

Eugene Guard.

SATURDAY..... NOVEMBER 1

Portland Telegram punster: Since the British are having so much trouble with the Mad Mullah, why don't they send him a mad mule, eh?

The two Grants Pass pine needle factories use about two tons of needles daily, turning off about twelve hundred pounds of the finished product.

The Philippines seem to be a poor place for the white man. General Heywood in his recent report to the Secretary of Navy says a two years' term of service is long as it is advisable to keep men there.

According to Lady Somerset, English women in large numbers are becoming addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors to such an extent that many of them are unable to support their families, including their husbands.

One little girl can appear on the street alone in sweater costume. Two or more big girls are required together to break the ice as it were. In union there is courage—with that closely fitting fashion at least.

It is not often a government makes good money by the sale of forts, or rather the land on which they are built. France will move some of the line of fortifications about Paris back into the country suburbs, the land on which they are built being required for the growth of the city. It will cost ten million dollars, but the land vacated will bring twenty millions.

Bishop Moore, Methodist, in charge of the missions in China, Japan and Corea says the converted heathens make good markets for our products. What must those "converted heathens" think of the Christian country that is anxious for their trade while it will not permit their presence? It is a case of the "fatherhood of God" with no "brotherhood of man."

Walla Walla is in trouble. After spending a large sum for the purchase of supposed springs and constructing a water system thereof, it is found that the springs depend for their flow on seepage from irrigating ditches. When the water is out of the ditches above the springs the water supply shows a considerable decrease. Instead of pure spring water, as supposed, they are getting partly seepage.

The installation of a night clerk in the Eugene postoffice will prove a great convenience. Heretofore the hotels have been handling letters that the writers wished mailed on the night trains. And comparatively few people were aware of the fact, or were not acquainted with the method of handling. Now all you have to do to get a letter off on a night train is to drop it in the postoffice at any time before midnight—to be exact 12:45 o'clock.

Justice Harlan of the supreme court of the United States is a giant in stature and though nearly seventy is active and vigorous. He is a member of the faculty of the Columbia University, Washington, law school and quelled a class fight between the freshmen and sophomores the other day by catching the leader of the latter class by the collar and dragging him from the mix-up. This sobered the boys and at his direction they dispersed.

Joaquin Miller comes back to the land of his youth and early manhood with compliments for the country and our women. He told a Portland Telegram reporter in the course of an interview yesterday:

There are a thousand poems between here and California; beautiful forests, beautiful rivers, the stir of railroads, steamers, cities; there are beautiful girls and women. Oregon is greener than Ireland.

It is too true that one part of the world seldom appreciates the suffering and death with which other portions are afflicted. Japan, Egypt and China have suffered terribly with the plague for a year or more, yet we hardly think of it. The Manila Marine Hospital service gives an estimate of 75,000 cases in the Philippines since March 20th with—terrible to think of—about 60,000 deaths. In Egypt for the week ending September 15th there were 9407 cases, with 8278 deaths. Surely a harvest for the grim reaper!

A CHEERFUL LIAR.

The Oregonian has a jewel of a "Washington News Bureau" correspondent—that is from an Oregonian standpoint. He makes no more ado about lying when a matter of politics is concerned than Chinese diplomats do when dealing with Christians.

In a "Bureau" dispatch under date of the 27th the Oregonian news service, referring to the New York election, states that "it is conceded by Democrats generally, and asserted by the Republicans, that Odell will carry the state by 6000 to 20,000 plurality." The poor memories of liars generally work their undoing, and this is a case in point. After such a broad statement as to the political situation in the Empire state no one would expect to hear that the Democrats who "concede" the election are so willfully, perversely foolish as to bet their money on David B Hill, the Democratic candidate for governor. Yet that is what this jewel of a correspondent says they are doing at the odds of about seven to ten—$70 to $100. Singular that men who "concede" defeat should throw their money away!

Ordinarily such an obvious contradiction of statement would be censured or the glaring inconsistency in the home newspaper office. Not so with the Oregonian.

About as two big fools as a proprietor of a "Fool" show could wish resided in New York the other day—one of them is dead now. A medicine show had a member who shot apples off people's heads—that is when he could find a man who would stand before his rifle. He tried it once too often Saturday night, killing his man. And the strange part of it was that both shooter and the apple-holder persisted in their respective parts after the first two shots fired missed their mark. They would not take warning, with the result that one is dead while the other is held for manslaughter.

The Register informing its readers of being elected a member of the Associated Press, and announcing a telegraphic service, says that "Eugene has never had a paper that gave to its readers fresh and crisp from the wires the telegraphic news of the world." The Register is not ignorant of the fact that the GUARD has maintained a special or regular telegraphic service nearly continuously since the early part of 1898. Farther, when the DAILY GUARD was established in 1891 it gave an Associated Press service for more than a year. A newspaper, like an individual, should not lay its veracity open to question.

A growing industry of the country is that of robbing banks. It seems to thrive without protection—seems able to hold its own against European pauper burglar labor.

It was a great triumph for President Mitchell, that at Wilkesbarre yesterday when in falling snow ten thousand coalminers marched after his carriage.

President Roosevelt was spared the humiliation of naming a day of Thanksgiving while the big coal strike was on. It was narrow escape, though.

The New York City budget for 1903 carries nearly ninety-eight million dollars. Rather an expensive town government.

