CIGAR DEALER IS ARRESTED. Nickel-in-the-Slot Machine Law to Be Tested in the Courts Immediately. Salem, April 17.—E E Nichols, who opened a cigar store in this city on Monday, was yesterday afternoon arrested by Sheriff F W Durbin, for running a nickel-in-the-slot machine, and was held for trial by City Recorder N J Judah, being released on his own recognizance. Nichols opened his store on Saturday, and announced that he would run a slot machine, by giving a 5-cent cigar for every nickel dropped into the device, in addition to the regular prizes. He did a large business from the start, and the arrest followed. It is generally understood this is to be a test case, and that all the cigar dealers and slot machine men backing Nichols in the venture and that it will go to the supreme court for the purpose of securing a decision of that tribunal on the constitutionality of the Proebstel nickel-in-the-slot machine bill. The outcome is awaited with interest.

ARRESTED AT ALBANY. Man Passed Worthless Check on Lane County Bank. Albany, April 18. A man was arrested at Albany this morning for passing a worthless check on the Lane County bank of this city at Junction the other day. The man gave J H Miller, the Junction liverrman, a check on the above named bank for $22, made payable to "James Grant" and signed by "Walter A Morse, Treas. D S Co." Mr Miller presented the check at the Junction bank and the bank officials sent it to Eugene for collection. There was found to be no money in the Lane County bank to the credit of Walter A Morse. The authorities down the valley were telephoned to arrest the man, and he was apprehended at Albany this morning. [Then why not change Willamette, Oak, Pearl, High, Mill, Patterson, Hilliard and Alder to Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler, Polk, Taylor, Fillmore, McKinley and Buchanan and then create more streets running north and south to fill out the list? Why not be consistent, Mr Skipworth, and name High street after a president and not "Mulligan"? And, again, it has not been the policy of the city to name the streets west of Willamette after the names of presidents. Olive and Charnelton streets were named along with Willamette, long before the residential streets were thought of and before Mr Skipworth was born, and so were most of those streets east of Willamette street. And again, why should "Jackson, Cleveland and Harrison" be selected from the long roll of names streets after. Where is McKinley and the great Garfield? What are they guilty of, Mr S?—EJ.]

Favors a Change. Daily Guard, April 18. EUGENE, Ore, April 18, 1901. To THE EDITOR:—In your editorial in yesterday's GUARD you seem to take umbrage at the proposed change of name, by the council, of Charnelton street to Jackson street. I wish to take issue with the utterances of the GUARD on the subject. In the first place I do not think many of the citizens are disgusted at the proposed change of name. In the second place there is no good reason why any body should be displeased, for Charnelton does not signify anything, it is not suggestive of Mulligan, upon whose donation stands a portion of Eugene. Thirdly, it is very evident it has always been the policy of the city to name the streets west of Willamette street for presidents of the United States, and the name of Jackson, one of the nation's very greatest presidents and historic characters has not yet been honored in the way proposed. The name of Jackson, along with Washington, Jefferson, Monroe, Polk and Lincoln is revered by all patriotic Americans. All the streets west of Willamette are named for presidents, save three—Olive, Charnelton and Lawrence. What do any of these names stand for, simply nothing; and further, they are oddities, and out of harmony with the policy of the city of naming streets in that locality of the city. It occurs that it would be altogether appropriate, and a proper thing to do, for the names of the three streets named, not named for one of the presidents, to be changed and named for Jackson, Cleveland and Harrison. Once more. If the city would honor Charnel Mulligan with the name of a street, let it change that "supreme" name High street to that of Mulligan. Or the council might with propriety change the name of either one or three or four other streets in the east end to Mulligan. In that case the name of Mulligan would be perpetuated and honored, but not by "Charnelton." ER SKI-WORTH.

THE EUGENE CREAMERY. Business Increasing Right Along --Excellent Butter. C M Elpass has the thank of the editor of the GUARD for a two-pound block of the excellent butter now being manufactured at his new creamery in this city. The article is of splendid flavor and is meeting with a ready sale. The city grocery stores are being supplied with it and out-of-town shipments are being made. Mr Elpass says that the amount of cream received at the creamery is increasing daily and next week a churning will be had every day. During the summer it is expected that the capacity of the creamery will be taxed to churn into butter all the cream which will be brought. Wagons are sent out each day to collect the cream and they return heavily loaded. As the business continues to grow more wagons will be added. The Eugene creamery is a permanent industry and deserves the liberal patronage of all.

NATIVE SONS PROTEST. Skinner's Cabin Against Proposed Change of Name of Charnelton Street. SPEAKS PLAINLY. TO THE HON MAYOR AND COMMON COUNCIL AND CITIZENS OF EUGENE: At a special meeting of Skinner's Cabin No 5 Oregon Native Sons, held on the 17th day of April, 1901, in the Odd Fellows hall, the undersigned, members of said order, were duly appointed as a committee to formulate and present a resolution or statement protesting against the proposed ordinance to change the name of Charnelton street to Jackson street in our city. In accordance with the unanimous request of the members of said order, we beg leave to submit the following: We earnestly protest against the proposed ordinance, changing the name of Charnelton street to Jackson street for the reasons, following: One of the primary purposes of the organization of the Order of Native Sons, is to preserve and perpetuate the memory of the pioneers of the state of Oregon; that "Charnelton" street in our city was so named in honor of Charnel Mulligan who was one of Oregon's early pioneers, and whose name is familiar to every pioneer in Lane county; that one half of the city of Eugene now stands on the donation land claim of Mr Mulligan, and more than one-half of the business houses of Eugene are built upon the 40 acres of land which this pioneer generously gave to the city of Eugene; Lane county has duly appreciated this gift from Mr Mulligan by honoring his memory by erecting a suitable monument over his grave. The city of Eugene more than 40 years ago, named one of its streets "Charnelton," in honor of Mr Charnel Mulligan, and this city owes to this pioneer the duty of perpetuating his name and memory in the name of "Charnelton" street. Aside from the foregoing facts there are other reasons for retaining the present name "Charnelton street." It was one of the first streets established in the city and is very generally known by its present name; also, many deeds to lots adjacent to this street make reference to the name "Charnelton street" in the descriptive parts of said deeds; also, in all maps and plats of public record, and in all insurance plats and books, etc, said street is designated as "Charnelton street." We therefore submit that there are many reasons for retaining the present name "Charnelton"; it is a duty which Eugene owes to a pioneer and benefactor, and we fail to see any valid reason for the substitution of another name, or that any good could possibly result from such change. Respectfully submitted, F M WILKINS, R M DAY, L L STEVENS, Committee.

ANOTHER NEW BUILDING. Hanson Bros. Will Erect a One-Story Brick on Ninth Street. Daily Guard, April 17. Ed Hanson, of the firm of Hanson Bros clothing, today informed a GUARD reporter that they will erect a one-story brick building on their lot between the Titus block and Ax Billy's department store on Ninth street, this summer, the work to begin in July. The two-story frame building on the lot, now occupied by Giltry & Whitaker, milliners, will be torn down and the new brick, which will be 25x30 feet in dimensions will take its place. The Messrs Hanson will continue to occupy their present quarters, the Matlock building at the corner of Eighth and Willamette streets, and will lease their new building to other parties.

A Life and Death Fight. Mr W A Hains, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $50 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat and lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00.
