Economy in medicine must be measured by two things—cost and effect. It cannot be measured by either alone. It is greatest in that medicine that does the most for the money—that radically and permanently cures at the least expense. That medicine is

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It purifies and enriches the blood, cures pimples, eczema and all eruptions, tired, languid feelings, loss of appetite and general debility.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it reliable and giving perfect satisfaction. It takes away that tired feeling, gives energy and puts the blood in good condition." MISS ERVIE COLSON, 533 10th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Policemen in Various Cities.
The proportion of policemen to population is one to 307 in Paris; one to 408 in London, and one to 458 in New York City.

Overworked.
"Yes," remarked the sawmill owner, "we're so busy now we have to keep our plant running day and night."
"Why," returned the visitor, "I thought this was your dull season."
"Well, it is usually, but we've got a rush of orders from the breakfast food companies."—N. Y. Times.

Serious Fun.
Comedian—The public doesn't appreciate my jokes. Isn't it funny?
Soubrette—Yes. Almost as funny as the jokes.—Chicago American.

Dominion's Artillery Poor.
Lord Dundonald, head of the Canada militia forces, says the artillery of the Dominion is fit only for scrap iron.

Strength Needed.
"I don't see why officers in the army should be required to be strong. They don't have to do any lifting."
"No, but they have to carry so many medals."—

Genius Indecent.
Ida—Mabel is a genius.
May—In what way?
Ida—Why, she never throws anything away. When her black gloves got too old she cut them up and made beauty spots.

No Delay.
Mamma, on hearing that her sister had received a new little girl, said to Lillian, her little daughter:
"Lillian, auntie has a new baby, and now mamma is the baby's aunt, papa is the baby's uncle, and you are her little cousin."
"Well," said Lillian, "wasn't that arranged quick!"—Little Chronicle.

Always the Mode.
"You don't care much for display?"
"Not much," replied the very wealthy man.
"Yet there is some satisfaction in not being wholly out of style."
"That is the point precisely. The things that money buys goes out of fashion in a very few months; but the money itself becomes more stylish every century."—Washington Star.

Grand Welcome.
"What is all that hilarity up in the big apartment house?"
"Fire."
"I don't see why the people should be hilarious over a fire."
"Yes, it's the first fire they've had in the furnace since November."

Wolves Paid for Heifer.
A ranchman in Natrona county, Wyo., had a heifer killed by wolves. To get even with the latter, he placed strychnine on the heifer's carcass. Within a few days he found eight dead wolves and one coyote beside the remains. The heifer was worth only $25, and the wolves and coyote will return to the ranchman something like $200 in bounty and sale of skins.

Death Months.

On a Golden Plate.
President Roosevelt recently received an invitation on a gold plate. It was not political, but it asked him to attend the mining congress in Lead, S. D., next September. The plate was not big enough to eat a dinner from, as it measured two and three-fourths by five inches, but it was large enough to show what kind of gold the Black Hills produce.

Gold Production.
The estimated production of gold in 1902 was $50,853,070 and of silver $31,049,025.

Weak?

"I suffered terribly and was extremely weak for 12 years. The doctors said my blood was all turning to water. At last I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was soon feeling all right again."
Mrs. J. W. Fiala, Hadlyme, Ct.

No matter how long you have been ill, nor how poorly you may be today, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine you can take for purifying and enriching the blood.

Don't doubt it, put your whole trust in it, throw away everything else.

One Day Nearer Home.
O'er the hills the sun is setting,
And the eve is drawing on;
Slowly drops the gentle twilight,
For another day is gone.
Gone for aye—its race is over,
Soon the darker shades will come;
Still, 'th' sweet to know at even,
We are one day nearer home.

One Day Nearer.
"One day nearer," sings the seaman,
As he glides the waters o'er,
While the light is softly dying,
On his distant native shore.
Thus the Christian on life's ocean,
As his light boat cuts the foam,
In the evening rife with rapture,
"I am one day nearer home."

Worn and weary, of the pilgrim
Hails the setting of the sun;
For the goal is one day nearer,
And his journey nearly done.
Thus we feel when, o'er life's desert,
Heart and soul are sore we roam,
As the twilight gathers o'er us,
We are one day nearer home.
—Rev. Benj. H. Hunt.

A Beautiful Young Society Woman's Letter.

ST. PAUL, MISS. 321 West Main St. Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., Dear Sir:

"I took Peruna last summer when I was all run down, and had a headache and backache, and no ambition for anything. I now feel as well as I ever did in all my life, and all thanks is due to your excellent Peruna."—Bess F. Healy.

