SCHWAB OFFERS TO RESIGN

Morgan's Strictures on His Monte Carlo Gambling the Cause

SENTENCED MURDERERS ESCAPED. Special to the GUARD. PITTSBURG, Jan 30—Ed and Jack Biddle sentenced to hang for murder escaped from jail this morning. They shot one guard and locked the others in their cell, then made their escape.

OLD WORLD HORROR. Special to the Guard. VIENNA, Jan 30—A roof garden collapsed in this city today. The debris took fire and ten persons held prisoners were slowly burned to death.

BOERS SURPRISED. Special to the Guard. PRETORIA, Jan 30—A Boer laager at Poplar Grove was surprised by British troops this forenoon. Seventeen Boers were taken prisoners, including Field Cornet Grobslar, who afterward died of wounds.

WAR TAX REPEAL. Special to the Guard. WASHINGTON, Jan 30—The Ways and Means committee in the House today made a report recommending that all stamp and war taxes be repealed.

HUNGARIAN LABOR RIOTS. Special to the Guard. BUDA PESTH, Hungary, Jan 30—A large body of workmen are rioting. The enforced idleness through business stagnation has exhausted the means of many and drove them to desperation.

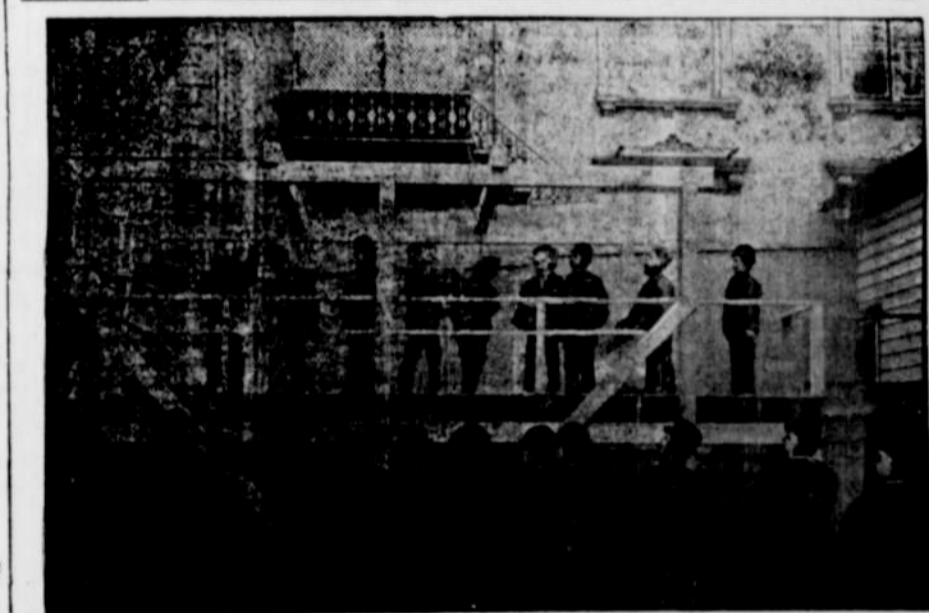

SCHWAB'S WAGES OF SIN. Special to the Guard. NEW YORK, Jan 30—President Schwab of the steel and iron trust has cabled an offer of resignation. This action on the part of Schwab is the direct outcome of his gambling at Monte Carlo a few days since when he received unenviable notoriety through large losses at the gambling table.

INSANE MAN CAPTURED. Special to the Guard. ROSEBURG, Jan 30—Elwood Chenoweth, insane from religious excitement, a recent escape from the Salem insane asylum, was recaptured here today. This is Chenoweth's second escape. He managed to get away from Sheriff Deering of Union County while that official was taking him to the asylum.

MURDERERS HANGED

Dalton and Wade Paid the Penalty This Morning.

COOL AND COLLECTED. Special to the Guard. PORTLAND, Jan 31.—Dalton and Wade were hanged this morning shortly after 8 o'clock, for killing Jim Morrow November 21, 1901. Both were cool and collected. Dalton made a speech and said he was saved by God. Wade made no remarks. Wade's body will be sent East, while Dalton's will go to the pauper's field. STORY OF THE CRIME. The crime for which Jack Wade and William Dalton today paid the death penalty was one of the most outrageous, unprovoked and cold blooded ever committed in Multnomah county or possibly in the entire state...

