THE HALO.

"One London dealer in birds received, when the fashion was at its height, a single consignment of thirty-two thousand dead humming birds; and another received at one time thirty thousand aquatic birds, and three hundred thousand pairs of wings."

Think what a price to pay,
Faces so bright and gay,
Just for a hat!

Flowers unvisited, mornings unsung—
Sea-ranges bare of the wings that often swing—

Bared just for that!

Think of the others, too,
Others and mothers, too,
Bright-Eyes in hat!

Hear you no mother-groan floating in air?

Hear you no little moan, birdlings' despair,—

Somewhere, for that?

Caught 'mid some mother-work,
Torn by a hunter Turk,
Just for your hal!

Plenty of mother-hearts yet in the world,

All the more wings to tear, carefully twirled!

Women want that?

Oh, but the shame of it,
Oh, but the blame of it,
Price of a hat!

Just for a jaunty brightness the street!

This is your halo, O faces so sweet,—

Death, and for that!

—W C Gannett.

OUR LEGALIZED ROBBERIES

The rapid amassing of wealth through monopolies like the Standard Oil Company has a demoralizing effect upon the public conscience. There are plenty of ignorant and untrained minds reasoning thus—if Rockefeller has a right to amass $20,000,000 a year out of the necessities of the people, why shall not my necessities justify my robbing a bank or a railroad train? Armour with all his rectitude of character could not keep his subordinates from bribing legislatures, and corrupting those in authority over public affairs in cities and public institution. Bank robberies and crimes will increase until legalized robberies of the people are suspended by an educated public conscience and, as President Hadley says, politics ceases to be played as a game.

INDIAN BESTS CARNegie.

A detailed statement of Carnegie gifts places the amount at $24,904,865. Still this is not on so generous a scale as that pursued by Alaska Indians when they get in the generous mood and make a big "potlatch." Then the wealthy Indian, as wealth goes among that people, makes no reservation but gives it all.

As Carnegie is credited with being easily worth one hundred million he still has $76,095,135 with which to keep the wolf from the door. The Indian still holds front rank as a good giver.

Labor unions too often are unreasonable and exacting. An instance comes from Chicago. That city proposes to enlarge its brickyard to a capacity of eight million a year, half enough to supply city demands, whereupon "organized labor" objects. Must the prisoners be subjected to the wrong and torture of being kept idle, while all other industry is taxed for their support, just to make profitable employment for a few hundred men? Economy, humanity demand that convicts and inmates of houses of detention be given employment. The only question is about the kind of employment that will least interfere with free labor.

A Walla Walla court is trying to straighten out a domestic tangle. A few years ago Emma Clark, a widow with a grown daughter, married William L Brown. After two children were born the couple separated, and Brown married his stepdaughter, Susan Kotz. As the relations now stand, Mrs Brown is the present stepmother to her own half-brother and sister, and the wife of her own stepfather. The children are in doubt whether they are sister and brother of their half-sister. The husband is father-in-law of his ex-wife. He is not sure that he will prove to be his own father before the courts get through with him.

The new law makes coyote scalps worth two dollars each. The scalp must consist of the ears connected by a two inch strip of the skin that grew between them.

Nugget.

At the City council Monday night an ordinance was passed compelling vagrants and offenders to work the streets.

Billy Purman this week purchased the half interest of Wm Martin in the Exchange saloon. Mr and Mrs Martin left this week for Salem.

The old Bohemia hotel property has been leased from L Lurch by H D Hardy, a well known and successful hotel man of Port Townsend, Wash.

Mr Hardy took possession of the building Tuesday and immediately commenced renovating.

It is announced that a change in the ownership of the Griffin, Veatch Hardware Co, of this city, will take place this week. Harry Winne, a popular and well known business man of this city will purchase the Griffin interest.

The house has enjoyed a splendid patronage during its existence here, and the Nugget wishes the new firm unbonded success in the future.

Attention Comrades of G A R.

There will be a special day meeting of the J W Geary Post, No 7, G A R, on the fourth Saturday of each month at 2 o'clock p m, for the benefit of all comrades who cannot attend in the evenings of second and fourth Fridays of each month. Please let us have full attendance. We will meet in the barroom of Frank's hall, Ninth street, Eugene.

E F CHAPMAN,
Post Commander.

Attest: R A BARTLETT, Adj't.

Salem Statesman: The Eugene went up the river Saturday afternoon bringing down some logs for the Spaulding Logging company, of Newberg, to which firm she now belongs.

DR. WILLIAMS' INDIAN PILE OINTMENT

for cure and relief of Itching and Itching Piles.

It absorbs the humor always itching at, and acts as a positive give-private parts. Every box is warranted. Judge Cook of Mayville, Ky., says: "Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment cured me after years of suffering." Sold by druggists by mail on receipt of price. 50 cents and $1.00 per box.

THE TROTTING RECORD.

George K. 2:16%, is the fastest horse owned in Portland, Me.

Thomas W. Lawson won $1,410 in prizes at the New York horse show.

The mysterious Ohio "oil man" lost $3,500 on Praytell, 2:00%. He sold for $4,000.