The symptoms of summer catarrh are quite unlike in different cases, but the most common ones are general lassitude, played-out, tired-out, used-up, run-down feelings, combined with more or less heavy, stupid, listless, unsteady condition. Relish for food and the ability to digest food seems to be wanting.

Skin eruptions, sallow complexion, biliousness, coated tongue, fitful, irregular sleep, help to complete the picture which is so common at this season.

Peruna so exactly meets all these conditions that the demand is so great for this remedy at this season of the year that it is nearly impossible to supply it.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, written once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Pleasure Once.
"That is a handsome couple," said the observer on the frozen lake. "Yes, they are married," remarked the modern Sherlock.

"How do you know?"
"I notice he frowns every time he has to buckle her skates on."

Making a Noise.
"What do you mean by accepting a callow youth like Jack who's just out of college? Why, he'll make a noise in the world!"
"Oh," said Mabel, "you just ought to hear him give his cute college yell and you wouldn't think so!"—Baltimore Herald.

Not Superstitious.
"I am afraid you are superstitious."
"Deed I isn't," said Mr. Erastus Pinkley; "some folks is a-sky-ath of ghooses an' all kin's of critters; but as long as I has a rabbit's paw in my pocket I feels pufkly safe."—Washington Star.

Diffident.
Miss (sternly)—How is it, Mary, that I never hear a sound in the kitchen when you are entertaining that man?
Mary (archly)—Please, ma'am, you see, the poor fellow is that bashful for the present that he does nothing but eat.—Smart Set.

Poor Hubby.
Husband—Where do you want to go on a vacation?
Wife—Oh, anywhere that's expensive and restful.—Life.

During Spring Flood Time.
Teacher—Can you tell me where the Mississippi river rises, Johnnie?
Johnnie—Along its entire length, Ma'am.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Easily Explained.
Stubby—Why is it more women can not discover the "secret of success?"
Penn—Oh, because when it reaches them it is no secret.

Away Behind the Times.
Goose quill pens and drying powders are still used in English law courts and the House of Lords and in the French Chamber of Deputies.

As It Should Be.
St. Valentine lost his head in the Claudian persecution, 270 A. D. Ever since then men who have lost their heads have considered St. Valentine's day a most suitable occasion upon which to tender appeals to the ladies responsible for their losses. This seems reasonable.

Modern Warfare.
Bess—What would you do if you were in my shoes?
Tess—Well, I think it would be me to try to be a shocker and have them cut down to my size.

Forever at Him.
Newitt—Funny! I always associate your wife with a certain episode in my own life. There's just one thing she always reminds me of—
Henpek—I wish I could say that. There's a lot of things she always reminds me of.—Philadelphia Press.

A Possible Obstacle.
Clara—Of course you will be at church Easter morning.
Alice—Yes, unless the cook wants to go.—Detroit Free Press.

DISAGREEABLE REFLECTIONS

The mirror never flatters; it tells the truth, no matter how much it may hurt the pride or how humiliating and disagreeable the reflections. A red, rough skin is fatal to beauty, and blackheads, blotches and pimples are ruinous to the complexion, and no wonder such desperate efforts are made to hide these blemishes, and cover over the defects, and some never stop to consider the danger in skin foods, face lotions, soaps, salves and powders, but apply them vigorously and often without regard to consequences, and many complexions are ruined by the chemicals and poisons contained in these cosmetics.

Skin diseases are due to internal causes, to humors and poisons in the blood, and to attempt a cure by external treatment is an endless, hopeless task. Some simple wash or ointment is often beneficial when the skin is much inflamed or itches, but you can't depend upon local remedies for permanent relief, for the blood is continually throwing off impurities which irritate and clog the glands and pores of the skin, and as long as the blood remains unhealthy, just so long will the eruptions last. To effectually and permanently cure skin troubles the blood must be purified and the system thoroughly cleansed and built up, and S. S. S., the well known blood purifier and tonic, is acknowledged superior to all other remedies for this purpose. It is the only guaranteed strictly vegetable blood remedy. It never deranges the system or impairs the digestion like Potash and Arsenic drugs of this kind, and assimilation of food and improves the appetite. Being a blood purifier and tonic combined, the humors and poisons are counteracted and the blood made rich and pure, and at the same time the general health and system is rapidly built up and good health is established, and this, after all, is the secret of a smooth, soft skin and beautiful complexion.

Some two years ago I suffered a great deal on account of bad blood. Small rash or pimples broke out over my body and kept getting worse day by day for a year. Seeing S. S. S. advertised in the papers, and having heard also it had cured several people in this city, concluded to give it a fair trial. After using the medicine for a couple of months, taking in all six bottles, I was entirely cured.

