Now, old comrades, I am sure you will agree with me that after we have waited these many years for what is our just dues so long, that it is not right or just to pay any class of men when as I believe the government has made provision to see that we receive the same at a nominal cost. So let us wait patiently for a few days or weeks at most, at the same time watching our faithful newspapers (what should we be without them) for particulars as to this matter.

A NEW RAILROAD.

A Line Will Probably Come Over the McKenzie Route

AND ON TO THE SIALAW.
Col J. A. Straight who has been here from Washington City for over a month left this morning for the East. It will be remembered that Col Straight was accompanied here by Jas Archibald, a prominent and influential attorney of Scranton, Pennsylvania, and A. E. Fitch, a civil engineer of Casanova, New York. Messrs Straight, Archibald and Fitch made several trips up the McKenzie, to the Blue River mines and down to the mouth of the Sialaw. At the time they were here it was rumored that they were figuring on some new railroad enterprise, and the GUARD received it from authority that such was the case. It is now announced that Col Straight left this morning for the purpose of helping consummate arrangements for the beginning of operations on the new line.

It was impossible to gain any definite information from the above named gentlemen concerning the new enterprise further than that it is proposed to build from some connection in the Middle West, probably Salt Lake, across the mountains via the McKenzie route, through Eugene and thence to the mouth of the Sialaw, where, it is understood, the gentlemen bargained for terminal grounds worth $18,000 or $20,000.

It is said that the Goulds are back of the new road and are working for an outlet to the Pacific. The GUARD announced some time ago that the Goulds were figuring on building a road across the mountains via the Military wagon road route, but it has been reported that that route has been abandoned and the McKenzie route chosen instead. However, that part is mere rumor. Whichever way it comes Eugene will be on the line.

THE FOURTH AT CROW.

The Exercises There Drew a Good Crowd.

The Fourth of July picnic given at Crow by the Crow band was a success notwithstanding the rain. The exercises were held in the park a short distance from the Crow postoffice and were largely attended. The band played stirring patriotic airs during the day, and a good program was rendered. The speaker of the day was unable to attend, but the other exercises were carried out about according to the program, the little folks taking a prominent part. The declaration of independence was read in an admirable manner by Eugene Holland.

In the tug of war between Hadleyville and Crow, the latter won. In the baby show honors were evenly divided between the babies of Mrs Gates and Mrs Overton. The girls would not contest for the prize for the best looking young lady, but the prize for the homeliest man was divided between young Mr Gates and Jim Holland. A refreshment stand did business on the ground and the usual fireworks and bombs made the woods ring.

BRAKEMAN NOWELS DEAD.

Died as Result of Injuries Received at Marcola.

Word was received here this morning from Portland that J. G. Nowels, the S. P. brakeman who fell under the wheels of a freight car at Marcola on the morning of the 4th and had both legs so badly crushed below the knee that amputation was necessary, had died at the hospital Sunday evening about 8 o'clock, not being able to survive the shock of the operation. His wife was with him at the time of death.

THORNTON BILMIRE INSANE.—This morning at 10 o'clock Thornton Bilmire was examined by Drs L. W. Brown and F. E. Selover before County Judge H. K. Kincaid and pronounced insane. He was taken to the asylum at Salem this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Harry Bown and N. B. Lytle. Bilmire is aged 66 years and has a family of grown children. The cause of insanity is given as premature senility and this is his first attack, having been in his present condition for about a year. He is insane on religion. He says he has walked with Christ and has seen his father and mother and wife in a vision.

TRACEY AGAIN APPEARS

Shows up Again Near Seattle

Corn Prices Stay High

Tracey Near Seattle

SEATTLE, July 8.—Authentic reports are again received that Tracey, the escaped convict from the Oregon penitentiary, has been seen near Seattle. As is his custom he held up a family near Renton this morning and secured a good breakfast. He appeared fresh and in good spirits. The boat which he stole from farmer Johnson Friday night has been found where Tracey left it under a wharf.

Nothing has been heard, however, from Anderson, the hired man whom he took with him from Johnson's and it is generally believed he has been added to the list of victims of Tracey's rifle.

Record Prices Continue

CHICAGO, July 8.—The raise in corn which has been forced by the manipulation of the Gates-Harris combine holds the record for sudden advances, and phenomenal prices continue.

Battle With Horse thieves.

GUTHRIE, O. T. July 8.—A desperate battle occurred near here today between the sheriff's posse and a gang of horse thieves whom they were chasing. The sheriff and his men brought the gang to bay, when they turned and gave a desperate fight and made their escape.

