A GREAT MEETING.

Immense Crowd Greeted Head Consul Northcott of M. W. A.

OTHER SPEAKERS.
Daily Guard, Oct 29.
Lieutenant Governor W. A. Northcott, of Illinois, head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, and other distinguished members of that order who were in Eugene yesterday were greeted by an immense throng at the armory last evening.
A platform had been improvised in the west end of the big hall and chairs placed on the floor, and every available seat was occupied by lodges and others to listen to the addresses of these men.

Eugene Camp, M. W. A., headed by the Fourth Regiment band, marched from their hall on East Ninth street to the armory in a body and other lodges also attended in large numbers. The interior of the auditorium was beautifully decorated with streamers of burning, the work of Neighbor John Kaufman.

At 8 o'clock the exercises began. On the platform were seated Head Consul Northcott, Senator N. Dresser, of Illinois; Head Clerk Dawes, Deputy Head Consul J. W. Simmons, Portland; State Consul C. G. Burkhardt, Albany; State Lecturer Geo. Byron, Roseburg; Hon. M. A. Miller, Lebanon; R. McMurphy, consul local camp, and press representatives.

After a selection by the band R. McMurphy made a short address of welcome. State Lecturer Byron then spoke and was followed by Hon. M. A. Miller. The band then played again and Head Clerk C. W. Haws addressed the meeting. Deputy Head Consul Simmons then spoke briefly and Mr. Northcott followed with the principal address of the evening.

All the addresses, especially those of Messrs. Northcott and Miller, were full of excellent thoughts and were highly appreciated by the audience. After Mr. Northcott's address the band played the closing selection and the audience dispersed.

A reception was given the visitors in the club rooms immediately after the exercises and a social dance followed, the floor having been cleared of the chairs.

SKETCH OF MR. NORTHCOTT.
Following is a brief sketch of Head Consul Northcott, showing the busy career of this great fraternal worker who has already had, while yet comparatively a young man.

"Hon. Wm. A. Northcott, of Greenville, Bond county, Illinois, was born in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, receiving his early education in the public schools of that state. He was admitted to the bar in 1877, and engaged in practice at once with good success. He removed to Illinois in 1879 and in 1880 was appointed supervisor of the census for the Seventeenth Illinois district by President Hayes. In 1882 he became an influential leader in the Republican party, and was nominated and elected state's attorney of Bond county. He was twice re-elected by increased majorities, and in 1890 retired from the office. Early in 1890 President Harrison appointed him a member of the board of visitors of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, where he was formerly a pupil, and to the graduating class of 1890 he delivered the oration for the board. In November, 1890, at the memorable session of the Head Camp of Modern Woodmen of America, in Springfield, Illinois, he was elected Head Consul, which position he has since continuously filled. In June 1894, he was given the nomination for Lieutenant Governor of Illinois, and in November was elected by a plurality of over one hundred and thirty-five thousand votes, and re-elected in 1900. "His life has been an unusually successful one. As to the great record he has made in directing the fortunes of the society of the Modern Woodmen of America, all neighbors are familiar. He has demonstrated the possession of marvelous executive ability and an organizer he has no superior in the fraternal or insurance world. Mr. Northcott is an able orator, and is in great demand at Woodmen gatherings and on the stump."

BONUS IS RAISED.

The $8300 for Woolen Mill Has Been Subscribed.

EXCELLENT WORK BY COMMITTEE.
Daily Guard, Oct 29.
Eugene will get H. D. Wagon's woolen mill.

The bonus committee late this afternoon authorized the GUARD to state to the public that the required $8300 bonus has been raised.

Mr. Wagon will be officially notified by telephone tonight of the success of the committee in raising the amount and it is expected that he will immediately come to Eugene to make arrangements to erect the necessary buildings for his mill.

Great credit is due the committee of enterprising citizens who have labored so earnestly and given a great deal of their valuable time in raising this amount to bring this splendid industry to our city. Those who have labored in this committee are: F. M. Wilkins, J. M. Shiley, J. M. Williams, M. L. Campbell, Councilman Mel Green, C. Frank and S. F. Kees. The newspapers of the city are also entitled to a great deal of credit. Whatever may have been their differences on other matters they have been united on this one.

Let it be announced to the public at large that Eugene is no mooseback town but on the contrary is made up entirely of enterprising and up-to-date people.

WOODBURN HOP SALES.

Total of 167 Bales Sold at 10 Cents and 10 1/4 Cents.