There has been some comment on the fact that two men were hanged for this crime. Lying in wait for one man and killing another constitutes murder in the first degree, the penalty of which is hanging. Whether Wade or Dalton were principal or accessory cuts small figure. Both are murderers instinctively. The law of Oregon as interpreted by the state circuit court for the fourth judicial district has sent to the gallows at least three murderers who shot and killed persons whom they were not 'laying for,' notably, Brown and Johnson in 1879 and Murray, the painter, some seven years later. The last hanging in Portland was nine or ten years ago, when Pello, an Indian, was hanged in the woodshed at the courthouse for the murder of another Indian on the Umatilla Reservation at Pendleton. It was a United States case and was tried in the United States court here. Baron was United States marshal at the time, and the hanging was conducted under his supervision. The execution was a complete success, there being no hitch in carrying out the order of the court. Pello took the affair stolidly, as with most Indians, although he had previously asked to be shot, saying that it was no disgrace to be shot, but a great disgrace to be hanged. His request could not of course be carried out, and the execution was conducted in the regularly prescribed form. Only 75 invitations were issued and the affair attracted comparatively little attention, the crime having been committed in Eastern Oregon, as the result of a quarrel the two Indians had. Hangings have been so scarce since then that people had almost come to believe there was no such thing possible. 'Nose Broken.—Ralph Robinson, while skating on the ice at Bangs' Park Tuesday, fell and broke his nose. He came to town and had it patched up and is getting along nicely. PAY FOR VETERANS.

Second Oregon Men Will Receive $21,899.77.

A SURPRISE TO THE BOYS. PORTLAND, Or, Jan 29.—Adjutant General Gantenbein, O N G, who returned today from Washington, D C, announces that the Second Oregon regiment will receive about $22,000 additional for their services in the Spanish war. The additional pay is for the period of their service between the date of assembly at the state rendezvous and the date of their muster into the United States service, and will be at the rate of $1.50 per day. The average amount will be about $15, for 1500 officers and men. [According to this, most of the members of Co C, 2nd Oregon, will receive pay for about 15 days, which at the rate of $1.50 per day for private would amount to $22.50.]

A BUSY MAN.

Sheriff Withers is kept on the jump serving subpoenas, etc. Sheriff Withers is a very busy man these days. He is kept constantly on the jump. The latter part of last week he was up in the Fall Creek country. Tuesday noon of this week he arrived home from the Gate Creek country on the upper McKenzie. He was over in Willamette precinct yesterday and this afternoon started for Blue River mines on a several days' trip, expecting to be back Sunday. These trips were all made for the purpose of serving subpoenas and other papers. Monday, after returning from the Blue River, the sheriff will start for Florence, via the Lake Creek country, to make a sale of some saw logs which have been levied upon. Mr Withers makes all his trips throughout the county on the hurricane deck of a cayuse. He wished to attend the hanging of Wade and Dalton at Portland tomorrow morning, but his urgent duties at present prevent him from doing so.

BIG DEMAND FOR TIMBER.

So Reports George H. Kelley, of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. Portland Telegram. George H Kelley, of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, owning the cream of the merchantable timber in the Willamette Valley and operating a half dozen sawmills of various outputs, is in the city conferring with Eastern capitalists in reference to a large deal. Mr Kelley reports that the demand for timber is increasing at such a rate that almost anything in the shape of timber land finds a ready market. Lands that his company purchased a few years ago now are worth three to four times as much as when purchased. Among the larger plants operated by the Booth-Kelly Company are those at Regisaw and Wealding.

Mrs. Carrie E. Vincent.

Mrs. Carrie E. Vincent, of Pleasant Hill, daughter of Mrs. Ella Bridges and wife of Harvey Vincent, died at her home at 8 o'clock a. m. January 27, 1902, of consumption, contracted a little over two years ago. She was born in Lane county on November 16, 1878, and was married June 3, 1900. Her husband took her east of the mountains in the fall of 1900 and stayed nearly a year, in hopes of her recovery; but the change of climate did but little good. She became a Christian about ten years ago and lived a consistent Christian, being a member of the Christian church at Pleasant Hill till her death. Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves a ten-months-old daughter and a large number of relatives and friends. The funeral took place from the church at Pleasant Hill on January 28th at 1 o'clock, and interment was made in the cemetery near that place. Rev. R. G. Gailson having charge of the service.