Contralto, 2:10, the champion 4-year-old of 1900, goes to Europe; price, $6,500.

Among the 15 new 2:15 California trotters Dalmatian 2:10% at Santa Rosa July 5, is the fastest.

Ike Wilkes, 2:12%, is expected to sweep everything on the snow this winter at New Haven.

The largest winner among the trotters at the national horse show was Daredevil, who won a total of $900 in prizes.

John Scannell, the new owner of The Abbot, will have the champion prepared at the Village farm for a 2:00 record.

The number of new standard performers for 1900 and those that have reduced their records will foot up to a little over 3,500.

John McCullagh, New York state superintendent of elections, has purchased a farm near Goshen and will breed trotters there.

The largest individual winner at the New York horse show was Frederick C. Stevens, who carried away 21 prizes and a total of $1,940.

Sargent Burns (4), 2:24%, at Lancaster, Oct. 12, is a new performer for Dolly, dam of Mascot, Jr., 2:10%.

Stranger, who reduced his record from 2:17% to 2:12% at Lexington, brought $2,050 at auction and will be used on the New York raceway.—Horseman.

Pendleton East Oregonian: Our own ex-Senator George W McBride has been given a position on the St Louis exposition commission at a salary of $5000. Those who stand by the king will be stoned by those who have given little attention to the study of English."

Pendleton East Oregonian: Our own ex-Senator George W McBride has been given a position on the St Louis exposition commission at a salary of $5000. Those who stand by the king will be stoned by those who have given little attention to the study of English."

It will come as a surprise to many middle-aged and elderly persons to learn that the author of that famous declamatory composition, "Spartacus to the Gladiators," is just dead. It was written by Rev Elijah Kellogg of New York.

Mr Nation says Mrs Nation will stop crusading. As that lady has not announced any intention of retirement from the saloon smashing business we shall learn who really is boss in the Nation household.

The death of Harrison leaves but one living ex-president, Grover Cleveland. He is healthy, in fact has experienced enough political abuse, regardless of party, that he should be extra tough—a good risk yet for a life insurance company.

Russian ribbon belting is very much worn, since it not only encircles the waist, but the collar band as well.

Soft felt hats in very pale colors, trimmed with black velvet and flowers, are one of the new features of millinery.

Castor gloves are very fashionable for street wear, and then there are the heavy dressed kid gloves with pique stitched seams.

Bolero jackets of Irish lace edged with a narrow band of fur are worn over blouses of cream oriental satin, with skirts of cloth in palest gray or biscuit color.

One of the latest varieties of hats pins is an irregular shaped pearl set around with diamonds and filigree gold if it is genuine. But the imitation pearl set with rhinestones is a much cheaper edition.

Demand for the new art jewelry seems to be increasing. The gold is tinted to harmonize with whatever jewels are used, so the effect of color is charming. Belt buckles are especially desirable, but of course there is the usual variety of brooches and trinkets.

There seems to be no limit to the varied possibilities of tucks, and now we have them in fur, as if it were not expensive enough without doubling up in its value in that manner. Bretschwans is the one pelt which can be successfully manipulated in this way, but the plan adds very little if any to its beauty.—New York Sun.

STAGE GLINTS.

A one ring circus is a late feature of vaudeville.

Sarah Bernhardt gets $1,000, it is said, for every performance.

Joseph Ott, the comedian, who died recently, was the brother of Theresa Vaughan.

Charles Frohman has five different companies at present playing in the English provinces.

"The Two Orphans" is said to have had more performances in this country than any other play except "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

At Beerbohm Tree's London theater the length of the interval between acts and the time of its conclusion are placarded at the descent of the curtain.

A bloodhound in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at Brownsville, Ind., became so realistic in his acting that a man in the company had to be sent to a hospital and the beast to a grave.

"Riding to Win," a cycle racing sensational play, and "The Worst Woman in London" are two of the new pieces recently brought from the other side of the water for production here.

The authoritative ruling is that Quex in "The Gay Lord Quex" is pronounced Kwex, and not either Ex, Kay, Kux, Quex, Quic, Cue, Quix, Quex, Kiss, Squeak or Cakes.

The hero of "The Stowaway" tried to commit suicide at Oklahoma City, the heroine took an almost fatal dose of morphine by accident at Dodge, the villain disappeared just before a performance at Oakland, and the remainder the remainder of the company disbanded.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

There are no homeopathic physicians in the medical corps of either the army or the navy.

A novel sign has been exhibited by a London shoeshop. It runs thus: "If you like my work, tell your friends. If you don't like it, tell me."

An enterprising wine and spirit firm has engaged an aerostat to give a series of balloon ascensions in Ceylon and while ascending to drop small sample bottles of whisky attached to miniature parachutes.

DAILY GUARD, March 19.

A FRUITLESS TRIP.—Marshal Brady did not find the Stewart boy at Cottage Grove yesterday. The boy arrived in Eugene at the same moment Mr Brady left for the Grove to bring him back. John Holland brought him down on yesterday afternoon's train and the marshal of Cottage Grove failed to notify Marshal Brady of the fact. The boy was turned over to his father who took him to his home on Spencer creek.

For Malaria, Chills and Fever

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—it's superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.
