OPTION ON BANGS' PARK

R. F. Baker Will Organize Company and Buy the Park.

The First Step Taken to Secure the District Fair for Eugene Next Year.

R. F. Baker, formerly in the real estate business in this city, has secured an option on Bange' Park, northwest of Eugene, and has a movement on foot which will prove to be a great to Wm Brown & Co, of this city, of thing for the city.

When seen this morning by a GUARD reporter, Mr. Baker explained that it but it is understood that the entire lot was his intention to organize a stock averaged about 24 cents. company to buy the park with all the improvements and use the same for the promotion of the district fair which will, in all probability, come to Eugene next fall,

The price asked is quite reasonable $100 per nore with $2000 worth of improvements thrown in. Mr. Baker has nirendy secured a number of subscribore to the shares which are $100 each. There are $4 acres in the tract and toerefore $4 shares for mile. Sixteen of these but been disposed of in a very short time, before the reporter talked with Mr Baker. There will no doubt be no difficulty is disposing of the rest.

The stock company will be capitalized for only $8400.

This is a move in the right direction. by towns.

It should have the support and encouragement of every citizen. The farmers of this vicinity will be deeply interested in the progress of the asso-

Escaped and Recaptured.

Norman Daniels, who was sent to the reform school only two or three weeks ago for burglary in a hotel at Cottage Grove, escaped from that institution Tuesday night with another boy, Frank Riggins, of Yambill county. They lowered themselves to the ground by a rope from the fifth floor of the building. They were traced to Weodburn where the capture was made. In the meantime they had burglarized a store at Brooks.
