

PHARISAISM.

A New York preacher already sees the starter of the promised millennium when the lion and the lamb may lie down together with-out the lamb being inside the lion.

The reverend apologist for national thievery accomplished by military murder, skips the looting of China by the powers—Russia particularly. Russia is an autocracy, and even the timeserver who claims to represent Him whose coming was heralded by the angelic psalm of "Peace on earth, good will to men," cannot but remain silent when contemplating the part Russia takes in "federating" the world, stealing land on the least excuse. Christ scourged the hypocrites from the temple. What would he do should he be come today?

HOW NOT TO FIND ESCAPED PRISONERS.

From Friday's Salem Statesman account of the "pursuit" of penitentiary escape: "The work of the pursuing forces yesterday was most arduous. The roads as the pursuit was carried into Clackamas county, were rough, the country searply settled, the timber and undergrowth thick, and movements, especially for organized troops, exceedingly difficult."

Just think of the unmitigated asininity displayed in marching troops through such a country in "pursuit" of two men whose lives are at stake! The pursuers seem to think that the men who are being hunted for their lives are traveling about on gagon roads. They will be found anywhere else than on a highway. And in such a country troops cannot but keep the road.

PUZZLING FEMININITY.

"Another odd thing about woman," said the gentle philosopher, stroking his long white beard, "is that she can grasp at a glance the meaning of the dotted lines, solid lines, and punched holes in a paper pattern, but when she tries to locate San Francisco on a railway map she looks for it somewhere between Chesapeake Bay and the coast of Maine. And even with two college diplomas to attest to her strong mentality she has never yet been able to understand a railway time-table."

The penitentiary escapes are thought to be in the vicinity of Vancouver. One of them, Merrill, spent his boyhood there, and his step-father and half-brother are residents of the military-post town. As it is a wooded country, much like the river bottoms about Eugene, their chances are good to keep hid from impertinent observation. And their ability to shoot straight tends to discourage a too close acquaintance.

Delegate Rodney, of New Mexico, has a constituent who went to Florida to spend some of the money he had made in a fortunate mining investment. A few days ago Mr. Rodney received a letter from his friend. The magnificent appointments of the hotel at Saint Augustine pleased the New Mexican mightily, but he was particularly impressed with the elegance of the bathroom, which contained a tub of polished marble. "It looks so fine," wrote the new Mexican, "that I can hardly wait for Saturday night."

They tell us everything has advanced in price. There is one exception—the subscription price of newspapers. They must remain the same, though the publisher must pay an advanced price for paper and other material used in publication.

The per capita circulation of the United States is now estimated at $28.54. It would be something more than that if the Morgans, Rockefellers, and others of that trust order did not have such big slices cornered.

A COUGAR STORY.

W. B. Scott, of Jasper, Killed a Large "Varmint."

W B Scott and wife, of near Jasper, paid the GUARD office a pleasant call last evening. Mr Scott told us of a big cougar he killed one day last week.

A Norwegian by the name of Benson was working in Mr Scott's potato patch when, upon looking up, he beheld a large cougar only a few feet away. At the first glance he thought it was a big hound but a second look convinced him that it was a ferocious "varmint" and forthwith made tracks for a big stump near by and climbed up on it. The animal then walked off and Benson ran to his house a short distance away. Mr Scott took his gun and dog and went to Benson's house and when he got there found the man badly frightened. He said that the brute had followed him all the way to the house and that he had got his gun and shot at it and that it had run away.

Mr Scott started out in the direction that Benson had said the cougar had gone and soon met him. They stared at each other a moment but it did not take long for Mr Scott to draw a bead on him and bring him down.

The animal was a big fellow, about 8 feet long.

Four Oaks News.

SPECIAL TO THE GUARD. FOUR OAKS, June 15.—The picnic Friday was a success. The school-house was beautifully decorated and the exercises were good, especially the music. The sither music by May Bailey was very sweet. The table was loaded with all manner of good things. Lemonade was free as water and there were fourteen gallons of ice cream. "Before the day was done it was all gone."

Will Mathews, our energetic clerk, has rustled up money and added to basket social fund and there is enough now to paint our school house.

Agnes Stevenson goes to Salem this week to visit her uncle, E P McCorkle.

Gus Smith is tired of batching and hopes his wife will soon come home. He is having lots of fun riding his new bike though.

Mrs Matthews who has been quite ill is able to be around again.

Joe Watson is building an addition to his house.

Charley Peterins has nine men at work on his fine new barn.

Donald Stevenson has gone to spend vacation with his uncle on the Stislaw.
