The Trent Lumber Co will move their mill to Wendling where they have bought a millsite.
The new ferry boat is all right so long as we have Mr Bowen for ferryman. He has had a good deal of experience and should be retained.
G. M. Neet has returned from Kansas City where he was successfully treated for fistula.
James Howard, who has been sick for more than a year, passed down in a covered rig the other day on his way to Dr Russell's hospital for treatment.
Miss Haggard's term of school closes January 4th. An exhibition will be given that day.
The R. C. Edwards' logging camp is laying off until after the holidays.
E. E. Upmeyer, the Harrisburg sawmill man, was in this section last week looking after the sawlogs that R. C. Edwards is getting out for him. They aggregate three million feet, and are of the finest quality.
Messrs Hopkins and Fuller of the Eugene Lumber Company were here last week looking for sawlogs.
CHANGED HANDS.—The Manhattan saloon in this city, formerly conducted by W. J. Waddie, is now owned by his brother, J. A. Waddie, the well known traveling man, who arrived on this afternoon's train from the north to take possession. The saloon will be under the management of a local mixologist of ability. The saloons at Roseburg and Junction, owned by W. Waddie, have also passed into J. A. Waddie's hands.

THE POULTRY SHOW.

Second Day of the Big Exhibition.

THE PRIZE WINNERS.
Daily Guard December 29
The second day of the big poultry show was more largely attended than the first, crowds thronging the aisles in the old church building all day. Judge Browning and assistants have been hard at work listing the different fowls. There are so many fine specimens on exhibition that it has been a difficult task to decide which are the best.
