New Schools in Cuba.

Since the American occupation of Cuba 3,600 new schools have been opened, and many reforms have been brought about in their educational system. Some idea of their work can be obtained from their exhibit at the Pan-American exposition, for which they were awarded five gold and four silver medals. This is certainly a wonderful record and one we should all be proud of. There is also a wonderful record behind Hostetter's Stomach Bitter, the famous American remedy for indigestion, dyspepsia, flatulency, biliousness, nervousness and insomnia. If you are troubled with any of these ailments we would urge you to try it. It is also a splendid blood purifier and should be in every household. Our private stamp is over the neck of the bottle.

EUGENE'S POPULATION.

A House to House Count Gives the Number as 3,958.

NUMBER OF FAMILIES 949.

THE GUARD is under obligations to Mr O B Tout, compiler of the Eugene Directory, now in course of preparation, for some very interesting figures in regard to our population, more especially interesting as they have been gathered with the greatest care.

A house to house canvass was made by three canvassers, who divided the city into districts. Printed slips with blanks for the information sought were left at each residence in the forenoon of each day, then gathered in the afternoon of the same day. In case of an absent family the information was gained elsewhere, usually from the neighbors. The name, with initials, and occupation of each member of the family was taken, together with the house number. Business houses and hotels were taken in the same manner. No transient person was placed on the list. The census canvass was commenced Monday afternoon, March 17, and concluded Thursday, March 20. Here are the figures:

Total population	3,958
Females under 18 and males under 21	1,213
Number families	949
Number residences	879

In Fairmount, which is practically a part of the city, but just outside the corporation limits, the enumerators found 329 people which would swell the total to 4,287.

The government census of 1900, the last official census, did not give the city of Eugene a separate count as the enumeration was made by the voting precincts, North and South Eugene, the former extending west to Coyote creek, eight miles, and north to Irving precinct, three miles. The latter extending south six miles and east and west about nine miles. Here is that official census report:

North Eugene precinct, comprising part of Eugene City	1,674
South Eugene precinct, comprising part of Eugene City	1,562
Total for Eugene City, coextensive with North and South Eugene precincts	3,236

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs Chas Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind, "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, is grippes, bronchitis and throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at W L DeLano's drug store.

A TRAIN WRECK.—Last evening about 6 o'clock, the Mohawk branch train on its way down from Wendling, was derailed near Yarnell's. Two cars of lumber were pretty badly wrecked and considerable track was torn up. The track was patched up and the train reached Springfield very late. The wreck was caused by the spreading of the rails.

MONUMENTS ARRIVE.

Eighteen for the Spanish and Civil War Veteran Dead.

Daily Guard, March 20

On yesterday afternoon's freight train there arrived in Eugene 18 government headstones to be placed over the graves of the Spanish war veterans who are buried here and for a number of the dead veterans of the civil war.

There are fourteen for the latter and four for the former. However, the Lane County Veterans' Association ordered eight stones for the Spanish war veterans and it is not known why only four were sent. They are consigned to J W White and C C Kaufman, quartermasters of the G A R and Veterans' Association respectively, who will shortly arrange for setting them up.

The monuments came from the U S quartermaster's department at Washington, D C, and are furnished free for the graves of all men who participated in our country's wars. The monuments are of white marble, about four feet high, a little over a foot wide and the inscriptions are nicely designed.

Klamath Lake Snakes.

J P Rodgers, of Salem, is in possession of some photographs that even Neal Dow could not view without truthfully admitting he had seen snakes, says the Salem Journal. The pictures were taken by a party of visitors to Southern Oregon, and of which Mr Rodgers was a member, the trip having been made recently. The scene is at Klamath Lake, where, in places, suited to their propagation, are innumerable snakes. The reptiles are not at all venomous, but abound in the marshes of that section in countless numbers.

On the strength of the abundance of the reptiles, a medical manufacturing establishment is located there, where a preparation is made from the snakes that is extensively used for the treatment of rheumatism and other ailments. In the picture the snakes appear to almost completely cover the ground. They are most numerous at a sawmill site, where they are literally piled up in heaps on the slabwood, and are a horrible sight to behold.

A PRETTY ACT.—Capt John Spong, of the river steamer Pomona, who is a personal acquaintance of the GUARD's local editor, has a happy faculty of doing just such pretty little acts as told about in the following from the Albany Democrat: "Some Albany college students who recently returned from Salem on the Pomona think that boat has some of the most delightful officers in the world. A neat little act of the captain made a wonderful impression on them. While coming along the search light of the steamer revealed a young lamb which had fallen down an embankment to the edge of the water, where it was bound to eventually fall into the river. The boat was stopped and the lamb placed on the bank above, and then the search light was turned in that direction until the mother was found and the two united."

Strikes a Rich Find.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F J Green, of Lancaster, N H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did a more good than all the medicine I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by W L DeLano.

MARRIED.—Arthur S Woolley and Miss Addie M (Harrington) were married at the residence of Wm Brynd at Florence, March 16, Justice of the Peace C H Holden officiating.

You want a good clean bed when you stop over night in Eugene. New beds and newly papered and painted rooms at the Courthouse Lodging House. No old, dusty, worn-out carpets but clean painted floors with a nice bright Brussels carpet rug to each bed. Just back of the courthouse.
