Some men will go to any length for whiskey. Others in going against it. For instance down in Texas yesterday fifty masked men rode into a town and destroyed three saloons.

Geo. Smith, negro murderer, was hung this morning in Multnomah county jail yard. He told a newspaper reporter yesterday that it was "the will of the Maker and no earthly power could prevent it."

The astonishing increase of insanity in Scotland in the last few years opens a question quite as interesting as that which asks whether the codfish salts the sea or the sea salts the codfish.

We have some smoke from forest fires here occasionally in September, but just think of the condition along the New England coast! A New York dispatch yesterday said the city was "a pall of smoke."

St. Louis don't want it but expects to get the highest raise of the Missouri River flood Sunday morning. The Mississippi was not particularly affected, so the towns and country along the lower Mississippi will not be seriously hurt by the mighty flood of her greatest tributary.

An Oregon City man has returned five cents with interest, in all seventy-five cents, to a New York man whom he wronged out of the nickle years ago. A cheap notoriety. Had it been five thousand dollars it is likely nothing would have been done in the way of restitution.

The United States consul at Canton telegraphs the state department that a million Chinese are starving in Kwang Si province. In this land of plenty we cannot begin to imagine this terrible and long drawn-out suffering. A million people hungry, and no food!

No one can deny that Reames, though he is defeated, made a gallant race. The odds were too great. It would be almost a miracle for a Democrat to be elected to Congress from a district so strongly Republican as this one is. On state or county elections the voters will naturally "scratch" with far more freedom than they will when national issues are involved.

The facts disclosed in the final report of the grand jury which has been sitting in St. Louis are certainly, as the report itself says, amazing. According to this report, for twelve years corruption has been the usual and accepted thing in state legislation in Missouri, without hindrance or interference from the ruling powers of the state.

A "no treating" tavern is soon to be opened in New York City. It has some distinguished backers, men who do not usually invest in the saloon business. They are making experiments and hope to demonstrate the correctness of their theories. They announce that their ambition is to make the saloon business less obnoxious.

SPRAYING HOPS IN CALIFORNIA

Julius Pincus, a hop man of Salem, who is here, says that the hop crop in Oregon this year will be short, especially in the northern part of the valley.

Mr. Pincus also informed the Guard that the hop growers in California have begun to spray their hops this year, something that has never been done there before, as heretofore the mould and lice have not abounded there. But lately these pests have appeared and it becomes necessary to take steps to curtail their ravages.

Seventy-Fifth Birthday.

Those of our citizens who have known Si. M. Titus during his long and honorable career will, like the Guard, be surprised to learn that he has several years to his account on the wrong side of the three score and ten. Mr. Titus does not look it by ten years, but last Saturday was his seventy-fifth birthday.

Payne Will Quit.

Washington, June 5.—Strained relations exist between Postmaster-General Payne and First Assistant Wynne, and as a result, one of them will probably have to go, when the matter is laid before the President. The probabilities are that Payne will be the one, not because he has failed in his duty, but because the work has become uncongenial to him, and the department is much too large for a man in his health.

SOCIAL REALM

(Daily Guard, June 5.) Yesterday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the married life of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Paine and last evening the occasion was honored by the gathering of many friends at their residence on East Eleventh street.

The numerous guests expressed their best wishes and high esteem by presenting the popular physician and his equally popular wife with many very pretty and costly gifts, mostly in silver. A fernery in silver with a mirror base was one of the most beautiful. This was presented by Eugene friends. Many tokens came from Salem in honor of the occasion.

Misses Carrie and Therese Friendly, Lulu Renshaw, Grace Bogart and Maybel Kuykendall assisted the hostess with the service and reception of the guests. The house was decorated with taste. The hallway bore a wealth of wild flowers in blue and gold, the first parlor was in pink, the second in giant red roses and fuchsias while the two dining rooms were of white. Flowers and ferns were used abundantly and the effect of all, with varicolored electric lights, was beautiful in the extreme.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at tea time. In the summary of points Mrs. F. W. Prentice secured first recognition and Mrs. Adaline Church second. SIUSLAW NOTES.

Marriage of Miss Brynd to C. O. Bean at Florence—Other Notes.

(Guard Special Service.) Mapleton, June 4.—Election is over and Binger got a large per cent. of the vote of the Siuslaw. Will he be just to his friends or will he strive to win those places which are doubtful by giving them the largest piece of pie?

The steamer Marguerite has taken the place of the Miak, giving much better accommodation. Yesterday Mapleton was nearly deserted. So many of our citizens went down to Florence to attend the wedding of Miss Katie Brynd to C. O. Bean of Aberdeen, Washington.

We hope the large tides this month will open a channel across the bar. If they do not we are worse off than we were before we had any jetty.

BAD DREAMS.

