HOP CONDITIONS IN OREGON

Phillip Nels, a veteran hop grower and buyer of the coast, has returned to Portland after a very extensive inspection of the hopyards of the coast.

Yesterday Mr Nels was inspecting the yards near Aurora, Champoeg and Butteville and said of his observations: "The appearance of the yards in this vicinity are rather disappointing to me. I thought at the outset of the season that the state of Oregon would raise a larger crop of hops this season than last year.

"If the weather stays as it is at present we will probably have a fair supply, but if it turns hot or the rains set in before the crop is harvested, I look for a very light crop.

"There has been some talk in the papers of the possibility of the growers having to pay 50 cents a box for picking this season. I don't think it will be possible for them to do so if they want to make any money. About three-fourths of the growers who have contracted their crop this season have done so at prices ranging from 9 to 12 cents a pound. Only a few of the contracts were made at higher figures and they have been made lately."

Road Contract Let.

Daily Guard Aug 6

The county commissioners' court, in session today, let the contract of improving a part of the McKenzie road, money for which was partly appropriated by the county and partly raised by private subscriptions, to Chas F Croner, the well known Eugene teamster.

Mr Croner's bid was 75 cents per yard and the work to be done is as follows:

First—On the road from High Banks to Thurston, dirt work and gravel, all holes in middle of road to be filled, stumps to be taken out and gravel two rows wide where necessary, and all patch work on that part of the road.

Second—From Hendricks Ferry to the Barney Wood Hill, to be fixed in like manner as above.

Mr Croner will commence the work in a short time. He is required to finish the work by the 10th of October.

RECORD OF HARRY TRACY

Career of the Fugitive Before He Came to Oregon.

Was Wanted in Utah and Colorado for Murder, Robbery and Horse Stealing.

Tracy's career since his arrest and conviction for burglary in Portland is well known. He was sent to the Salem penitentiary with David Merrill, whom he killed near Chehalis.

TRACY'S TWO WIVES.

Tracy's family affairs seem to be somewhat mixed up as there are two women who claim him for their husband. One is Mollie Robinson, half sister of Dave Merrill, who escaped with Tracy. She lives in Portland. She is the properly accredited wife of the desperado in this country, as she is known to have been married to him and lived with him in various towns of the West.

The other is a woman in Chicago, calling herself Mrs Minnie Tracy, and claiming to have been married to the convict in 1893. She declares that she understands that Tracy has since been married to another woman but that she holds her marriage certificate and can prove her wifehood. It is believed in Portland that the writer from Chicago is some girl who is seeking notoriety.

TRACY'S RECORD OF JAIL BREAKS.

Harry Tracy's record of jail breaks is one which is extraordinary and shows him to be a dare-devil of the most venturesome type while his universal success in obtaining arms while in prison and getting away when the attempt was made makes it almost as though "Old Nick" himself had condescended to assist his foster child.

ESCAPED FROM UTAH PEN.

In 1897 the desperado was sent to the Utah penitentiary to serve a term of one year for burglary. After two months in the prison he escaped one morning with three other convicts. While working with the other men he enticed the guard near on the pretense of having broken his shovel. Then when the officer was too close to operate his short barreled shotgun Tracy suddenly covered him with a pistol, forcing him to exchange clothes, marched the squad out of sight of the prison and fled with the other convicts none of whom were ever recaptured.

MURDER IN COLORADO.

On the way across the country in his flight from Utah Tracy stole a horse and buggy and escaped to Colorado, where he quarreled with a young ranchman and killed him.

For this crime he was arrested by Colorado officers and placed in jail, but escaped after beating three guards into insensibility. He was recaptured, but escaped again in two weeks after almost killing a guard by clubbing him on the head. From that time nothing was heard from him until he became notorious in Oregon.

THE HOLE-IN-THE-WALL GANG.

Tracy was also wanted in Colorado to answer charges of murder, robbery and horse stealing. He was about to be tried for the murder of Valentine Hoye, a wealthy cattleman of Rout county, when he bound and gagged the sheriff at Aspen, Col, obtained his liberty and left for Oregon. Tracy was a leader in the once notorious Hole-in-the-Wall gang of outlaws that infested the northwestern corner of Rout county, near the Utah and Wyoming lines.

VERY PRETTY HOME WEDDING

Mr. W. Gilbert Beattie and Miss Willametta Hanna United in Marriage.

Daily Guard Aug 7.

One of the prettiest and simplest home weddings of the season took place this morning at the home of the bride' parents, Mr and Mrs Calvin Hanna at 650 Hilyard street, when Miss Willa Hanna became the wife of W Gilbert Beattie.

Promptly at eleven o'clock, Miss Winnifred Smith set forth the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, announcing the entrance of the bridal pair. They were preceded by two little girls, Esther Humphrey and Grace Hovenden, each dressed in pure white. The ceremony was performed by Rev Chas F Woodward, of the First Presbyterian church.

The bride's costume was white silk organdie and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom appeared in the conventional black. After the exercises a delectable report was enjoyed by all present.

The decorations of the parlor, hall and dining room were very tastefully arranged and consisted of ferns, palms, asparagus and sweet peas. The happy couple were recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents, including silverware, table linen, oil paintings and hand-worked sofa cushions.

The guests of the occasion numbered about fifty. Aside from near relatives and friends in this city, the following persons were present: Mr and Mrs R F Beattie and Mr and Mrs C Schnebel, Oregon City; Mrs Fred Nolf, Pendleton; Mrs Herbert Condon, Moscow, Idaho; Mrs Kate Hanna, Neah Bay, Wash; Mrs G B Hovenden, Hubbard; Miss Carroll Johnson, Creswell; Oscar Gorrell, Stephens, and Herbert Hanna, Union.

