ROSEBURG GETS RABID

Still Howling Over the Loss of Pitcher Somers.

Says Eugene Ball Team is Run by Gamblers -- Makes False Accusation Against Management.

The Roseburg papers are still on their high horse. Sunday's Plaindealer goes wild and throws all manner of vile and insulting epithets at Pitcher Somers, and the management of the Eugene baseball team. Here Junction this afternoon. are a few excerpts from a couple of long articles printed by the Plain- burg attending to land matters. dealer Sunday:

"The Roseburg team should protest the game claimed to be won by the Eugene team on Saturday, June 20. The game was lost to Roseburg The game was lost to Roseburg through the most damnable methods known to tin horn gamblers. The Eugene aggregation stole a contemptible two-legged 'it' and had him sign as a member of the Eugene team and while a member of the Eugene team he played as pitcher for the Roseburg team and threw down the game. Such disgraceful, contemptible proceedings show up Eugene as a cowardly, sculduging place and brings their good element into contempt. The honest element should arise in that city and get down on the black-hearted points north this afternoon. scoundrels who perpetrated the out. Mrs. W. B. Dennis of

"The conduct of the gamblers conducting basball affairs at Eugene in respect to Somers is so rotten that it would make a buzzard sick. Somers came down to Roseburg with the Eugene aggregation to play ball Saturday afternoon; but his conduct was so well known that he was literally roasted off the streets and had to hide out. If the man dare to show up in a baseball game at Roseburg he should be presented with several baskets full of over-ripe hen fruit. The action of the Fugene combine is disgraceful and dishonorable in the extreme and should be met with scorn and detestation by all lovers of fair play. The more the affair is aired the ranker the perfume pervades the atmoshphere; and all that the Eugene Guard and Register does to screen their 'sugar teat' baseball manage ment only makes matters worse. If the Eugene girls have not patriotism to make the 'sugar teats' for their players Roseburg will hire the matron of the foundling asylum to do the job.

Roseburg and while he was pitching for Roseburg was actually in the pay of a set of scoundrels and hired to defeat the Roseburg team which he ing Mrs. Croner, returned home to did at Eugene on Saturday, after- Vancouver today. noon, June 20. It is about time for the Eugene papers to shut up and let the mantle of charity be thrown over the infamous act."

We print the above to show the people of Eugene what dirty methods the Plaindealer employs. Everyone knows that the above is a lot of rank rot and falsehood. For all the low, mean, dirty and contemptible screeds ever printed the above takes

The Review also prints a lot of misstatements, but it is not so rabid as Hood River, for the summer. the Plaindealer. The Review states that Somers has been ruled out of the league by President Turner and that he has left for Coos Bay to play with one of the teams there. Somers is still in Eugene, and furthermore his case will not come up before the leauge managers until Tuesday.
