FATAL LOGGING ACCIDENT.

James Holce Almost Instantly Killed at Fall Creek Logging Camp.

Daily Guard, October 17.

The R C Edwards logging camp on Fall creek, twenty miles easterly from Eugene, was the scene of a horrible accident yesterday, by which the life was almost instantly crushed out of James Holce.

Mr Holce was employed dragging logs to the banking place on the bank of the river. In banking logs they are hauled onto the bank, parallel with the river, one against the other, where they are allowed to remain until time for the "drive," when they are rolled into the stream.

Mr Holce was bringing a 24-foot log having a diameter of about 24 inches onto the bank, which was as near level as might be. He usually made the trip from the timber to the banking ground in about fifteen minutes and when he had been gone about an hour and a half the men in the timber became uneasy and followed the dragging trench to the river.

They found Holce prostrate on the ground at the river bank with the log across his neck, at a place in the log about ten feet from the small end. The dogs by which the horses pulled were still in the log, and the team was standing and hitched.

No one saw the accident, but the theory is advanced that as Holce swung into the banking place at an angle the swinging of the log caused it to roll, and he probably stumbled, or was not aware of the rolling log until caught. The log rolled over his legs and body across the neck where it was held from rolling further by his head.

Of course the unfortunate man hardly knew what hurt him, as a log of that size weighs not less than four thousand pounds.

When his fellow workers came they had no means by which the log could be lifted from the neck, and it was rolled back the way it came, the sound of crunching bones greeting their ears. Life was extinct, and no further injury or mutilation could result.

R C Edwards came down with the news last evening and accompanied Coroner Griffin to the scene of the accident this morning, where an inquest will be held today.

Holce was 35 years of age and leaves a wife and one child.

Must Have Cork Helmets.

Army officers were considerably surprised at reading dispatches of the sufferings of the American troops in China, from the heat on account of their hats. It was the belief that the regiments sent to China had been equipped with cork helmets and that their campaign hats had been discarded.

The heat of the sun is dangerous but over-heating of the digestive organs is more so. To overcome irritation and other stomach troubles there is nothing to equal Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. No matter how long you have suffered from constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles, the Bitters will cure you. It also creates a hearty appetite and is an excellent tonic for the nerves. Try it.

Salem Football Team.

Capital Journal.

The newly formed amateur athletic club held a meeting in the rooms in the Gray block, at which about thirty members were present. The membership of the club has now reached seventy and it is confidently expected that at least one hundred names will be enrolled by the last of this week.

Fifteen new sweaters have been ordered, with stockings to correspond, and furnish a uniform for the club.

Twenty members have agreed to get out and practice on the university campus every evening until the game with the Eugene team, which occurs on the 27th of this month, a week from next Saturday, after which the Eugene team goes to meet Berkeley and Stanford.

The Multnomah team wants to have the next game with Salem and Seattle has spoken for the one following. Both will be accommodated and the game with Seattle will probably take place about Christmas. It is expected that a practice game will be played with the Chemawa team next Saturday on the campus.

HOPS ADVANCING.

The English Demand Is Heavy for Her Crop Is Short.

Salem Journal, Oct. 17.

The hop dealers are the busiest people in Salem these days, and it is difficult to get a minute's conversation with one of them unless you are on business.

The hop growers are selling freely on the present market, which ranges from 12 to 15 cents, with an occasional sale at a better figure for a choice article.

There is a slight difference of opinion among the dealers, as to whether the growers are acting wisely in rushing their hops into the market as freely as they are doing at present.

From Squire Farrar we learn that a prominent feature of the market is the fact that the present buying is almost if not quite altogether for the English market. American consumers are not laying in any supplies at the present figures, and dealers who have no English connections are doing no business.

Among late sales, T A Livesley & Co took in 408 bales at Alvirne, Mill Creek and Dallas, at from 12 1/2 to 14 1/2.

The Emerson crop went at 14, Townsend's at 12 1/2, Cutworth's at 14 1/2, Johnston's at 14 1/2.

At the middle of the forenoon today Ed O Herron had bought 1034 bales since yesterday morning, including the following lots: Gilbert, Patterson and Coyle, 306 bales; Bayne Bros, 100 bales; E and J Schindler, 70 bales; H H Spaulding, 100 bales; John Auer, 181 bales; J J Finn, 124 bales; Chas Lemcke, 50 bales, and T J Graves, 103 bales. The price ranged from 14 to 15 cents.

WHAT IS IT?

Tangent Men May Have Found the "Missing Link."

Albany Democrat Oct. 17.

"J G Crawford and Orin Beam, of this city, have just dug up on the farm of George Cochran in Tangent precinct the skeleton, which may well cause inquiry as to their origin and whether or not they are those of the long sought missing skeleton. All the bones were secured and they will be articulated as soon as possible in order to show what kind of a creature they were once the frame of. They indicate a man of 4 feet, 8 inches, of large bones.

The skull lacks the usual sutures. It is 18 inches in circumference, four inches smaller than that of the average skull of the white man. The jaws are large and protruding and the teeth perfect. The vertebrae have an additional bone and a socket for a missing bone. The bones of the legs and feet are normal, like those of a man, but in the arms the radius and the ulna bones are about two inches longer than the humerus bone where they are generally considerably shorter, indicating an arm that reached considerably below the knees. The bones of the fingers are longer than those of a man. The skull is known as lophocephalon.

The skeleton is not that of an Indian, being distinctly different. What is it?"

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs George Long, of New Staileville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cold had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at W L DeLano's drug store.

PLAYED OUT.

Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of impure blood. No matter how it became so, it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Aker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure Scrofulous or Syphilitic poisons, or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. For sale by W L DeLano.

SENSATIONAL SUIT.—Ex-Sheriff George C Sears, of Portland files suit against Sheriff William Frazier to recover $18,000, being the amount of salary of the sheriff from July 2, 1896, to July 2, 1900. The basis of the action is that Mr Frazier was not a citizen when he was elected sheriff in June, 1896, and had no legal capacity to receive the votes cast for him, and that he, Sears, was wrongfully ousted from the office, and is entitled to all the compensation since. Mr Frazier came to the United States with his parents when he was 7 years old, and to Oregon when he was 14 years of age.

DEMOCRATIC ORATORS.—Among the democratic orators who have received assignments by the state committee are the following: E R Skipworth, John A Jeffrey, W F Butcher, J J Whitney, Dell Stuart, Ernest Kroener, C E S Wood, L E Cox, Thomas O'Day, A S Bennett, Sam White, M A Miller, Ed L Bryan, Francis Clarno, L A McMahon, B A Miller, W M Pierce, F V Holman and J A Burleigh.

For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating raspberries," says M E Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and had taken different medicines, but to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is available by W L DeLano.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D Williams, of Manchester, Mich, tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Chamberlain's Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by W L DeLano, druggist.
