

AN OBSEQUIOUS PRESIDENT

The President of the United States is not allowed to receive any gift from a foreign prince or potentate. However Prince Henry "in behalf of the Emperor" presented the President's daughter...

And the President himself tasted Emperor William, whose every act since coming to the throne has been in the line of absolutism and the divine right of kings...

Those who have the power of the emperor state to make to the throne in mind cannot but regard that our President has lowered not only his personal dignity but that of the great representative position he holds by obsequious attention to this prince...

STATE CARE OF NEGLECTED CHILDREN.

It is cheaper for the state to educate neglected children than to keep or imprison them in better years. Acting on this principle Illinois has founded a parental school in Chicago...

The rule is that all children who are found roaming on the streets and whose parents cannot, or will not, compel them to attend school are taken in charge by the officers and given a trial to show why they are not attending school...

ROUGH RIDER'S CHARGE TALK.

President Roosevelt's criticism of the "rough rider" should be supplemented with the designation of "Chase Walker" for his talk at the banquet of the royal German yacht club...

Now after the launching of the Presidential party and the Prince presented to the ball, where a luncheon had been prepared, the health of the Prince was frank and the Prince Henry said:

"On this occasion I wish to call for three healthy cheers for the President of the United States, Mr. Roosevelt. His is a healthy body."

"I call three cheers for the great who has already won our hearts, Henry of Prussia. Now a good one."

President Roosevelt's "His hip, hoony" was covered in the case of epidemic that gripped the call for cheer. Then the Prince and President shook hands warmly.

Portland struck at least, an opportunity. The rock created by city promoters for their recreation in Portland is believed in geologists. Then a white granite from Astoria and enough other sorts of rock to buy a pig-iron for horses...

"DOES MOTHER WANT ME?"

The little fellow has been with all his strength and the heavy work will bring to the door...

HE GOT THE RABBIT.

Practor Knott Tells an Old Story With a New Application.

Shortly after the bumper-bumper controversy began General J. Practor Knott, of Kentucky, who has achieved national fame as a wit...

Mr. Knott expressed himself as surprised that Knott was entitled to the credit. He no longer got the credit out of his mouth...

"Good, that takes a great load off my mind. Forty years ago while riding hunting with a boy companion...

THE CRUCIAL TEST.

Er—What do you consider the greatest test of a business man's confidence and love?

Er—Handing his pocketbook to his wife and starting to cry while she helps herself.

The storm of the last two days was general all over the Coast, California, especially in Oregon, the present rainfall being sufficient to insure a crop...

Just think of 25,000 acres of glacier and perpetual ice in one body and the water there treated miles of Eugene! That is the evidence made by the Geological Survey...

County Allowances.

Table listing county allowances for various departments and individuals, including names like H. A. Hanks, W. C. Brown, and various clerical positions.

June Items.

Table listing June items for various departments and individuals, including names like D. C. Matthews, J. H. Hedges, and various clerical positions.

CLASSIFIED COLUMN.

Section containing classified advertisements for various services, including real estate, legal notices, and business opportunities.

Advertisement for S. H. FRIENDLY, NEW SHIRT WAISTS. Features text: 'The Newest and Nobbiest the market affords. See window display.' and 'S. H. FRIENDLY'.

Advertisement for P. Frank & Son, A Model Grocery. Features text: 'The Latest in Shirt Waists' and 'P. Frank & Son'.

Advertisement for J. U. Green & Son, The Housefurnisher. Features text: 'The Best Goods. The Lowest Prices.' and 'J. U. Green & Son'.

Advertisement for W. T. GORDON, UNDERTAKER and FUNERAL DIRECTOR. Features text: 'The Best Goods. The Lowest Prices.' and 'W. T. GORDON'.

Advertisement for DAY & HENDERSON, School Directors. Features text: 'You Can Get' and 'DAY & HENDERSON'.

Advertisement for Pink Eye, featuring text: 'Stock Food will prevent and cure the Pink Eye.' and 'Preston & Hales'.

Advertisement for HEADACHE, featuring the image of a person's head and the text 'CASCARET'.

Advertisement for Eugene Radio Factory, featuring text: 'C. Schaefer & Co.' and 'Eugene Radio Factory'.