HAMPTON BROS

WEEKLY EUGENE GUARD.

Money Taken.

A case has come up in Justice Winter's court that makes the first step toward a dishonest career for a little fellow unless he lets the lesson do him great good.

For some time past W W Moore, clerk of the Woodmen camp, has had a desk in the Register office where he is employed, and has had a place for small change which came in while he is at work there. This he has been broken into several times and money extracted from it. Suspicion pointed to young Ois Brewster, carrier in the office, and he was taken into custody Saturday afternoon. It is hoped that the lesson will be sufficient to teach him the seriousness of his crime. The case was continued until 8 today.

Big Cattle Loss.

We are informed that Dr A Sharples has lost thirty-one head of cattle on his hill ranch south-easterly from Eugene. John Wilson is in charge of the place.

A VETERAN FIREMAN

Ex-Chief Wenie Died at Chicago--52 Years Active Service.

A Blizzard Raging All Over the East--Roof of Big Iron Works Collapsed from Snow.

(Scripps News Association.)
Alexandria, Indiana, Feb. 16.—The roof of the Republic Iron and Steel Mill collapsed here early this morning from the excessive weight of snow. The financial loss is heavy, probably a hundred thousand dollars. Four hundred men are thrown out of employment.

ALL BLIZZARD.
(Scripps News Association.)

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Reports from all directions east and west are to the effect that the country is in the grip of a blizzard today.

VETERAN FIREMAN DEAD.
(Scripps News Association.)

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Dennis Wenie, Chicago's veteran fireman, is dead of kidney disease. He served in the department fifty-two years, twenty-two of which he was chief. He was placed on the retired list in 1901.

MORE BLIZZARD.
(Scripps News Association.)

New York, Feb. 16.—The blizzard continues. Street traffic is blocked and all wire communication seriously interfered with.

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE

(Guard Special Service.)

State House, Salem, Feb. 16.—Senator Kuykendall, of Lane, introduced a measure today providing that hereafter the compensation of the Assessor of Lane County shall be $1200 per year, payable one hundred dollars monthly. The bill passed the senate under suspension of the rules.

(Assessor Burton informs us that the present allowance for the Assessor is three dollars a day for every day employed, making about $900 annually. Considering the added responsibilities of the office of late years, there will be no objection to the small increase.—Editor Guard.)

NO RELIEF FOR TRACEY-MADE WIDOWS.

(Guard Special Service.)

State House, Salem, Feb. 16.—The bill appropriating two thousand dollars in aid for each widow of the two penitentiary guards killed by Convict Tracey while making his famous escape from the Oregon penitentiary, came up in the House today. It was defeated.

LOGGINGSTREAM BILL.
(Guard Special Service.)

Salem, Feb. 16.—The bill providing for the granting of logging privileges on public streams was re-referred to the committee on public lands for amendment shortening the term of franchise and providing for irrigating privileges.

Governor Signs Bills.

SALEM, Feb. 17.—Governor Chamberlain yesterday signed Eddy's bill to provide for the taxation and regulation of corporations; Burleigh's bill to define the boundaries of Wallawa county, and Malarkey's bill to tax gifts, legacies and inheritances. The Eddy and Malarkey bills are the revenue-producing measures, two of the most important passed by the legislature.

Shelley's Warehouse Bill.

SALEM, Feb. 16.—Representative Shelley's bill, requiring warehousemen or grain balancers to furnish bonds in sums ranging from $1000 to $25,000 has passed both houses of the state legislature, and now awaits the signature of the governor.

The State University is being remembered at Salem. Mr. S. H. Friendly received a dispatch from Senator Kuykendall at Salem this afternoon giving good news that the appropriation for improvements to grounds and the purchase of the adjoining Kincaid tract of 17 acres had passed both branches of the legislature. It is not expected that there will be any objection in the governor's office.

AT THE LEGISLATURE

(Guard Special Service.)

State House, Salem, Feb. 17.—The committee on appropriation's bills will foot up $1,300,000, outside of the Portland Lewis and Clark Fair, The Dallas portage road and the Eastern Oregon experiment station.

The total of the appropriations reach over two million dollars.

The section appropriating $14,500 with which to purchase a governor's residence was left out of the final report of the committee, Governor Chamberlain having protested against such an expenditure.

BETTER NAME FOR OREGON BOYS.

(Guard Special Service.)