PRAIRIE CAVERN IN OKLAHOMA.

Interesting Hole Where Such Freaks of Nature Wouldn't Be Suspected. At a spot eleven miles southeast of this place in the level prairie upland is an opening about forty feet in diameter and sixty in depth, says the Oklahoma State Capitol. By clinging to its rocky and precipitous walls a person may descend to the bottom and there find the openings to two caves, one leading westward and the other to the east. For years this cave has been known as Rock Prairie cave. It is one of the most striking natural curiosities in the Chickasaw nation. The caves are of unknown length and through one rushes a subterranean stream of great depth in places and icy coldness. Exploring parties have ventured into these labyrinths for hundreds of yards, but the danger of becoming lost has prevented a thorough examination of the underground passages.

The cave leading westward is easiest of access and contains a number of spacious chambers. The room is about 70 feet square and 50 feet from the floor to the ceiling. The floor is obstructed with huge bowlders. The darkness and stillness are intense. Picnic parties sometimes go there, and with a large bowlder for a table, eat their luncheons in the glare of torches that cast uncanny shadows along the massive walls.

Timid persons hesitate in venturing into the depths of the eastern cave. The passage starts downward at an angle that compels the explorer to crawl and slip and slide for nearly 100 feet before reaching a spot where a person may stand upright and walk safely. From the darkness echoes the sound of rushing water, which later is found to be a stream which runs from 8 to 30 feet in width and from 6 inches to many feet in depth. Men have waded in the stream until the water reached their chins and then gone in a boat to points where they were unable to touch bottom with the longest oars. A farmer carried his boat into the cave several years ago to follow the stream to the end. At a depth estimated to be 200 feet below the surface of the ground is a natural bridge formed by a huge stone that fell across the stream. The water plunges underneath this bridge like a mill race. A boat can be pulled over the bridge, however, and launched on the other side. About 100 feet below the bridge the stream widens into a broad, deep pool, with a high, vaulted roof. Beautiful stalagmites and stalactites adorn this chamber. Two hundred feet below this pool the passage is difficult. It is claimed that this cave has been explored for a mile.

The stream is believed to find its outlet at a spring about three miles from the entrance to the cave. The spring is of great size and volume and flows with remarkable swiftness. In the rainy season the spring boils and rushes as if choked with a flood of water that pours from its mouth. The stream in Rock Prairie cave rises when there is a heavy rainfall in the surrounding country and the increased flow of both springs and stream at such times is taken as evidence that they are connected.

Roasted Meats Rare.
"A good part of the dyspepsia that prevails in America," said the chef of an exclusive hotel to a Philadelphia Record writer, "is due to the custom of baking instead of roasting meats. We say we roast our meats. We talk glibly of 'roast beef,' 'roast chicken' and so on; but what we should say is 'baked beef' and 'baked chicken,' for anything cooked in an oven is baked, not roasted. We don't talk of roast bread, do we? Yet we cook our meat in the oven as our bread is cooked."

"To roast meat you must cook it on a spit before the fire. You must turn it constantly. Every little while you must baste it. It is hard to roast meat. But meat roasted is in every way better than meat baked. It is tender, sweeter and more digestible. Also its appearance is more appetizing and the appearance of a viand has a tremendous effect on its digestibility."

"Experiment—actual experiment—has shown that the sight of an appetizing dish starts the gastric juice to flowing instantly, and that such a dish digests much more quickly and thoroughly than an unappetizing one. Altogether we ought to go back to the genuine roasting process of our ancestors, and our health would improve and there would be less talk about vegetarianism."

"Of course I and all good chefs actually roast meat. But roasting is with the average cook in the average American household an unknown process."

Bees and Red Clover.
Select strains of Italian bees work under certain circumstances on the blossoms of common red clover, particularly of the second crop, the corollas of the latter being shorter than those of the first crop, at least in most cases. Carniolan bees also work on these blossoms. Had the same care been bestowed upon the Carniolan race in the way of selection of breeding material during the past forty years that has been given to the Italian race no doubt select strains might now exist which would work to a greater extent on red clover than the best Red Italians.

The longest tongued honeybees, however, are the Cyprian race, and these work the most freely on red clover under such conditions as any bees will work on this plant. All honeybees are distributing pollen, of course, and effecting the pollination of the plants. Yet the main pollinators of red clover are still wild bees, especially those of the genus bombus, the common bumblebee.

Dr. Loeb says electricity is the underlying cause of vital action, but he has not as yet made a fair demonstration of it.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; time cases out of 100 are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Sold by Druggists, 70c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.