Morgan Offers His Fleet.

LONDON, July 8.—J. Pierpont Morgan, who is the manager of the gigantic steamship combine, has offered to England his fleet in case of war. This is supposed to be a concession on account of the English lines entering the combine. The steamers of the combine would be of great value in case of war both as an auxiliary fleet and as carriers, and will add greatly to Great Britain's strength on the water.

JAKE KAUFFMAN.

The Police Judge Tries to Fine the Chief of Police—Policeman Gave up Their Stars.

Jake Kauffman, chief of police of Walla Walla, is well known in Eugene, being a brother of Chris and the Misses Kauffman of this city. The telegraph tells of a circumstance that happened in the police court of Walla Walla yesterday as follows: Walla Walla, Wash., July 7.—For fifteen minutes this evening there was no police force in the city. The chief was under arrest, and each officer rather than take charge of his former superior took off his star and turned it over to the police judge. To save law and order from a complete rout the mayor extended executive clemency to the chief. Then the force resumed its stars and took up again the discarded administration of the office. The trouble grew out of an altercation in the police court between Chief of Police Kauffman and Judge Glasford.

MARRIED.—At the home of Wm. Brund, at Florence, July 4, 1902, Samuel D. Conrad and Lula W. Whisman, Justice of the Peace C. H. Holden officiating.

BRICK BLOCK SOLD.

Mrs. Hovey Buys a Building From the Savings Bank.

PRICE PAID WAS $10,000.

The sale of the two-story brick building occupied by Loughmiller & Peier, hardware merchants, on Willamette street, and owned by the Eugene Loan & Savings bank, was made today by C. S. Farrow & Co., real estate dealers, to Mrs. Emily Hovey, the consideration being $10,000. The building is 28 feet, 8 inches wide by 114 feet long and is a good piece of property, splendidly situated for business. The upper story is divided off into office rooms which bring in a good rental, and the entire lower story is used by Loughmiller & Peier.

The north half of that block was purchased recently by Hampton Bros who, it is understood, will make extensive improvements in the same and it is probable that Mrs. Hovey will also improve her part of the block.

LEG AMPUTATED.

Geo. Goodall Undergoes Another Operation.

The condition of George Goodall, who has been confined in Good Samaritan Hospital for some weeks with an injured knee, has been growing worse and worse, until Saturday his leg had to be amputated, as the last hope of saving his life, says the Oregonian.

His trouble dates from last September, when he was confined with an injured knee. The trouble was not regarded as very serious and his knee was treated with various remedies, but grew worse and worse. About a month ago he was brought to the hospital and an operation performed, when he had a very close call, and it was with the most extreme measures that he was restored from the effects of the anesthetic, so weak had he become from his long suffering. The doctors hoped to save his leg, and the operation consisted of cutting into the knee and removing a part of the bones which had become tubercular. This, it was expected, would remove the cause of the trouble, but still the knee would not heal. Saturday the wound was again opened and an amputation was deemed necessary. He stood the operation in fine shape, and it is thought that he will soon recover.

Goodall has been for several years a student at the State University, and was a leader both in student ability and athletics. He was a member of last year's football team, for several years a member of the University track team, and one of the best debaters the University ever turned out. His sickness occurred shortly before the time that he was to graduate, and he was not able to complete his course. So highly was he regarded by his professors, however, that he was granted his diploma without an examination.

Prof Resler at Monmouth.

MONMOUTH, July 5.—President E. D. Resler, the newly elected head of the Normal School, arrived this week to familiarize himself with the field before the Fall work should commence. He seemed to be highly elated with the promises of the year's work ahead. President Resler leaves this week to take post-graduate work in the East.

FLYNN IS IMPROVING.

The many friends of E. J. Flynn, traveling freight agent of the Missouri Pacific, at present under treatment at Dr. Cox's sanitarium at Mount Tabor, will be pleased to hear that there are great hopes for his eventual recovery, says the Portland Journal. It is thought that at the present rate of progress he will be well again within the next three months. The rest and treatment he is receiving is most beneficial. Mr. Flynn is the young man who recently became unbalanced in mind at Cottage Grove. He is very popular. It is thought that now the strain to which he was subjected having been entirely removed, and which was due to overwork, or something of that kind, he will soon be restored to his normal condition. He is of a fine-strung nature, and he has always been most devoted to his work.