TRACY DEAD.

Wounded By Posse and Shot Himself.

Made a Desperate but Futile Fight for His Life.

Special to the GUARD.

SPOKANE, August 6.—Dispatches from Creston, Lincoln county, Wash, this morning bring the information that Convict-Murderer Harry Tracy, who has been hunted night and day in Oregon and Washington for nearly two months past, is dead. He came to his death by his own hand, having shot himself through the head with a pistol some time last night.

For the last few days Tracy has been hard pressed by several posses. Monday he spent the whole day at the home of a rancher by the name of Eddy. Tracy made Eddy feed his horses, sharpen his knives and razors and do other small favors for him.

This was the last seen of the convict until last night when he was surrounded in a swamp near Creston by Sheriff Gardner's posse. A desperate battle occurred during the night in which Tracy was wounded in the knee and thigh, crippling him so badly that he could not walk. About 20 minutes after the firing ceased a single pistol shot was heard, and at daybreak this morning the members of the posse found the dead body of Tracy in a wheat field near the swamp with a bullet hole through his head. The single shot heard was the fatal one. Tracy, knowing that he could not escape his pursuers with a badly crippled leg, chose immediate death rather than to be taken alive and to meet death on the gallows like an ordinary murderer.

When the body was found the pistol was tightly grasped in his right hand.

The body was found by Constable Straub and posse who delivered it to Sheriff Gardner.

Will Pay Reward.

Special to the Guard.

SALEM, Aug 6.—Governor Geer was notified this morning of the killing of Harry Tracy last night near Creston Wash, and will immediately take steps to identify the body and pay the reward to those to whom it belongs.

Body Taken to Davenport.

Special to the Guard.

SPOKANE, Aug 6.—Sheriff Gardiner took Tracy's body to Davenport, Wash, this afternoon for shipment to Salem where it will be buried.

WEDDED AT OAKLAND, CAL,

Daily Guard Aug 7

Rev Chas F Woodward, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Eugene, arrived home this morning from Oakland, California, bringing with him a bride, having been married there on Tuesday, August 5th, to Miss Elizabeth A Glunz, daughter of Mr and Mrs Christian Glunz. Dr Warren H Landon was the officiating clergyman.

The many friends of the Rev Mr Woodward, who has been in Eugene only a short time, will be pleased to learn of his marriage, which was quite a surprise to most of them, although he confided his secret to a few at the time he left for Oakland a few days ago.

Rev and Mrs Woodward will occupy the Presbyterian manse on Lincoln street in the rear of the church building, and will be at home to their friends after September 1st.

BOYCOTT AT GRANTS PASS

Federal Trades Union, Recently Organized, Declares Boycott Against "Unfair" Stores.

In Grants Pass there is a Federal Trades Union composed of about 800 working men of different trades, similar to the one organized in Eugene not long ago. A demand was made by the Grants Pass union that the stores close at a certain hour in the evening. About one-half of them complied while the other half refused, and now the union has delared a boycott against those who refused. The patronage of 800 people amounts to a whole lot in a town the size of Grants Pass, and the "unfair" stores, as they are called, are now pretty much worried over the situation. The Courier tells of the boycott as follows:

Grants Pass merchants, or a part of them at least, are facing a calamity, the seriousness and extent of which is not to be compared with anything ever before known in the history of the town. The Federal Trades Union have classed the business houses into two classes, known as "fair" and "unfair" establishments. The "unfair" stores are those which have failed to recognize the petition of the Union and against these a boycott has been delared by the Federated Trades.

As there are some 800 members in the Federated Trades Union here, it can be seen at a glance that the boycott is having its effect upon the "unfair" business houses.

The stores are about equally divided. Each are equally obstinate in their views, the one refusing to withdraw from the Union and the other refusing to support it. Unless something is done soon to bring harmony about the disagreement will bring unpleasant results.

HEADS NEARLY BLOWN OFF

Two men, Albert Abel and Jesse Cheshire, nearly had their heads blown off at Astoria last Friday afternoon in an attempt to burn some powder. One of the men had been given about a pound of powder to throw in the river, but he and his companion decided to burn it if possible, it having been damaged. They spread the powder out on the street and ignited a fuse that had been attatched to it. As it did not burn immediately they approached, and while their faces were over the powder it exploded. Cheshire had his face, ears and hair badly burned, while Abel had his mouth open and inhaled some of the burning powder. The latter's condition is critical and he is not expected to recover from the shock. Abel's home is in Eugene and he was in the Philippines with one of the volunteer regiments. Cheshire's home is at Grants Pass. Abel's many friends here regret to hear of the accident and hope he may recover.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G W Roberts of Elizabeth, W Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Sheriff Gardner Refuses to Surrender the Corpse.

Relic Hunters Strip the Body of Clothing and Tear the Bandage Off of the Wound.

DAVENPORT, Wash, Aug 7.—There is a big squabble over Harry Tracy's body which is still here in the custody of Sheriff Gardner whose posse wounded the murderer and caused him to shoot himself. Sheriff Gardner absolutely refuses to surrender the body.

THE BODY STRIPPED.

The body has been viewed by hundreds of curious people since its arrival here. Relic hunters, without regard to decency or common sense, have entirely stripped the body of every stitch of clothing and have even torn the bandages off the wounds on his leg which Tracy tied on himself.
