of last year in these countries. The crop of '99 is in brewers' hands and the trade is very insignificant. Brewers and merchants do not expect high prices, believing that the crop will be sufficient, but it is too early to prophesy. The U. S. will hold the key to future prices.

Cobleskill Scholastic Co. N. Y.—Growers are going out of the business. In '85 this county produced 35,000 bales, against 5,000 last year. Growers are inclined to hold their crop until October.—C. F.

Deruyter, Madison Co. N. Y.—There is a great decrease in the acreage over last year, and many growers are going out of business.—D. F. M.

Salem buyers were never so active at this season, and it is no uncommon thing for a grower to have half a dozen buyers visit his yard to buy his crop in the same day. The general offers are 10 and 11 cents, and it is reported that one grower near Salem has been offered 12 cents for his crop.

DEED.—C. C. Bowman, aged 11 years and 6 months, died yesterday at the family home in Springfield from typhoid fever. The funeral occurred the same day to the Springfield I. O. O. F. cemetery, Rev. Woolley officiating.