ANOTHER STOPPER MILL.—McMinnville Reporter: Geo. Kauffman returned home last week from the Blue River mine, where he is interested with Dr. Henri Kessler, of Portland. They have opened up three ledges and have struck out that runs from $10 to $500 to the ton. They are pushing development work along and getting ready for a ten stamp mill.

BORN.—In Eugene, July 6, 1902, to Mr and Mrs O. F. Cellison, a son.

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS.

Take Their Seats Today—The Old Ones.

Daily Guard July 7.
The two new county officers, Geo. F. Crow, treasurer, and Dr. C. B. King, coroner, formally took their positions today, and the old ones who were re-elected started in on a new term, their bonds having been filed and approved. Treasurer Crow, who is confined to his home by illness is represented in his office by his deputy, Frank Reiser, and the work is going on without interruption. There is no other change in the personnel of the force in the other offices, the old deputies all holding over.

BIG FARM SOLD.

The Old Osburn Ranch Bought by an Eastern Man.

Daily Guard July 8.
The old Osburn ranch of 1710 acres, south of the city, owned for the past year by Attorney Daniel Gabry, was sold late this afternoon by F. T. Plank & Co. to Sam'l Mannerud, from Brookings, S. D., for $18,500. The new owner will take charge of the place at once.

RELATIVES AT MEACHAM.

Grandma Munra's Descendants Gathered About Her at Log Cabin.

Pendleton, O., June 7: Meacham was the scene of quite a gathering Sunday when the major portion of the western relatives of Grandma Munra, of the Log Cabin dining station, gathered at her home up the mountain and indulged in a family reunion.

There was a surprising variety of relationship considering the size of the party, the gathering containing, namely only the relationships of the parties present to others in the assemblage: Three mothers, two grandmothers, one great grandmother, one grandfather, two fathers, eight grandchildren, three great grandchildren, one great aunt, one grand uncle, three nephews, two nieces, one grand nephew, four sons, one daughter, eight first cousins, nine second cousins, three third cousins, three husbands, three wives and three single young people. And with all this list there were but 12 relatives present.

NEW GOVERNMENT SURVEY.

Townships to Be Sectionized in Lane County.

Twenty-two townships are to be sectionized this summer along the line of the grant of the Oregon Central Military road across the Cascade forest reserve. The townships contain considerable valuable timber land, and the demand for the various tracts has impelled the wagon road company to make application for the survey, making a money deposit for the expense of the work, which is to be apportioned out to the United States deputy surveyors as follows:

A. L. Porter, of Norton, Or., will survey townships 19 S, R 2 E; 20 S, R 1, 2 and 3 E; 21 S, R 2 and 4 E; 22 S, R 3 and 4 E; 23 S, R 3 E.
L. E. Wilkes, of Hillsboro, will survey townships 23 S, R 4 and 5 E; 24 S, R 3 and 4 E.
H. C. Perkins, Fred Mench and A. M. Keating, of Grants Pass, will survey townships 24 S, R 5, 5 1/2 and 6; 25 S, R 5, 5 1/2 and 6. The work will begin as soon as the bonds of the bidders have been approved. The land lies along the Middle Fork of the Willamette river in Lane county.

A POSITION AT ASHLAND.—Prof G. W. Milam, of this city, has accepted a position in the Ashland state normal school and will leave for that place this week. He will pursue a course of study in connection with his work.

THE ENCAMPMENT.

TO CATCH TRACEY.

Wallace Chamberlain, the Trapper and Hunter, Will Join in the Chase.

Wallace Chamberlain, the well known trapper and hunter of this city, left yesterday on the afternoon train for points north. It is said that before his departure he confided to an intimate friend that he was going to the Puget Sound country to join in the chase after Tracey, the daring and murderous outlaw, and try and bring back to Eugene the $5000 reward which is now hanging over Tracey's head for his capture dead or alive.

Those who know Chamberlain best assert that he will come as near getting his man as any one, as he is a sure shot, has plenty of nerve and knows no fear. He has spent weeks and months alone in the mountains, has had many close encounters with fierce animals and has always come out on top. He will not be afraid to follow Tracey and if it should come to a hand-to-hand conflict between the two, it will be a battle royal, as both are strong and determined and would never give up.

SHOULDER DISLOCATED.—Jesse K. Flint, of Portland, formerly a well known Eugene boy, is in the city. He is carrying his left arm in a sling, having dislocated his shoulder while scuffling with his brother near Junction Saturday. He fell and his brother fell on top of him with such force as to cause a dislocation.