One of the central figures of the Boer war is dead—Commandant Botha.

SHIFTING THE TROUBLE.

LAWYER: If you leave all your property to your second wife, your children will certainly try to break your will.

WILL-MAKER: Of course. That's what I want them to do. I want them to have their full share of my money.

LAWYER: Then why bequeath it all to your wife?

WILL-MAKER: Well, you see, it will be easier for my children to break my will than it is for me to break hers.—New York Weekly.

A PRACTICAL GIRL.

"But can you cook?" asked the prosaic young man.

"Let us take these questions up in their proper order," returned the wise girl. "The matter of cooking is not the first to be considered."

"Then what is the first?" he demanded.

"Can you provide the thing to be cooked?"—Chicago Evening Post.

Hadleyville Items.

Guard Special Service. HADLEYVILLE, Oct. 28.—Quite a number of this place are on the sick list with bad colds.

Alvah Hollandsworth has so far recovered from the measles as to be out again.

Mr and Mrs M Gillespie and niece, Miss Beula Woods, have returned from a visit in Benton county.

Clay Owens, of Eugene, is recreating on his homestead in our hills this week.

J J McCulloch who had his leg broken at Lorane last week is slowly recovering.

Mrs Nighwander visited friends at Irving Sunday.

C O Davis has moved into the Crow house for the winter.

John Briggs captured another bear in our hills last week. That makes three for Mr Briggs during the past two months. Who says there are no more bear left in the mountains?

Little Mary McCulloch's foot is healing slowly from the burn she received last week.

There seems to be lots of hogs for sale and no buyers. I think Lane county will have to advertise for stock buyers.

Chas Sovereign has moved into the old Owens house and will run the Owens hopyard another year.

Frank Hemenway and family are moving into the Owens hop house for the winter. We understand that Mr Hemenway intends erecting a new dwelling house in the spring.

Ray Ludmils has moved on the old Doak place to live in the future.

Chester Jones and wife who have been spending the summer with Mrs Jones' parents at this place returned to Douglas county Sunday.

Goshen Items.

Guard Special Service.

GOSHEN, Oct. 29.—Mr and Mrs Roy Love came up from Springfield, today. Joseph Wilhelm has sold his house and lots in Goshen to a Mr Jones who we are told, will conduct a boarding house.

C W Rychard and family contemplate moving to Thurston soon and as a result Goshen will lose good citizens and Thurston will have a new store and merchant.

A A Keeney, of Tacoma, Wash, sold his farm here last week to a Mr Wiloughby.

Mrs S H Hamilton and Mrs B F Keeney go to Jasper today to visit at that place and at Natron for a day or two.

Merchant and Postmaster J B Overton and wife, of Jasper, were over visiting the latter's parents Sunday.

Bert Nunn has moved from the Wilhelm house in Goshen to one belonging to V B Mathews.

Mrs Berkshire's daughter (nee Miss Lucinda) and little child are visiting her from their home in Southern Oregon.

Mr Barr, of Mohawk, was down the first of the week looking over certain tracts of real estate.

Tom P Keeney, formerly of this place but late years of Seattle, sailed from there to China last week, where he goes in the interest of a furniture company with which he is connected.

Our school is greatly crowded, there being about 75 pupils attending with but one teacher in charge—Mrs Jennie Taylor Vincent. As this number is far more than one teacher can successfully manage it appears almost necessary that the board secure additional help. At this rate we should have a graded school in our village.

Frank Dunn is out today receiving the Hyland hop crop at the Goshen warehouse.

Amos D Hyland, of Lowell, is in Goshen where he came to deliver his hops to Frank Dunn.

Thurston Items.

Guard Special Service. THURSTON, Oct. 29.—Mr Frank Chevclair, our merchant, is improving his dwelling house.

Mr Charlie Gray arrived from the Coast Monday with a load of fresh salmon.

Mr Price and family returned yesterday from a pleasant visit with Mr Price's father near Elmira.

Mr Baker and family, from near Jasper, are moving into the Hayden house with the intention of starting a blacksmith shop at this place.

Mr and Mrs C W Young, of Eugene, Mrs Claud Copple, of Hood River, and Miss Ruby Cook, of Oregon City, spent the day last Monday with Mr J E P Withers and family.

Creswell News.

Guard Special Service.

CRESWELL, Oct. 29.—John Robinet and family have returned home from an extended visit to Silver Lake. Clyde Smith also came and brought his whisks with him.

Born, Oct 27 to the wife of Charles Mittan, a son. Charley feels strongly the weight of a father's responsibility. The wood saw is much in evidence nowadays and the many piles of poles are becoming rather scarce.

Died, Mrs Veatch, of Cottage Grove, at the residence of her son Hamilton Veatch. The cause of her death was paralysis.

Since our last writing Miss Fannie Stone has taken the scarlatina. The disease is in a light form and no bad results are expected from a further spread of the disease.

The pile driving crew are working in this neighborhood, at least they are much in evidence hereabouts.

A telephone message was received by Shep Smith last evening conveying the sad intelligence that a barn had fallen on his brother Iley, who lies on Fall creek, and his death was expected. Mrs Smith and his father and mother left for that place this morning.

Hop Yards Wanted.

50 to 200 acres of hopyards in full bearing wanted in this vicinity at cash or share rented on one to five year leases. Give full description of yards and buildings. Also state quality grown this season.