State House, Salem, Feb. 17.—The senate passed Senator Kuykendall's amendment today regarding the revision of muster roll of the Second Oregon Regiment in the Philippines.

It provides that two privates and one commissioned officer shall be appointed by Governor Chamberlain to perform the work.

The necessity for revision exists through the compiler, Adjutant General Gantenbein, having given but a partial record of the services of the men, showing demerits and punishments, while the credits for meritorious service in engagements and otherwise are not mentioned.

The amendment was not passed without much discussion, at times the debate being attended with excitement and acrimonious expressions regarding the apparent injustice shown the volunteers.

CORPORATION ASSESSMENT.

(Guard Special Service.)

State House, Salem, Feb. 17.—Harris (of Lane) bill to assess the capital stock of corporations was under discussion in the House this morning as a committee of the whole.

Representative Harris made an exhaustive and splendid argument in favor of the measure showing the justice of this manner of assessment, also the expediency considering that funds must be provided with which to meet the large appropriations.

He said it probably lacked one item to make it immensely popular, and that was providing an appropriation for each and every measure introduced calling for state funds. "In that case," he said, "it would pass with a rush."

Judge Hale, of Josephine, represented the corporations, claiming that the special rates paid by shippers by express will be withdrawn should the bill become a law, since the express company would be put to great expense making its reports as provided for by the bill.

Davey, of Marion, said this was a stronger bill than the one introduced by himself. It was just and fair, what the state needed, and he would support it.

Hume, of Josephine, advised caution. He claimed the bill was favored by lawyers in the interest of litigation.

GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN USING VETO.

(Guard Special Service.)

State House, Salem, Feb. 17.—Governor Chamberlain yesterday returned the bill providing special penalties for stealing bicycles without his approval.

STOCK BILL VETOED.

(Guard Special Service.)

State House, Salem, Feb. 17.—The bill restricting the running at large of stock in certain parts of Marion County was vetoed by Governor Chamberlain yesterday.

The Governor based his veto of the measure on the grounds that it was unconstitutional. The Senate sustained this veto.

STATE EMPLOYEE'S DEBTS.

(Guard Special Service.)

State House, Salem, Feb. 17.—The Senate sustained Governor Chamberlain's veto of the bill exempting salaries of state employees from attachment by legal process, then passed the Kay bill repealing the law which exempts such salaries from garnishment. This plus them on a footing with other people.

TO CONVEY CHILDREN TO SCHOOL.

(Guard Special Service.)

SALEM, Feb. 17.—An unusual bill by Senator Kuykendall, yet one which is in force in some states of the Union, has been passed by the legislature. It provides for district school boards to furnish transportation to pupils living more than two miles from the school building, when such decision shall be made by a majority vote at any legally called school meeting. When it may be done at lesser expense the board may pay the board of pupils, instead of furnishing conveyance. The expense is to be met when necessary, by a special levy.

THE EASTERN SNOWSTORM

Whole East and Part of the South Is Affected.

The British Parliament Opened By King Edward--Train Robbers Have Confessed Their Guilt.

(Scripps News Association.)

Butte, Montana, Feb. 17.—George Cole and George Howard have confessed to the recent robbery of a Burlington train. They announce that they will plead guilty when placed on trial. It is now develops that they got but three dollars and seventy-five cents.

PARLIAMENT OPEN.

(Scripps News Association.)

London, Feb. 17.—King Edward opened parliament at 1:30 this afternoon. The day was cold and clear and the crowd along the route of the royal procession was unusually small.

In his speech the king referred to the Alaskan boundary dispute saying he was pleased with the treaty that had been negotiated.

The condition of Turkey was such as to cause grave alarm. The government had used its best efforts to impress the sultan with the necessity of urgent and practical reforms.

The withdrawal of the Venezuelan blockade was referred to as being very satisfactory.

SNOW ALL OVER THE EAST.

(Scripps News Association.)

New York, Feb. 17.—The snow storm has increased in intensity. It is central over the New England states.

Communication by telegraph or telephone is almost entirely cut off. Trains are abandoned on every hand, while those managing to get through are hours late.

Snow is still falling. There is great suffering among the poor. The whole East is storm-swept, the storm extending far into the South.

