Mrs. E. R. Hollenbeck.

Elizabeth Frances Hollenbeck, wife of E. R. Hollenbeck, died at her home a mile and a half west of Eugene, Sunday, December 16, 1900, aged 67 years, 1 month and 21 days, after an illness of about three months' duration, from dropsy and stomach troubles.

Elizabeth Frances Maiden was born near Little Rock, Arkansas, Oct. 17, 1833. She married E. R. Hollenbeck in Lexington, Scott County, Ind., in June, 1858, where they resided two years, then moved to Jefferson county, same state, in the fall of 1860. They moved to Nebraska March 1, 1881, residing in Lancaster county until the spring of 1886, when the family moved to Oregon, settling in Eugene, where they have continuously resided since. Mrs. Hollenbeck was the third child of a family of three girls and one boy, and before her death was the only surviving member of that family, her father and mother, brother and sisters having previously died, and no near relatives of the family are living.

The deceased lady was the mother of nine children, eight of whom are now living. Mrs. Flora Hristow having died on the 18th day of October, 1899. The children now living are: William B. of Florence; Mrs. May Tucker, of Portland; Henry F. James, Charles Louis, Margaret and Mrs. Florence Jenkins, all of Eugene.

The funeral services will occur tomorrow at the Christian church, conducted by Rev. E. C. Sanderson, and the remains will be interred in the Masonic cemetery.

Mrs. Hollenbeck was a consistent member of the Christian church and was loved by all who knew her. Her death will be mourned by a large circle of friends in Eugene and vicinity.

It is rumored that a gentleman in the western portion of the county will soon wed one of Eugene's best known young ladies.

This would make a total of 14,000 bushels. It is still estimated that the wheat receipts outstanding will show from 22,000 to 25,000 bushels. Garment papers were served on G. C. Millett, who has the wheat to charge last evening, by a deputy sheriff, in behalf of John Conner, who, it is said, Baber owes $1500 on a note.

MILITARY FOOTBALL

Co. C's Team Has Three Games Arranged For.

CO. A'S HARD LUCK.

Football is the main topic of conversation nowadays among the young men of the Eugene military companies. Since early in November teams have been organized in both Companies A and C and more or less training has been done, but until a few days since neither team has been able to arrange for a game. It was at first proposed to have a game between the two teams here, but Co. A admitted to its membership a number of the University players and Co. C refused to play them on that account because of the advantage in experience and knowledge of the game the admission of the University players to Co. A's ranks would give that team over Co. C's team. Co. A then sent a challenge to Co. G of Albany, for a game on Christmas day, and arrangements were almost completed for the contest, but Albany finally backed out, doubtless for the same reason as given by Co. C. Co. A has sent a challenge to a Corvallis team but it is not known at this time whether or not it will be accepted.

While Co. A is having such hard luck, Co. C is more fortunate and has three games definitely arranged for. Next Saturday they go to Cottage Grove to play with the Bohemia Football Club of that place, on Christmas day they play Co. G of Albany on Kincaid Field in this city, and on New Year's day a return game will be played at Albany. These games promise to be quite interesting. They are heavy men and are said to have considerable knowledge of football having among their number a few old players. Co. C's team is not so heavy, but what they lack in weight they expect to make up in swiftness and snappy playing. A return game will be arranged between these two teams. Little is known here of the Albany team, but it is understood it is composed of players from Albany college and Albany high school, and they are training hard for the coming contest. If Co. C expects to win, some hard and faithful practicing will have to be done between now and then. Under the coaching of O. F. Ford and other University players they are getting into pretty good trim however.

Gospel Meetings.

Revival meetings will be begun at the Christian church on Sunday, Dec. 30th, to continue indefinitely. One of the ablest evangelists on the Pacific Coast has been secured to assist the church and pastor in these meetings. All Christian people are invited to co-operate. It is the desire of the church to see large numbers of people turned to the Lord. We confidently expect it as this has been the result of former revivals held here. The music will be led by a large choir. The public cordially invited to attend.

