THE "FACTS" AGAINST SCHLEY

The Schley court of inquiry has proved those damnable counts in the indictment against the old sea dog, says the East Oregonianthat he licked the Spanish fleet under Cervera; that he lost not one ship nor one man in so doing; that he exercised his own discretion, technically disobeying orders, and thereby insuring victory; that Sampson was not present at the battle of Santiago, arriving after the action ended; that Sohley said "damn the Texas," thereby injurings the feelings of a monstrous engine of naval war, that he was somewhat stirred up and slightly agitated at the prospect of a big fight, and did not lie in a hammock and smoke cigareties and allow the whole fighting business to take care of itself.

And the inquiry has revealed the fact that there was a splendid agreement among the commanders of the other vessels to keep from Schley all knowledge and information that would aid him in conducting the great naval battle. These damning revelations as to Schley should compel that he be drawn and quartered and hung up piecemeal at the yardarm of the Brooklyn, his flagship, and that Sampson, who wasn't there, be given the credit of the victory.

THE RANSOM PRECEDENT.

If the demand for the ransom for Miss Stone could be separated from the inevitable consequences there would be no haggling about terms. The sum of $110,000 would be raised as easily as the $56,000 which has been subscribed, if there could be any assurance that no other missionaries would fall into the trap which caught Miss Stone. The London Telegraph recently said that rather than set the precedent of paying a ransom the United States would "ask permission to bring a fleet through the Darelles to get at Bulgarian ports on the Black Sea," the guns of an American fleet on the Sultan's palace and demand the release of Miss Stone. The old Sultan knows pretty well what is going on in his dominions and can stop brigandage if he has good reasons for it.

WANAMAKER'S DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

Thomas B. Wanamakar, the son of John Wanamaker, the great dry goods merchant of New York and Philadelphia, has added a Sunday morning edition to the North American, a Philadelphia newspaper which it was claimed the elder Wanamaker bought for his son two years ago. When the son decided to put on a Sunday morning edition the father attempted to prevent it by buying up the stock of the paper-but utterly failed to obtain his ends-and so the first Sunday edition of the North American was published on the 20th day of September, 1901.

The son in making the announcement says: "My father's disapproval of any proposition for the publication of Sunday newspapers generally, and particularly one owned by his son, constitutes a difference of moral opinion which I profoundly regret. The responsibility for such publication, how-John Wallace labor on road disever, in the forum of conscience, as of law and fact, rests alone with myself." Chas Talifero labor on road dis-

Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription Doubles a Mother's Joys and Halves Her Sorrows.

It does this by a pre-natal pre-paration in which the mother finds herself growing stronger instead of weaker with each month. Instead of nausea and nervousness, there are healthy appetite, quiet nerves, and healthy appetite, quiet nerves, and refreshing sleep. The mind's content keeps pace with the body's comfort. There is no anxiety, no dread of the approaching time of travail. When the birth hour comes it is practically painless, the recovery is rapid, and the mother finds herself abundantly able to nurse her child.

'Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free of charge, and so obtain without cost the advice of a specialist in the diseases peculiar to women, All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Annie Blacker, 629 Catherine Street, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Your medicines have done wonders for me. For years my health was very poor; I had four miscarriages, but since taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' I have much better health, and now I have a fine healthy baby. I heve recommended your medicines to several of my friends and they have been benefited by them."