WOODBURN, Oct. 28.—Hop sales here Saturday were: O. L. Bartour to Neils & Co, 82 bales, 10 1/4 cents per pound; Charles McCormick to Neils & Co, 85 bales, at 10 cents per pound.

The Passing of Albany.

Lebanon Criticism: Springfield, Oregon, is apparently on the verge of the boomiest of booms. Boring for oil has already commenced, and fond hopes of gushers galore are entertained. The Southern Pacific here sent to California a bridge to span the Willamette at Springfield, after the erection of which it is said the through trains will come on this line rather than through Albany. When she is on simply a branch road of course she cannot expect to hold the county seat away out on the edge of the county. By that time Lebanon will have expanded so as to take in Tallman and so will be on the main line. Albany will have lost the chair factory and will have nothing left but the brewery, and Lebanon will be the metropolis of Linn county.

Daily Guard, Oct 29.
HAND BADLY CUT.—Katie Kelly, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Kelly, met with quite a severe accident yesterday evening at the family home on North Pearl street. She slipped and fell, striking her left hand on a lamp chimney. The chimney broke and cut a big gash in the palm of the hand, severing the tendon of the middle finger. Dr. W. L. Cheshire was called and, assisted by Dr. D. A. Paine, stitched the ends of the tendon together, a very difficult operation.

OF COURSE.—Roseburg Plasterer: Eugene is going to raise the $8,000 when mill bonus without any trouble in a few days, $7,287.50 having been subscribed. There is no more growing on that burg after all.

CZOLGOSZ ELECTROCUTED.

He Went to the Chair Unconfessed and Unrepentant.

BURIED AT AUBURN.
Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Leon Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, was electrocuted at 7:12:30 this morning.

THE JURY.
The jury that witnessed the execution of Czolgosz and returned the formal finding in his case was composed as follows:
Foreman, John P. Jaekel, Auburn; Ashley W. Cole, Albany; H. H. Bender, Albany; Charles R. Skinner, Albany; Geo. Weston, Norwich, N. Y.; D. L. Ingalls, Westfield; H. O. Ely, Binghampton; Chas. J. Wallace, Syracuse; Chas. R. Huntley, Buffalo; Dr. G. R. Trowbridge, Buffalo; Dr. W. A. Howe, Phelps, N. Y., and John A. Slescher, New York.

THE PHYSICIANS.
The physicians were: Dr. Carlos A. McDonald, of New York, and Dr. Gerin, of Auburn.
Other witnesses were: H. Bonesteel, Troy; W. D. Wolff, Rochester; C. F. Rattigan, Auburn; Geo. A. Peck, Auburn, N. Y.; W. N. Thayer, ex-warden of Dannemora prison, who assisted Warden Mead, and three newspaper correspondents.

Czolgosz passed a quiet night. He slept nearly all night. He awoke finally at 4:45 o'clock.
He suffered a slight nervous attack late today, but remained sullen and stole up to the time the prison closed at 10 o'clock. He refused to heed the words of the priests who came to urge spiritual preparation for death, and declined to re-embrace Roman Catholicism or to renounce anarchism. Czolgosz showed no strength of love for kin, nor did he turn to any of these higher considerations which ordinarily claim the thoughts of men occupying his position. He may have suffered untold torture, but outwardly he seemed sullen and indifferent. The state is not to surrender possession of his body, and by sundown it will have been secretly in ground controlled by the officials of Auburn prison.

BODY OF CZOLGOSZ.
"Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 28.—J. Warren Meade, Agent and Warden Auburn Prison: I hereby authorize you, as warden of Auburn prison, to dispose of the body of my brother, Leon Czolgosz, burying it in the cemetery attached to the prison, as provided by the law of the state of New York. This request is made upon the express understanding that no part of the remains will be given to any person or society, but the entire body will be buried in accordance with the law, in the cemetery attached to the prison."

PRISON SUPERINTENDENT'S STATEMENT.

SPECIAL TO THE GUARD.
AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The prison superintendent today made the following statement:
"The electrocution of Czolgosz was the most successful ever conducted in the state. Extraordinary care was taken by the warden, as he had received hundreds of threatening letters, many of them asserting the prisoner would never be placed in the electrical chair. It has been decided that for the present we will not destroy these letters. There may come a time when the list of letter writers would be valuable in running down anarchists. It was decided to bury the body of Czolgosz in the regular prison plot local cemetery. We will keep the grave guarded until quick lime, which will be placed around the body, shall have entirely destroyed it."