THE U. O. MONTHLY.—The December issue of the U. O. Monthly has appeared. The frontispiece is a picture of the late Henry Villard. The leading article is a continuation of Prof. Glou's "Beowulf." O. B. Tont, '04 furnishes an original story. Prof. F. L. Washburn gives "A College Boy's Impressions of Athens," and Richard H. Thornton writes on "A College Journal of the Eighteenth Century." The issue contains the usual number of editorials, and under "Odd Sizes" are found a number of original productions of an excellence not often attained in college magazines.

LODGE ORGANIZED.—Fellows Lodge, No. 81, with 23 charter members, was organized at Drain Saturday night. The following officers were elected: C. P. Counts, C. C.; Walter Kent, V. C.; S. W. Collins, P.; Jno. Johnson, Jr., M. of A.; D. V. Kuykendall, K. of R. and S.; E. H. Wise, M. of F.; Wm. Roberts, M. of E.; J. W. Spaulding, M. at A.; Chas. Schapers I. G.; Frank Fegles, O. G. Grand keeper of records and seal; L. R. Stinson, had charge of the work of the institution, representing the grand chancellor.

MASONIC ELECTION.—Eugene Chapter, R. A. M., held its annual convention last night and elected the following new officers: S. M. Moran, H. P.; J. L. Page, K.; E. O. Potter, S.; J. F. LEG BROKEN.—Ben Lyons, while logging about two and one-half miles below Walton postoffice, on the Siuslaw road, had one of his legs broken just above the ankle yesterday, by a large chain breaking and being hurled against his leg. He was carried to his home, about two miles away, and the limb was set.

Wm. Mayer is quite sick at Bakersfield, Cal., so private dispatch states. It is rumored that a photographer of Boise City, Idaho, formerly of Eugene, will lead to the Hymenal altar a Salem school mistress, also a former resident of our city, during the holidays.

REAL ESTATE MATTERS.

Many Choice Tracts of Land Changing Hands.

CITY PROPERTY LOOKING UP.

Not for years has real estate been changing hands in Lane county so freely as it is now. A glance at the records of deeds filed at the court house will show that all the way from a dozen to 25 or 30 are filed every day and the number seems to be increasing.

This rush in real estate transfers is partly accounted for by the fact that Lane county is fast filling up with Eastern people, who, becoming tired of the constant failure of crops, the cyclones and blizzards of their own country, are flocking to Oregon where sunshine abounds and failure of crops is unknown, and a good per cent of them are settling in Lane county. These people as a rule have a small sum of money to invest in a home and as a result many desirable tracts of land have passed their hands recently, while those who are less fortunate in not possessing sufficient means to buy a home have taken advantage of the homestead law and built homes in the mountains which some day will be valuable and their children and children's children will enjoy the luxuries of property which are now denied them.

A good per centage of the land transfers consists of timber tracts. Almost every day some Eastern timber capitalist arrives in Eugene to look over Lane county's matchless forests of fir and pine and a large portion of the most valuable tracts are now in the hands of these men. During the last year the price of timber lands has almost doubled and those who have had the foresight to take up these lands under the timber land act are now reaping the benefit.

City property is also moving right along. Real estate dealers and agents report business in their line as being good and a considerable number of choice lots have recently been sold. One agent informed a GUARD reporter today that he has under way a $15,000 deal, the particulars of which however he is not at present at liberty to give. Prices of city property are constantly raising and it looks as if they will soon be what they were ten years ago or during the "boom" times.

TO BE MARRIED.—Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Flora G. Young, of Eugene, to Mr. Claude Eugene Copple, of Hood River, Oregon, on Tuesday morning, January 1st, 1901. The prospective bride is the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Young and Mr. Copple is a former student at the University. Their many friends in Eugene will be glad to hear of the announcement of their coming nuptials.
