RESIDENCE BURNED—L. CRUZAN

was so unfortunate as to lose his home in Lost Valley precinct by fire Saturday forenoon last about half past nine o'clock. The fire was discovered by his wife and daughters between the kitchen roof and ceiling, probably having caught from a defective stove-pipe. There was no fire. They first attempted to extinguish the fire but failed, then had little time in which to save household effects. They got out a few chairs and some bedding and clothing. Mr Cruzan's loss is about $500.

GOOD SALE—Robt Campbell

JOEL WARE.

Died After a Long Illness Sunday Morning.

FUNERAL TODAY.

Daily Guard June 16. Joel Ware, the honored citizen who has lived here many years and figured prominently in public life, died at his home, corner of East Fifth and Oak streets, in Eugene Sunday morning, June 15, at 3:30 o'clock, after having been confined to his bed for many months. The funeral was held at the residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and the remains were interred in the I O O F cemetery. Rev Dr D E Lovelidge, of the Episcopal church, conducted the services at the house, and the ceremonies at the cemetery were in charge of Spencer Butte Lodge, I O O F. A large number of friends of the deceased gentleman and of the family attended the funeral and followed the remains to the cemetery. Joel Ware was born in Mahoning county, Ohio, in 1832. In the spring of 1852 he started across the plains for California, reaching that state in September of that year. He began his life in the new country by bookkeeping and printing in the office of the Bee at Sacramento. He continued in the office until 1857. He then came by water to Oregon, and located at Eugene in 1858. He again engaged in the printing business and established a Republican paper called the People's Press. Severing his connection in 1861, he entered the surveyor-general's office as chief clerk, filling that position for nine years. In March, 1864, he entered into partnership with Harrison R Kincaid and established the Oregon State Journal, which is still being published by Mr Kincaid. In 1870 he was elected county clerk of Lane county on the Republican ticket, and though the county was Democratic at that time he was elected continuously and filled that position for 20 years, when in 1890, he refused further nomination. He then engaged in a land office business in homesteading and obtaining patents, and was U S commissioner several years until compelled to give up the business on account of illness, his daughter, Miss Marie, conducting his office for him since.

A FIRE AT THE DEPOT.

Daily Guard June 17. This afternoon at 2:10 o'clock as the south bound passenger train was standing at the depot, flames were seen to be pouring from a box car standing on the side track in front of S H Friendly's warehouse and loaded with excelsior from the Eugene Excelsior Works. The crowd at the depot rushed to the scene. Someone had presence of mind enough to slide the doors of the car shut, the crowd pushed the car away from the warehouse and his fire extinguishing apparatus was sent for. When the chemical engine and hose carts arrived the doors were thrown open and the flames soon extinguished. Nearly 12 tons of excelsior was destroyed. The car holds an even 12 tons, and it lacked only one wagon load of being full. W J Royce, of the excelsior factory, when seen by a reporter at the fire, stated that the loss on the excelsior would be about $50. The interior of the car was pretty badly burned and will probably have to be rebuilt. As to the origin of the fire, Section Foreman Strawn who was working near by, said he saw two little boys, well known about town, playing in the car and saw one of them strike a match and set fire to the excelsior and then run away. Before he could reach the car the flames were beyond control.

WON BY 256.—The complete official count of the votes at the recent election show that Chamberlain was elected governor by 256 votes. The total vote cast for him was 39,562 and for Furnish 39,566.

MORON CHOLEN.—An agent for a Portland bicycle house was in Eugene yesterday with two bicycle gasoline motors which attracted a great deal of attention on the streets, about as much as Ax Billy's locomobile did when it first arrived. The agent sold one of the motors to Chas. Craybill, of Medford, who is making the trip home, over 200 miles, with it.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock a Salem guard who is with the posse as a deputy sheriff shot Wm Morris a Vancouver painter who was with the posse, in the hip under the belief that he was firing at one of the escapes. It is an even chance that Morris will lose his leg, maybe his life.

TODAY'S SHOOTING.

Today another of the man-hunters was shot, but this time there is no doubt about the bullet coming from a rifle in the hands of one of the outlaws.

Two guards got sight of the convicts and opened fire on them. They returned the fire, shooting Frank Biesiecker through the shoulder. It is a dangerous wound.

AT THE UNIVERSITY.

Class Day Exercises on the Campus This Afternoon.

MUSICAL RECITAL LAST NIGHT.

Daily Guard, June 17. The annual commencement recital of the school of music was held in Villard Hall last evening, under the direction of Prof Nash and Miss Hansen, teachers of music at the University. The program as scheduled was as follows:

- Fourth Movement Second Symphony in D Major, Beethoven
- 1st Piano, Arthur Frazer, Halle Watson
- 2nd Piano, Hazel Bickers, Eda Goldsmith
- Quintet, Merry, Merry Are We, Comes
- Cora Wold, Nils Ostrander
- Rondo Capriccioso, Mendelssohn
- Helen Clark
- a Evening Song, b Melody, c Hunting Song, (For left hand alone)
- Camille Carroll
- Songs a Boreous, Godard
- b Oh Divine Redeemer, Gounod
- Mrs Mae Huff-Smith
- Impromptu on 14, Theme and Variations, Schubert
- Halle H Watson
- Butterflies, Schumann
- Hazel Bickers
- Songs a Syncope Song, Kjerulf
- b The Dana, Chadwick
- Lulu Renshaw
- Capriccio Brilliant, Mendelssohn
- Orchestral parts on second piano by Carrie M Ford.
- Arthur L Frazer
- Songs a Moonlight, b The Almond Tree, c Humility, Schumann
- Bertha R Templeton
- Overture to Fingals Cave, Mendelssohn
- Two Pianos, Eight Hands.

Each number was presented in an admirable manner and it is said that the recital as a whole was the most successful one ever given at the University. The instrumental pieces were a classic in composition and appropriately selected to emphasize the particular talent of each pupil. Mr Frazer displayed his usual brilliant technique in Capriccio Brilliant (Mendelssohn) which, it will be remembered, he played so successfully at the May Festival of Music with the Portland Symphony Orchestra. Miss Hazel Bickers should be congratulated on her interpretation of But erlies (Schumann) which consists of twelve miniatures of various moods. The opening and closing numbers brought hands very well played exhibiting strength of attack skill in shading. In the vocal parts Miss Lulu Renshaw sang most acceptably to the audience although the grade of songs was not so high as those of Miss Templeton. Owing to illness Mrs Mae Huff-Smith was unable to sing.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES.

Class day exercises were held on the campus this afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock. No class oration was given. Miss Irace Plummer, class poet, read the class poem entitled, Professor Union. The class presented to the University a life size photograph of Professor J W Johnson, the first president of the University. The gift was presented by Mr Oscar Gorrell.

MUSICK MINE TO RESUME.—Portland Telegram: R J Jennings, of the Helena and Musick mines, in the Bohemia district, who has just returned from his company's properties, reports that preparations are being made to start up the Musick mine at once.

A force of men is on the ground overhauling the machinery and otherwise preparing the way to the resumption of operations. The Musick was once a heavy producer, but the mill has been idle for several years by reason of the fact that the free-milling ore gave out. It is now proposed to work the refractory ore by the addition of some new machinery.

DOWN ON COLUMBIA.—Dr. C. H. Chapman, former president of the State University, has a long letter in Sunday's Oregonian on "Morality in Schools." The letter is dated at Woodland, Washington, a village of about two hundred population fifty miles down the river from Portland.