Where Do They Come From?

A great deal of philosophizing has been done in the endeavor to determine the cause of dreams. At the best, the question is left unsettled, the materialist who relates all dreams to physical causes seeming to have a shade the better of the argument. It is, however, certain that womanly intuition and motherly experience furnish a solution of the common cause of bad dreams, which appeals at once to practical good sense.

proper activity of the liver, make the food foul, start the nerves to throbbing and the head to aching. Almost everybody at some time or another experiences this physical disturbance as a result of a disordered stomach.

A WISE WATCHWORD.

Take care of the stomach and the body will take care of itself, is the watchword of health. True, not all diseases reach the body through the stomach, but in so many cases diseases of other organs may be traced directly to the disordered stomach that it is surely true that the man with a sound stomach has the best chance of preserving sound health.

Mr. O. S. Copenhaver, of Mount Union, Huntington Co., Pa., (Box 222), writes: "About twelve years ago I was suddenly taken with a pain in the pit of the stomach, which was so violent I could not walk straight. It would grow more severe until it caused waterbrash and vomiting of a slimy yellow water. I consulted a physician and he told me I had a form of dyspepsia and treated me for about six months with but little benefit. I still kept getting so weak I could scarcely walk. I then tried another physician and he told me my liver was out of order and that I had indigestion. He gave me a treatment and I got some better, but only for a short time. I then tried another one who said I had chronic indigestion, ulceration of the lining of the stomach, torpid liver and kidney affection. He treated me for more than a year, and I felt better but it did not last. I then took to using several widely advertised patent medicines, but received no more than temporary relief while using. I then tried Dr. Pierce's Lafayette Veatch was born in White county, Illinois, March 24, 1840, and moved to Davis county, Iowa, with his parents in 1845. He was married to Miss Kiziah R. Stout April 3, 1866, and came to Oregon the same year. The following year he took up the homestead where he has resided until his death.

Gift of Senior Class.

The Senior class has presented the University of Oregon with four magnificent busts. The gift consists of the life-size busts of Daniel Webster, Wendell Phillips, H. W. Longfellow and John Marshall.

The busts are made of Florentine alabaster, and are to be set up inillard Hall, with appropriate exercises on class day. It is an established precedent that the graduating class should present the University with some kind of a gift to serve both as a memory of the class and as an expression of loyalty towards the University.

Band Remains Intact.

The term of service for the Fourth Regiment band boys expired Wednesday. All but seven immediately re-enlisted and the organization of the Fourth Regimental band is in no wise disturbed. Those who did not re-enlist in the service turned in their uniforms Wednesday evening.

medicines, using his "Golden Medical Discovery," "Favorite Prescription" and the "Pleasant Pellets," and in two months' time I was feeling better than I had for years before. I can truthfully say Dr. Pierce's medicines did me more good than any I had ever taken."

A LESSON TO BE LEARNED.

If there is one thing more than another taught by Mr. Copenhaver's experience it is that it is a waste of time, money and health to delay the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery when the stomach is diseased, whether or not other organs are involved. Here is a record of treatment by three physicians, with "little benefit" as the best result of their treatment; the use of "several widely advertised patent medicines" with no result but "temporary relief while using;" and all this at an expense of time, money and suffering. Then he "tried Dr. Pierce's medicines, and in two months' time was feeling better than for years before." There are thousands of similar cures on record. They all point to the same fact. The prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery saves health, time and money. The reason why other treatments do not produce lasting benefit, and other widely advertised medicines give only temporary relief while they are being used, is because they are only palliatives. They relieve disease as opium relieves pain while it is being used. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures disease perfectly and permanently, because it goes to the root. It does not deal with effects but causes. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and increases the supply of pure, rich blood, which is the life and health of the body.

"PLAYED-OUT" PEOPLE

are usually worked-out people. They are worn-out because they are using up more energy than they can store up every day. Human energy comes from food. Food is the fuel of the body, and its heat is converted into motion. When the fire under the steam engine dies down from want of fuel the power gives out, the engine slows down and ultimately stops. When the food-fuel of the engine of the body is reduced the body power gives out, and in time the body stops activity, because it is starved for energy. If there be abundant fuel in the fire-box of the steam engine without proper combustion, there is a loss of power just the same. And that's the way it is with the man. He may have abundant food, but if it is not properly digested and assimilated, and so converted into blood, the power gives out, the strength fails. Food digested and assimilated furnishes the power that runs the heart, the lungs, the liver, the kidneys—every organ of the body. When the food is not digested and assimilated, then there is a reduction of physical power felt by every organ of the body, and the result is "weak" heart, "weak" lungs, sluggish liver, "weak" kidneys, etc. By enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of the food eaten, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enables the building up of the whole body into a condition of strength and sound physical health.
