SEVERAL WOUNDED.

Riot at Wilkesbarre During Which Deputies Fire On Strikers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 16.—A riot occurred at the Warner washery at Durysa during the afternoon. Trouble had been brewing since early morning. Before 7 o'clock women and boys crowded about the place and started to interfere with those who wanted to go to work. Sheriff Jacobs and a number of deputies were on the ground, and they held the crowd back. The works were started, but remained in operation only a short time. The crowd on the outside threw stones over the stockade at the deputies who were on guard inside. Several times the deputies were tempted to fire. Rather than have any trouble work was suspended for the time being.

The deputy sheriffs returned to Wilkesbarre early in the evening, reporting all quiet at the washery where they left. They had hardly reached Wilkesbarre, however, when the deputies on guard were attacked. Several men in the mob also attempted to climb over the barricade. The deputies warned them to go back, and when they did not, a volley was fired. Half a dozen men were wounded, but none of them, so far as is known, seriously. Warrants have been sworn out before the burgess charging the deputies with rioting and felonious wounding. The constables went to the washery and placed 25 men under arrest. They were held in $300 bail each. They could not furnish the bonds and were brought to the county jail here.

The date over the question was spirited, but the feeling of the members of the lodge that such fairs and carnivals were not in accord with the fundamental principles of the order was evidently very strong, and the committee's recommendation was overwhelmingly adopted.

The combined salmon pack of British Columbia and Puget Sound in 1901 was 2,319,912 cases. The canned pack of 1902, estimated for British Columbia is 621,000 cases, and for Puget Sound 300,000 cases.

THE NEW TAX LAW.

County Court Has Not Now Any Jurisdiction to Extend Time for Payment.

Salem, Or., Aug. 15.—Under the new law for the collection of delinquent taxes, unpaid taxes become delinquent after the first Monday in October. The county courts have absolutely no jurisdiction in the premises and do not have the right to extend for a day the time for the collection of any such delinquent taxes. Under the old law they became delinquent after April 1, but the county court had the authority to make such extension of the time in which to make the collections as was deemed proper. But under the new law the taxes will absolutely become delinquent after the first Monday in October.

Section 14 of the law now in operation prescribes the time of payment, the amount of penalty and interest for delinquencies, etc.

Section 19 of the same act treats with the delinquent roll and prescribes when and in what manner it shall be made. It is as follows:

If any of the taxes mentioned in the roll shall remain unpaid, and the sheriff shall be unable to collect the same, he shall immediately after the first Monday of October extend the amount of the tax on each several parcel of real property, and upon the personal property assessed to each individual, in a column provided for such purpose on the tax roll, headed delinquent, and shall return such roll, together with a statement showing the total amount of double assessments, and other errors, etc.

Subsequent sections of the act provide that after the examination by the county clerk of the roll, and when the proper credits have been made for errors, etc., then the roll shall be returned to the sheriff with a warrant commanding him to sell the property upon which the tax was levied.

So it will be seen that the county court has no voice in the matter. The time when the unpaid taxes become delinquent, as well as the time of their collection now being regulated entirely by statute, and there will be no extension of time.

SURPRISED BY MOROS.

Outpost Attacked and Two American Soldiers Killed.

Manila, Aug. 15.—A small party of Moros surprised an outpost of the Twenty-seventh infantry at Camp Vickers. Sergeant Foley and Private Curvey were killed, and Private Vickers was severely wounded. The Moros, who numbered only a dozen, were armed with spears and swords. The morning was foggy. The attacking party crawled to within a few feet of the sentinels and then sprang upon them suddenly. The entire outpost rushed to the relief of the sentinels, but they were too late, and the Moros escaped, although possibly a few were wounded.

The American sentinels were terribly cut with the spears and swords. The attacking Moros were all from Bacolod, and the capture will probably result in a move against the town, which has a strong fort and other defenses.

Some of them were told, according to the affidavit, that he was wanted to take the place of striking miners. One-fourth of the capital stock will be used for building the elevators, yards, branch offices, etc., and another fourth will be made a cash fund for the purpose of dealing in cash grain and provisions on the board of trade. The remaining half of the capital stock will be left virtually with the farmers in the various banks where the money has been raised to enable them to carry their crops for a more favorable market.

Two of the men who swear they were shanghaied made their escape and are back in this city. They tell in affidavits furnished to the World how they were lured to Pittston, how their car was attacked by strikers, how they were fired upon, and how they were finally rescued by an armed band and brought to a shed near the coal mine.

Some of them were told, according to the affidavit, that he was wanted to take the place of striking miners. "We are going ahead with our plans to get from Vancouver into Portland," said President Mellen, in response to a question on that subject. "There will not only be the bridge across the Columbia river, but also one across the Willamette, to give us a proper outlet to Portland. It will also be necessary to tunnel through the top of the peninsula between the two rivers. Our surveys have just been completed and we are going ahead carefully with the other arrangements. It will take about $3,000,000 to bring our trains into Portland from Vancouver, and we will not undertake such a large work without the most careful consideration.
