Oregon Pacer Pathmont.

Former Eugene Horse Wins Race at Detroit.

Oregonian: Pathmont, one of Altmont's first 2:10 performers, formerly owned by H. B. Miller, of Eugene, now an American consul in China, has apparently come to life again. But little has been heard of the pacer since he was sold to Ontario, Canada, parties, but last week he distinguished himself at Detroit by taking the fastest heat in the 2:09 p. m. and finishing second in four other heats. The time for the five heats was 2:12 1/4, 2:11 1/4, 2:13 1/4, 2:10 1/4 and 2:14 1/4.

Pathmont at one time had the reputation of being a quitter, but there is nothing in the time of his race that would indicate anything like quitting, especially when it is considered that it is the first of the season and the horses are hardly warmed up yet.

THE COOS BAY ROAD

Daily Guard July 17

WILL DEVELOP A COUNTRY RICH IN RESOURCES.
The Portland Journal of yesterday speaks editorially as follows concerning the proposed new railroad from Coos Bay through Eugene Oregon via Eugene:
Whatever may be the real financial force behind the Coos Bay railroad project that has been launched in this city, it cannot be denied that it holds great possibilities for Portland and Oregon. It will develop a region of which the people know very little. It will bring into operation industries that otherwise would remain as mere potentialities. It will contribute materially to the wonderful growth that is certain to take place during the coming decade.
L. D. Kinney, J. Thorburn Ross and other gentlemen who are associated with them are entitled to a vote of thanks and confidence from the people of this community for that they propose to create an enterprise that promises so much to the commonwealth.

TIMBER AND MINES.
The Coos Bay country is great in possibilities. It has enormous resources. It has a fine harbor, one of the best on the coast. It has large timber supplies. There are minerals contiguous. Agriculture and dairying and stockraising there under the stimulus of the proposed road. People will go there to live. Homes will be built. Immigration will be attracted from the East. There will be development where there has been stagnation and only latent possibilities. The Coos Bay road will accomplish these things and therefore those who have formed the plans and who propose to carry them out are deserving of the appreciative support of all who live in this portion of the Pacific Coast.

WILL BE HERE TONIGHT.

Immigration Men Will Confer With Citizens of Eugene.

J. S. STILES FOR IMMIGRATION AGENT.
Daily Guard July 17.
In view of the visit of W. E. Coman, general passenger and freight agent of the S. P. lines in Oregon, Immigration Agent Geo. McKinney of the Harriman lines and party of a dozen or so of other prominent railroad men, to be special to Eugene this evening, their special train being scheduled to arrive from the southern part of the state about 7 o'clock, the real estate men held a meeting at 11 o'clock this forenoon in Svarverud & Fisher's office, Mr. Svarverud acting as chairman.

The purpose of the meeting was to endorse someone for the position of immigration agent, to be appointed by the agents of the Harriman lines, and who will be stationed in the East to distribute literature and do other work to advertise this section of the country. J. S. Stiles was the unanimous choice of the meeting, and he will be endorsed for the position.

MEETING OF CITIZENS TONIGHT.
The party will be met at the train this evening by a delegation of citizens with carriages and will immediately be driven over the city. They will be shown the University and public school buildings, will be taken through the manufacturing and residence districts, and at 8 o'clock will be given an informal reception at the Commercial Club rooms in the armory. All business men, whether members of the club or not, are invited to attend the meeting.

NEW FACTORY BUILDING.

Brown & Smith Putting Up Their Fence and Basket Works.

Brown & Smith, recently from Salem, today commenced the erection of a building 18x24 feet on Park street near the Journal office, for their fence and basket works, they having leased a portion of the lot just west of the alley alongside the Journal office.

Chas. E. Brown, of the firm, when seen by a GUARD reporter this morning stated that they will be ready for business next week or as soon as their building is completed.

The new factory will make several kinds of wire fencing also hop baskets. The fencing is always in demand, and the hop baskets no doubt will sell well as they will be a great convenience to the hundreds who go to the hop yards in this vicinity each year.

OFFFORENCAMPMENT

Daily Guard, July 17

WENT TO ALBAAY TODAY.
The Eugene division of the Oregon National Guard left on this afternoon's train for Albany to assemble in brigade camp at Camp Williams for eight days, from July 17 to 24. The camp will be under the command of General Chas. F. Beebe. The local division that left today were Col. G. O. Yoran and staff, consisting of Capt. D. E. Yoran, adjutant, Capt. F. L. Chambers, quartermaster, C. C. Kauffman, I. R. F., and Q. M. Sgt. Walter Ross, the Fourth Regiment Band, composed of 21 pieces; Company A, 38 men under Captain R. S. Huston and Company C, 40 men under Captain J. M. Williams. Companies A and C and the band assembled at the armory at 1:20 o'clock and marched to the depot and boarded their cars. On the same train were Co. B, of Ashland; Co. H, of Grants Pass, and Co. E, of Roseburg. Many of the friends of the boys were at the station to see them off.

OVER A HUNDRED STRONG.
The annual encampment of the National Guard is an event of considerable interest in all parts of the state, and, as all know, the object of the assemblage is to train and instruct in military tactics and give the men a taste of actual camp life. And, too, from a financial standpoint, the boys do not put in their time for nothing--$1.50 for every day at the camp.

The State Guard is at present composed of the following: The Third Regiment, stationed at Portland and Oregon City; the Fourth Regiment, distributed at Salem, Albany, Woodburn, Eugene, Roseburg, Ashland and Grants Pass; the First Separate Battalion, composed of three companies and stationed in Eastern Oregon; Battery A, at Portland, and Troop A, at Lebanon. A battery of the Seventh Artillery of Vancouver Barracks will also go into camp with the National Guard.

SACKS ARE AWAY UP.

Eight Cents a Piece is the Price Now Asked.

Pennington East Oregonian.
Eight cents a piece for sacks!
This is the price the farmers are compelled to pay for sacks in which to put their 1902 wheat and barley crops, and is the highest figure asked for them for several years. The price started at 7 cents a few weeks ago and immediately after the dealers found that there would be immense crops all over the country the price was advanced to 8 cents.

In speaking of the raise E. W. McComas, representing the Northwestern Warehouse Co., said that there was apparently no reason for the raise more than that the sacks were in a combine and the dealers found they could get 8 cents as easy as 7.

The farmers have to have sacks and if they were