THE UNIVERSITY GETS $25,000

The following item appeared in the report of the Ways and Means Committee of the legislature upon the amount to be appropriated at this session:

"For the payment of the expenses incurred in making the necessary repairs and improvements in and on the buildings and grounds of the University of Oregon; including the water and electric light plants; for the purchase of additional apparatus and equipment for making additions to the library, and for the purchase of additional grounds for the University of Oregon, said amount to be expended by and under the direction of the Board of Regents of the University of Oregon. $25,000."

The Carriage Factory.

Saturday evening the Commercial Club announced that it would cease negotiations with R M Cramer for the removal of his carriage factory to Eugene from Corvallis. This does not necessarily stop the enterprise from coming here but simply relieves the club of the obligation which is free to be taken up by any other organization or individual in the city. Mr Cramer and Mr Smith, the proprietors, know the advantage of Eugene as a location for the factory and will not give up trying to remove the same to this city.

The Eagles Incorporate.

Saturday afternoon Eugene Aerie No. 175, Fraternal Order of Eagles, filed articles of incorporation with County Clerk E U Lee.

The trustees, J L Lombard, C J Barthe and L N Roney, are named as incorporators. The estimated value of property possessed by the aerie is $500.

The objects of the corporation are the mutual relief of members, administration of the privileges, honors and benefits of fraternity according to the customs and usages of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Some Fine Skins.

Josh Cala is down from the Middle Fork of the Willamette where he has trapped some of the finest specimens of wild animals seen in this part of the country for a long time. He brought in this morning the pelts of several wild cats, civet cats, coons, skunks and minks and disposed of them at a round figure to local merchants. The mink pelts are especially valuable one of the little hides bringing $5, two monstrous wild cats were captured. One of the pelts measures five feet in length.

He trapped one of these and had quite an adventure trying to secure the wild fellow. In the scuffle the cat jumped at him and caught him on the mouth, inserting his lip with his lightning like paw. He had several stitches taken in the wound.

ROOSEVELT GOING TO ALASKA

Will Build Eugene's New Opera House.

His Figures Were $21,987, Which Were the Lowest--Only Two Other Bids Offered.

As stated Saturday evening by the GUARD, L N Roney, was the lowest bidder of three for the construction of the new opera house, and was awarded the contract Saturday evening at the late meeting of the board of directors. Three bids were submitted as follows:

L N Roney, of Eugene, $21,987.
F Van Patten, Salem, $23,264.
Welch & Maurer, Salem, $24,000.

That Eugene has furnished a man who can successfully figure with other architects of other cities is a thing to be proud of and we are glad that the job has been let to a Eugene man.

The next step to be taken in the work is active construction. This, we are assured will be promptly commenced. The building will be ready for use by the opening of the theater season next fall.

STOREY'S OPINION

OF ELLIOT LYONS

Portland Telegram: "I went in to see Lyons, the murderer of Sheriff Withers, when I was in Eugene," said Sheriff Storey, "and I can say that he does not look like a criminal, but instead more like an idiot. His cheekbones are high, and his chin comes to a point; there does not seem to be the firmness about him that you usually find in a criminal. He does not seem capable of weighing things as keenly as many men you would meet."

"I talked with Lyons some, but he did not seem very conversative. I rather unceremoniously remarked to him that he had got himself into a pretty bad mess, and made it as strong as possible, in order to make him feel bad, and he replied that he could not help it now. 'What did you shoot a Sheriff for, when you ought to have known the result?' I asked him," said Sheriff Storey, "and he replied that he did not know himself."

"People were pretty well stirred up in Eugene over the affair. Withers was popular. He was a good friend to every honest citizen, and too good a man to be shot by a dirty scoundrel like Lyons."

Pioneer Lane Co. Woman.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rhinehart, one of Oregon's pioneer women, died at her home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Crum, at Olex, Gilliam County, January 30, 1903, aged 96 years. Deceased was a native of Tennessee, being born in that state in 1807. With her husband and children she crossed the plains from Iowa to Oregon in 1850, settling in Lane County. She was the mother of 13 children, eight of whom are living. The living children are: James Rhinehart, of Portland; Frank Rhinehart, of Grant County; Henry Rhinehart, of Union; Jasper Rhinehart, of Medford; George W. Rhinehart, of Condon, formerly of Creswell; Mrs. Sarah Crum, of Olex, and Louis and William Rhinehart, both residents of the State of Washington. Her husband, Louis Rhinehart, died at Union in 1875. Her remains were taken to Union for interment.
